PLAQUE FOR LONG SERVICE — Former Mayor William F. Edelmuth presents a plaque to Sister M. Berenice, O.S.B., during testimonial dinner in her honor Thursday night in Governor Clinton Hotel. Some 220 persons attended program in recognition of Sister Berenice's 50 years as a Benedictine nun and 35 years as coadministrator of Benedictine Hospital. She retired as coadministrator two years ago. Frederick H. Stang, another former mayor of Kingston and toastmaster for the dinner, read speech of principal speaker, U. S. District Judge John M. Cashin, who was unable to attend. Bronze plaque, citing "grateful recognition" to Sister Berenice, will be installed at Benedictine Hospital. (Freeman photo)

All Creeds Laud Nun For Hospital Career

"We thank you with all our hearts for all you have done for the community of Kingston—we can well say to you—'Well done thou good and faithful servant.'"

These words from U. S. District Judge John M. Cashin summed up the feelings of the some 220 persons—representing but a fraction of those who joined in the tribute—who turned out for the testimonial dinner in honor of Sister M. Berenice, O.S.B., Thursday night in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Although Judge Cashin, scheduled main speaker, was unable to attend the testimonial due to a committment elsewhere on the Federal bench his speech was read by former Mayor Frederick H. Stang, toastmaster. The testimonial was postponed from Monday due to the inclement weather on that day.

The occasion marked Sister M. Berenice's 50 years' service in the Order of St. Benedict and her many years service as co-administrator of St. Benedictine Hospital. Sister M. Berenice retired two years ago as co-administrator.

True and Faithful Servant

Judge Cashin said, "It is not easy to sum up in one sentence your 50 years of service to Almighty God and to your neighbor. But I will try—Sister Berenice, in your 50 years as a Benedictine nun, you have been a 'true and faithful' servant to God, and a true Sister of charity to your neighbor."

He described the history and development of the Benedictine Order through the present and the development of the religious community in this country. Their work here is cited in an encyclopedia, he said, which singles out Benedictine Hospital.

Quoting in part from the encyclopedia, Judge Cashin said, "In addition to academic work in the parochial schools, the sisters are engaged in charitable and hospital work, the Benedictine Hospital in Kingston, N. Y., being the foremost of their institutions."

Describes Her Career

Judge Cashin described Sister Berenice's "magnificent labor" in Kingston and her "inspiring career" as a nun and administrator; her efforts to get the hospital out of debt; her success in fund-raising drives which led to expansion of hospital facilities, including the nurses' school, and the cooperation she offered to all those who worked with her.

"When Sister Berenice came to Kingston in 1919," Judge Cashin said, "the old wing—center wing—was all there was to the hospital. Sister Berenice was appointed administrator in 1927. The north wing was completed in 1924 and there was a heavy mortgage thereon. So she had a drive for funds to reduce the debt. I think that the chairman of that drive was the late Philip Elting. Needless to say the drive was a success. But the urge to create a bigger hospital was still in the Good Sister, so ground was broken for the south wing."

The judge said, "When this

Chest Nominates Stall President 9 for Directors

The Ulster County Community Chest nominating committee has announced that the following candidates have been nominated for election to the Chest Board of Directors.

Arthur B. Ewig, prominent local attorney; Clifford A. Henze, executive vice president of Kingston Savings Bank; Prescott C. Newell, manager of purchasing, records, and services at I.B.M.; William R. Stall, assistant vice president of Savings and Loan of Kingston; John F. Schuehler, community relations and information manager at I.B.M.; Dr. Dale B. Lake, Ulster County Community College president; John W. Lawson, visit coordinator of guest services at I.B.M.; Dr. W. Wendell Hoover, superintendent of the Kingston Consolidated Schools and Thomas F. Rieley, general manager of Ulster Foundry.

Pick Schnitzer Treasurer

The Chest nominating committee is composed of Alfred D. Ronder, chairman; Edwin B. Bolz; George Herbert DeKay; Bernard A. Feeney Sr.; and Alexander T. Chepeleff.

In addition, the committee has nominated William R. Stall for president and Robert M. Schnitzer as Chest treasurer.

According to the Chest by-laws, the nominating committee must be composed of two persons from the Chest board (Ronder and Bolz) and three members from the Chest membership (DeKay, Feeney, Chepeleff)

Chest members are any persons contributing financial or volunteer assistance to the Chest. The membership is invited to the annual meeting, slated for February 13, at the Governor Clinton Hotel, to elect directors, area representatives, the

Nixon Advises U.S. Must Be Firm in Panama

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, calling for "significant reappraisal and new direction" in some areas of U.S. foreign policy, says the United States must not retreat from its responsibilities in the Panama Canal Zone.

Nixon, in two speeches and a news conference, also said that under certain circumstances he would endorse a candidate for nomination before the convention next July.

He's Not Candidate

"My noncandidacy is a fact," he said.

Nixon made the foreign policy speech—one of a series he plans to deliver—at a banquet honoring Printing Week and the anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birthday. He also visited briefly with about 200 Republican women at another dinner.

"The United States' control over the zone and canal are not subject to negotiations," Nixon said. "If the United States retreats it will raise serious doubts about its bases around the world."

Points to Communists

He said the Panama trouble "is more than an incident involving students," adding:

"There is no question that Communists in Panama were waiting for an issue. The fact that they were organized shows the problems we face in Latin America in dealing with the virus of communism and Castroism.

"We must set up a program, the ultimate objective being to bring (Premier Fidel) Castro (of Cuba) down."

Would Build New Canal

Nixon advocated construction of a new canal through Mexico or Nicaragua. He noted that the present canal would be a prime war target and also that some naval vessels are too large to pass through it.

On politics, Nixon said: "If one of the four candidates, or five, in my opinion shows clear superiority, and I believe an endorsement would be helpful in getting him the nomination and would give him a better chance of winning in November, I would endorse."

He didn't specify the candidates.

Hope Is Water Job Will Start

Important Phases To Get Preference

Kingston's proposed water department improvement and extension program, discussed at a Thursday night water board meeting was left in committee with hope that some phases of it will begin in the near future.

A proposed $1,335,000 program, reported in 1962, and intended to be sufficient to the year 1980, was rejected by the Common Council. Democratic members of the council favored a bond issue. They then held a majority but failed to get the required two-thirds for approval of a bond issue.

Interest since then has been in getting some phases of the program started and the water board's extension and improvement committee is expected to decide which phases should be started first.

Cooper a Capacity

Edmund T. Cloonan, water department superintendent, in his report to the board noted that Cooper Lake, the city's main reservoir, for the first time since 1961, was at capacity supply on Jan. 1.

Last year's rainfall, however, he said, at 46.32 inches, was below the 38-year average in the watershed, and rain there has been below average since 1961.

December's rainfall of 2.07 inches, was also far below average for the month. It was 4.95 inches in December, 1962, 2.50 in 1961 and 1.56 in 1960.

Averages Listed

Annual averages for the three years prior to 1963 were: 43.26 inches, 1962, 44.71 in 1961 and 49.15 in 1960. The 38-year average is 48.19 inches.

The city had experienced two droughts before the 1962 report on the improvement program, which was based on studies by Clinton Bogert Engineers of New York.

General Provisions

It provided in general:

1. To insure a dependable supply for domestic, industrial and fire-fighting uses to the year 1980.
2. To maintain adequate pressures in the distribution system.
3. To maintain the quality of water.

To Spend $500,000

It was estimated that some $500,000 would be expended for improvements at Cooper Lake. Five phases dealt with improvements in the city, and work was planned to improve the filter plant. Provided for also was exploratory search of upland areas to determine possible large underground sources of water in the event they might be needed.

It was hoped, when the plans were announced, that all would be completed by 1965.

Picard Released

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department received word today that U.S. Consul Frederick P. Picard III, seized at gunpoint Thursday in Zanziabar, has been released and has reached Dar Es Sallam, Tanganyika.

REALTORS HEAR FROM STATE OFFICIAL —Members of the Ulster County Board of Realtors discuss state real estate license law with guest speaker, Bernard Silberman, center, assistant director of Department of State Division of Licensing services, at their meeting Thursday night. With the speaker are Peter Weider, educational program chairman, Mrs. Thomas Madden and Raymond Korzendorfer of the education comittee and Dewey Logan, president. Silberman explained the provisions of the law, what brokers can do and how the public is protected by the license law. When complaints are lodged with the state license bureau they are followed through and investigated. He stressed that the state license bureau is for the protection of the public (Freeman photo)

JOHN G. GLENN JR.

MAKES THE JUMP — Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. made the big plunge today from the space program to national politics. He formally announced he is a Democratic candidate for U. S. senator from Ohio. Glenn, who made the announcement in Columbus, O., will oppose Sen. Stephen M. Young for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Ohio's primary election May 5. The political hopeful was the first American to orbit the earth on Feb. 20, 1962.

Action Is Started On Survey Here of Schools Program

State Education Department executives from Albany and administrators, department heads and faculty members of the Kingston School District Consolidated were scheduled to confer today at special sessions to discuss details for a comprehensive educational evaluation survey.

A pre-planning and briefing session, which will be attended by deputy commissioners of Education, local school administrators and principals, was scheduled for this morning at the George Washington School, where lunch was to be served early this afternoon under direction of John W. Johnson, director of the school lunch program.

Group Here From State

Dr. W. Wendell Hoover, superintendent of schools, said the briefing session would continue after lunch if necessary.

Dr. Walter S. Crewson Jr., associate commissioner of Education, headed the group from Albany.

Classes in the elementary schools were scheduled to be dismissed at 1:30 p. m. and students attending junior high schools and Kingston High School, were scheduled to conclude classes for dismissal at 2 p. m.

It was decided at the last meeting of the Board of Education to dismiss all classes in Kingston schools early to give all faculty members, department heads and administrators an opportunity to attend the general meeting scheduled for 2:30 p. m. at the high school.

Board to Take Part

Members of the Board of Education were expected to take part in the afternoon discussion.

During the sessions evaluation will be made of school programs and curriculum, and the State Education Department officials

Express Some Hope For Canal Formula

PANAMA (AP)—Panama and the United States remained deadlocked today in their bitter dispute over the Panama Canal. Neither government budged an inch, but neither government did anything to make the situation worse.

High sources in American and Panamanian official quarters said there was a slight hope that some formula would be found to get the two governments together again.

Work Behind Scenes

Reports from Washington said U.S. diplomatic troubleshooters were working behind the scenes in the U.S. capital and in Panama.

Manuel Trucco of Chile, chairman of a U.S.-Panamanian committee established under the auspices of the Organization of American States, met Thursday with Panamanian President Roberto Chiari and Foreign Minister Galileo Solis.

Later Trucco reportedly met with Edwin M. Martin, the chief U.S. negotiator, in the effort to resolve the crisis.

Chiari made no move to carry out his threat to call his embassy staff home from Washington and demand the departure of U.S. diplomats from Panama. This would complete the rupture of diplomatic relations he broke last Friday during the violence along the Canal Zone in which 19 Panamanians and four U.S. soldiers were killed.

Rusk Rules Out Pressure

Official Panamanian sources had said Chiari would complete the break unless the United States agreed to negotiate a new treaty to replace the 1903 pact giving it perpetual control of the Canal Zone.

In Washington, the White House reaffirmed U.S. willingness to discuss all issues with Panama. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the United States would not do so "under pressure or threat of violence."

Rusk told newsmen his government feels the situation "can be resolved in the absence of violence through negotiations and discussions between the two governments."

A seven-party alliance opposing Chiari's Liberal party in the May 10 presidential election injected the canal dispute into the campaign by accusing the president of backing down from his original firm stand for U.S. concessions.

Merchants Given Advice on Uptown Renewal Project

The Citizens Uptown Economic Sub-Committee for Urban Renewal yesterday met with Alexander Yosman, City Urban Renewal adviser, for an up-to-date briefing on the progress of the uptown project.

Yosman told sub-committee members the uptown project has about six months to go before public hearings, and about nine months until the start of execution. This compares with spring public hearings and a summer execution start for Broadway East, he added.

Must Learn Problems

The most important function of citizen group sub-committees during the period prior to and during the public hearings, Yosman stressed, is to find out everything they can about the projects, and pass the information along to their neighbors. At the same time, he added, "you should find out what questions or problems most concern the people with whom you come in contact, and bring them back to us for answers."

"This way," Yosman pointed out, "by the time the public hearings come up, we will be dealing with a more informed public on these complicated and important urban renewal matters."

Business Men Present

In going over the details of the uptown project plan approved by the Common Council this month, and submitted to New York urban renewal headquarters, Yosman repeatedly stressed the importance of subcommittee members passing the

Peaceful Solution Stressed

Kennedy, Sukarno Meet 90 Minutes

TOKYO (AP) — Indonesian President Sukarno, in a meeting today with U.S. Atty. Ge. Robert F. Kennedy, reaffirmed his intention of seeking a peaceful solution to the Malaysian crisis.

Kennedy's press secretary, Edwin Guthman, said after the 90-minute talk that the attorney general and the president agreed the Malaysian dispute "should be solved by consultation."

Agrees on Priest

Sukarno also agreed last week in conferences with Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal to seek a peaceful solution of the crisis resulting from their opposition to the new Federation of Malaysia.

Very Friendly

A spokesman for Sukarno said the Kennedy - Sukarno meeting established a "favorable climate" for a future summit meeting of Sukarno and Macapagal with Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia.

Spokesmen for both Kennedy and Sukarno said their first conversation today was "very friendly" and paved the way for personal exchanges among the three Asian government chiefs involved in the dispute.

An American spokesman said the talks would continue Saturday after Kennedy breakfasts with the president in Sukarno's hotel suite.

An Indonesian spokesman said the talks were "carried out in a friendly, smooth way and there were no difficulties at all in finding ways for the solution of the problems which should be solved through consultations by the parties concerned."

Kennedy's Goal

Kennedy's objective is to dissuade Sukarno from seeking to crush the new nation, formed under British sponsorship four months ago by the federation of Malaya, Singapore and the Borneo territories of Sarawak and British North Borneo.

Sukarno, whose country holds the rest of Borneo, contends that Malaysia is a form of British colonialism and has pledged to smash it. But he joined Macapagal last Saturday in calling for a peaceful Asian solution by Asians.

Kennedy, who flew from Washington and is expected to go around the world on his peace mission, echoed that thought on his arrival in Tokyo. He apparently sought to avoid the impression that the United States is interfering.

The attorney general will meet with Macapagal in Manila Monday and is expected to go on to Kuala Lumpur, the Malaysian capital, and London.

Going to South Korea

Kennedy today added South Korea to his itinerary, announcing he and his wife would fly Saturday to Seoul for an overnight stop.

He is expected to meet President Chung Hee Park, but he

Conservative Boss Says Party Won't Support Keating

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—U. S. Sen. Kenneth Keating has little chance of winning the state Conservative Party's support in this year's election, the chairman of the Conservative Party says.

J. Daniel Mahoney, a New York lawyer who devotes full time to the chairmanship, said Thursday Keating's "voting record is not one we are too happy with. He (Keating) looks more and more liberal now than he did a year ago."

He cited an Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) report saying Keating voted with Senate liberals 88 per cent of the time on sample votes chosen by the ADA during the last session.

Mahoney also said in an interview that Gov. Rockefeller would not take a solid state delegation to the Republican convention next summer. He predicted many delegates would support Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Wife of Kingston Soldier Evacuated From Panama; Report Butz Family Safe

After evacuation with their children from the strife-torn Panama Canal Zone as military dependents, two area women arrived yesterday in the United States.

Mrs. Olga Hendricks, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Theresa Hendricks of 80 Chambers Street, this city, and Mrs. Wesley Norton, daughter-in-law of William L. Norton of 3 Gabriel Terrace in Westmere, were among evacuees aboard a plane that touched down at Charleston, S. C.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the former Lenor Wonderly, daughter of Mrs. Clyde E. Wonderly Sr., of 49 Emerson Street, this city, and her husband Harry F. Butz and two children, who reside at Marguerita in the Canal Zone, "are all right," at the present.

Mrs. Wonderly told The Freeman today that Butz is a government chemist in charge of the water supply in the Canal Zone. His father was one of the engineers who built the railroad across the Canal, Mrs. Wonderly said.

The Butz' have been in the Canal Zone for 25 years. Their home is on the Atlantic side of the Canal.

"I tried to call Lenor on Sunday, but the cables were all busy," Mrs. Wonderly said. "On Tuesday, I received a telephone call from a ham radio operator in New York City, who told me he had received a message from the Canal Zone from Lenor stating 'everything is all right, don't worry.'"

Mrs. Wonderly said her daughter's oldest son, Harry F. Butz Jr., is attending Iowa State University. Two other children, Peter and Esther live at home and attend Marguerita High School.

Mrs. Hendricks was accompanied by her two sons, Steven, 4, and Michael, 2½. She said they owed their lives to the Panamanian police—and possibly their pet German shepherd.

Mrs. Hendricks, wife of Spec. 4 Donald Hendricks a member of the 534th Military Police in the Canal Zone, told newsmen she doesn't consider herself "safe at home."

"Home," she said, "is where my husband is." He remained behind in the Zone as others evacuated. "We were living in a suburb of Panama City," she told a reporter.

"Everything was quiet until last Friday when university and high school students started milling around, promising to burn every American car in sight," Mrs. Hendricks said. She noted that Guardia Nacional, Panama's police force organized along military lines, remained neutral most of the time.

"They looked on while cars were burned and stores were robbed," she added.

Mrs. Hendrick's story to a reporter continues:

No Tobacco Here for Those Under 18 Is Police Order

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, mindful of current reports on the effects of cigarette smoking, today issued a reminder that an existing state law prohibits sale of tobacco in any form to persons under 18 years old, and it is to be enforced here.

The chief said:

"Since the recent report on the effects of cigarette smoking, I think it only fair that the public in general, and business people, who traffic in cigarettes and other forms of tobacco in particular, be reminded of the New York State Law which prohibits the sale of cigarettes and tobacco in any form to persons under 18 years of age."

"Section 484, subdivision 5, of the Penal Law, provides that any person who sells, pays for or furnishes any cigar, cigarette or tobacco in any of its forms to any child actually or apparently under the age of 18 years, is guilty of a misdemeanor. It shall be no defense to a prosecution of this subdivision, that in the transaction upon which the prosecution is based, the child acted as the agent or representative of another, or that the defendant dealt with such child as the agent or representative of another.

"Since this report (on effects of smoking) is official, it is my opinion that young people should be discouraged from acquiring the habit of smoking cigarettes.

"Therefore, commencing forthwith, this law will be strictly enforced in the City of Kingston.

Silberman explained the provisions of the law, what brokers can do and how the public is protected by the license law. When complaints are lodged with the state license bureau they are followed through and investigated. He stressed that the state license bureau is for the protection of the public (Freeman photo)

JOHN G. GLENN JR. MAKES THE JUMP — Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. made the big plunge today from the space program to national politics. He formally announced he is a Democratic candidate for U. S. senator from Ohio. Glenn, who made the announcement in Columbus, O., will oppose Sen. Stephen M. Young for the Democratic senatorial nomination in Ohio's primary election May 5. The political hopeful was the first American to orbit the earth on Feb. 20, 1962.

Action Is Started On Survey Here of Schools Program

State Education Department executives from Albany and administrators, department heads and faculty members of the Kingston School District Consolidated were scheduled to confer today at special sessions to discuss details for a comprehensive educational evaluation survey.

A pre-planning and briefing session, which will be attended by deputy commissioners of Education, local school administrators and principals, was scheduled for this morning at the George Washington School, where lunch was to be served early this afternoon under direction of John W. Johnson, director of the school lunch program.

Group Here From State

Dr. W. Wendell Hoover, superintendent of schools, said the briefing session would continue after lunch if necessary.

Dr. Walter S. Crewson Jr., associate commissioner of Education, headed the group from Albany.

Classes in the elementary schools were scheduled to be dismissed at 1:30 p. m. and students attending junior high schools and Kingston High School, were scheduled to conclude classes for dismissal at 2 p. m.

It was decided at the last meeting of the Board of Education to dismiss all classes in Kingston schools early to give all faculty members, department heads and administrators an opportunity to attend the general meeting scheduled for 2:30 p. m. at the high school.

Board to Take Part

Members of the Board of Education were expected to take part in the afternoon discussion.

During the sessions evaluation will be made of school programs and curriculum, and the State Education Department officials

Express Some Hope For Canal Formula

PANAMA (AP)—Panama and the United States remained deadlocked today in their bitter dispute over the Panama Canal. Neither government budged an inch, but neither government did anything to make the situation worse.

High sources in American and Panamanian official quarters said there was a slight hope that some formula would be found to get the two governments together again.

Work Behind Scenes

Reports from Washington said U.S. diplomatic troubleshooters were working behind the scenes in the U.S. capital and in Panama.

Manuel Trucco of Chile, chairman of a U.S.-Panamanian committee established under the auspices of the Organization of American States, met Thursday with Panamanian President Roberto Chiari and Foreign Minister Galileo Solis.

Later Trucco reportedly met with Edwin M. Martin, the chief U.S. negotiator, in the effort to resolve the crisis.

Chiari made no move to carry out his threat to call his embassy staff home from Washington and demand the departure of U.S. diplomats from Panama. This would complete the rupture of diplomatic relations he broke last Friday during the violence along the Canal Zone in which 19 Panamanians and four U.S. soldiers were killed.

Rusk Rules Out Pressure

Official Panamanian sources had said Chiari would complete the break unless the United States agreed to negotiate a new treaty to replace the 1903 pact giving it perpetual control of the Canal Zone.

In Washington, the White House reaffirmed U.S. willingness to discuss all issues with Panama. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee the United States would not do so "under pressure or threat of violence."

Rusk told newsmen his government feels the situation "can be resolved in the absence of violence through negotiations and discussions between the two governments."

A seven-party alliance opposing Chiari's Liberal party in the May 10 presidential election injected the canal dispute into the campaign by accusing the president of backing down from his original firm stand for U.S. concessions.

Merchants Given Advice on Uptown Renewal Project

The Citizens Uptown Economic Sub-Committee for Urban Renewal yesterday met with Alexander Yosman, City Urban Renewal adviser, for an up-to-date briefing on the progress of the uptown project.

Yosman told sub-committee members the uptown project has about six months to go before public hearings, and about nine months until the start of execution. This compares with spring public hearings and a summer execution start for Broadway East, he added.

Must Learn Problems

The most important function of citizen group sub-committees during the period prior to and during the public hearings, Yosman stressed, is to find out everything they can about the projects, and pass the information along to their neighbors. At the same time, he added, "you should find out what questions or problems most concern the people with whom you come in contact, and bring them back to us for answers."

"This way," Yosman pointed out, "by the time the public hearings come up, we will be dealing with a more informed public on these complicated and important urban renewal matters."

Business Men Present

In going over the details of the uptown project plan approved by the Common Council this month, and submitted to New York urban renewal headquarters, Yosman repeatedly stressed the importance of subcommittee members passing the

Peaceful Solution Stressed

Kennedy, Sukarno Meet 90 Minutes

TOKYO (AP) — Indonesian President Sukarno, in a meeting today with U.S. Atty. Ge. Robert F. Kennedy, reaffirmed his intention of seeking a peaceful solution to the Malaysian crisis.

Kennedy's press secretary, Edwin Guthman, said after the 90-minute talk that the attorney general and the president agreed the Malaysian dispute "should be solved by consultation."

Agrees on Priest

Sukarno also agreed last week in conferences with Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal to seek a peaceful solution of the crisis resulting from their opposition to the new Federation of Malaysia.

Very Friendly

A spokesman for Sukarno said the Kennedy - Sukarno meeting established a "favorable climate" for a future summit meeting of Sukarno and Macapagal with Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia.

Spokesmen for both Kennedy and Sukarno said their first conversation today was "very friendly" and paved the way for personal exchanges among the three Asian government chiefs involved in the dispute.

An American spokesman said the talks would continue Saturday after Kennedy breakfasts with the president in Sukarno's hotel suite.

An Indonesian spokesman said the talks were "carried out in a friendly, smooth way and there were no difficulties at all in finding ways for the solution of the problems which should be solved through consultations by the parties concerned."

Kennedy's Goal

Kennedy's objective is to dissuade Sukarno from seeking to crush the new nation, formed under British sponsorship four months ago by the federation of Malaya, Singapore and the Borneo territories of Sarawak and British North Borneo.

Sukarno, whose country holds the rest of Borneo, contends that Malaysia is a form of British colonialism and has pledged to smash it. But he joined Macapagal last Saturday in calling for a peaceful Asian solution by Asians.

Kennedy, who flew from Washington and is expected to go around the world on his peace mission, echoed that thought on his arrival in Tokyo. He apparently sought to avoid the impression that the United States is interfering.

The attorney general will meet with Macapagal in Manila Monday and is expected to go on to Kuala Lumpur, the Malaysian capital, and London.

Going to South Korea

Kennedy today added South Korea to his itinerary, announcing he and his wife would fly Saturday to Seoul for an overnight stop.

He is expected to meet President Chung Hee Park, but he

Conservative Boss Says Party Won't Support Keating

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—U. S. Sen. Kenneth Keating has little chance of winning the state Conservative Party's support in this year's election, the chairman of the Conservative Party says.

J. Daniel Mahoney, a New York lawyer who devotes full time to the chairmanship, said Thursday Keating's "voting record is not one we are too happy with. He (Keating) looks more and more liberal now than he did a year ago."

He cited an Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) report saying Keating voted with Senate liberals 88 per cent of the time on sample votes chosen by the ADA during the last session.

Mahoney also said in an interview that Gov. Rockefeller would not take a solid state delegation to the Republican convention next summer. He predicted many delegates would support Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Wife of Kingston Soldier Evacuated From Panama; Report Butz Family Safe

After evacuation with their children from the strife-torn Panama Canal Zone as military dependents, two area women arrived yesterday in the United States.

Mrs. Olga Hendricks, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Theresa Hendricks of 80 Chambers Street, this city, and Mrs. Wesley Norton, daughter-in-law of William L. Norton of 3 Gabriel Terrace in Westmere, were among evacuees aboard a plane that touched down at Charleston, S. C.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the former Lenor Wonderly, daughter of Mrs. Clyde E. Wonderly Sr., of 49 Emerson Street, this city, and her husband Harry F. Butz and two children, who reside at Marguerita in the Canal Zone, "are all right," at the present.

Mrs. Wonderly told The Freeman today that Butz is a government chemist in charge of the water supply in the Canal Zone. His father was one of the engineers who built the railroad across the Canal, Mrs. Wonderly said.

The Butz' have been in the Canal Zone for 25 years. Their home is on the Atlantic side of the Canal.

"I tried to call Lenor on Sunday, but the cables were all busy," Mrs. Wonderly said. "On Tuesday, I received a telephone call from a ham radio operator in New York City, who told me he had received a message from the Canal Zone from Lenor stating 'everything is all right, don't worry.'"

Mrs. Wonderly said her daughter's oldest son, Harry F. Butz Jr., is attending Iowa State University. Two other children, Peter and Esther live at home and attend Marguerita High School.

Mrs. Hendricks was accompanied by her two sons, Steven, 4, and Michael, 2½. She said they owed their lives to the Panamanian police—and possibly their pet German shepherd.

Mrs. Hendricks, wife of Spec. 4 Donald Hendricks a member of the 534th Military Police in the Canal Zone, told newsmen she doesn't consider herself "safe at home."

"Home," she said, "is where my husband is." He remained behind in the Zone as others evacuated. "We were living in a suburb of Panama City," she told a reporter.

"Everything was quiet until last Friday when university and high school students started milling around, promising to burn every American car in sight," Mrs. Hendricks said. She noted that Guardia Nacional, Panama's police force organized along military lines, remained neutral most of the time.

"They looked on while cars were burned and stores were robbed," she added.

Mrs. Hendrick's story to a reporter continues:

No Tobacco Here for Those Under 18 Is Police Order

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, mindful of current reports on the effects of cigarette smoking, today issued a reminder that an existing state law prohibits sale of tobacco in any form to persons under 18 years old, and it is to be enforced here.

The chief said:

"Since the recent report on the effects of cigarette smoking, I think it only fair that the public in general, and business people, who traffic in cigarettes and other forms of tobacco in particular, be reminded of the New York State Law which prohibits the sale of cigarettes and tobacco in any form to persons under 18 years of age."

"Section 484, subdivision 5, of the Penal Law, provides that any person who sells, pays for or furnishes any cigar, cigarette or tobacco in any of its forms to any child actually or apparently under the age of 18 years, is guilty of a misdemeanor. It shall be no defense to a prosecution of this subdivision, that in the transaction upon which the prosecution is based, the child acted as the agent or representative of another, or that the defendant dealt with such child as the agent or representative of another.

"Since this report (on effects of smoking) is official, it is my opinion that young people should be discouraged from acquiring the habit of smoking cigarettes.

"Therefore, commencing forthwith, this law will be strictly enforced in the City of Kingston.

Ronder Reports Kingston Loan Gain, Re-elected

ALFRED D. RONDER

In a report given by Alfred D. Ronder, president of The Savings and Loan Association of Kingston at its annual meeting, a gain of 14 per cent over total assets reported one year ago was noted. Total assets of the Association as of December 31, 1963, stood at $24,305,023.67. Net savings gains during 1963 total $1,693,490.16, increasing the institution's total savings balance to $20,455,318.27.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of Association the following directors were re-elected for three year terms: J. Ellis Briggs, Walter R. Seaman, George J. Silkworth and Arthur H. Wicks.

At the meeting of the board of directors the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Alfred D. Ronder, president; Samuel D. Scudder Jr., secretary and Edward M. Huben, treasurer.

Executive vice president, H. Van Wyck Darrow; assistant vice president, William R. Stahl; assistant secretary, H. Edward Carter; assistant treasurer, Edward R. Dunn; manager of Highland office, Henry V. Fallerman; manager of the Ulster office, Terrence F. Martin; accountant, Henry Jordan; mortgage officer, Guy C. Seligman; administrative assistant, Mrs. Mabel MacAvery; head teller, Mrs. Ann Raible.

Other members serving on the board are Arthur J. Burns, Albert C. Flanagan, N. Jansen Fowler, Chauncey M. Lane, Gilbert A. Schline, Beatrice H. Wadlin, Alfred D. Ronder, Samuel D. Scudder Jr., and Edward M. Huben.

N. Jansen Fowler was appointed attorney of the Association and Stewart T. Schantz was appointed associate attorney, Highland office.

President Ronder reported that 1963 was an outstanding year in the history of the Association, stating, "It is my privilege each year to make a report to our members concerning the present operations of this institution and its business outlook in the year ahead. I am pleased to inform you that the past year's operations have been very successful and that we have added substantially to our total savings, total assets and total reserves while also increasing our volume of home financing in Ulster and adjacent counties.

"As of December 31, 1963, total assets of our institution stood at $24,305,023.67, a gain of over 14 per cent over total assets reported one year ago. Net savings gains during 1963 total $1,693,490.16, increasing the institution's total savings balance to $20,455,318.27.

"Our home financing activities have helped build and improve our community as well as adjacent communities. I am happy to report that our total home mortgage volume in 1963 increased to $21,444,050.62, an increase of $3,570,814.93 over the previous year and the largest increase ever enjoyed by our association in any one year.

"In order to provide against any possible losses resulting from our mortgage lending activities, this institution added $63,987.09 to its reserves and our total reserves of $1,890,118.52 equal 9.25 per cent of our total savings, well above the minimum requirements of regulatory authorities."

President Ronder noted that there are now 11,010 savings account holders and 2,749 home mortgage loans on the books of the association, bringing the total number of accounts to 13,759. Dividends paid to savers totaled $767,774.82 which is an increase of more than 11 per cent over the previous year.

Posts Are Filled By Kingston Town

A special meeting of the town board of the Town of Kingston was held at the town hall Tuesday, the original meeting on Monday night being postponed because of the snow storm. The special meeting was called to consider applications for various town positions.

The following appointments were made:

Town constable and dog warden, Charles Coutant. Welfare Officer, Mrs. Ruth Reedy. Town Hall Custodian, Miss Cecelia Goldpaugh.

An amendment was offered by Supervisor Douglas Dye and unanimously accepted that, business may be brought up at any town board meeting by the public when recognized by the chair. However, it will be at the discretion of the town board upon the course of action to be taken, that is, they may move to table the business for further investigation.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held Feb. 3 at the town hall.

Two Are Indicted For Furniture Store Robbery

Joseph Bowman, 32, of 54 East Strand, and his wife, Lottie Mae Bowman, were indicted on a second degree robbery and second degree assault charge by the grand jury in a partial report to Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth shortly before noon today.

Bowman and his wife are alleged to have robbed George Chichelsky, 55, of 75 Hasbrouck Avenue, operator of the Chelsea Furniture Exchange at 16 Hasbrouck Avenue, on January 9, last. The indictment contained two counts of robbery and assault.

The Bowman indictment was one of eight returned by the January grand jury in a partial report. The indictments were transferred by order of Justice Elsworth to the County Court for disposition.

Chichelsky, police said, was assaulted and robbed in his store early on the evening of January 9. It was claimed a hammer and chair were used in the assault and that $130, which Chichelsky had in his pocket, was taken.

Two men and a woman entered the store, according to police, and began talking to Chichelsky before the assault took place about 6 p. m. Chichelsky suffered a severe head wound which hospitalized him. Telephone wires in the store were reported cut and Chichelsky telephoned the police from the Irving Alcon store at 43 East Strand.

Other indictments handed up are:

The People vs. Robert Willis Waterman, first degree grand larceny.

The People vs. Joseph Barone, also known as Joseph Lagatutta, abandonment of a pregnant woman.

The People vs. Alonzer Tremell, criminally carrying a concealed, loaded pistol as a felony.

The People vs. David Laurence Arnold, two indictments, charging third degree burglary petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Jesse Decker Jr., two indictments, charging third degree burglary, petit larceny and unlawful entry.

There was one dismissal. The People vs. John E. Gillespie, who had been held on a malicious mischief charge.

Chest Nominates

president and treasurer, and a 1964 nominating committee.

Two weeks prior to the Feb. 13 annual meeting, the Chest must publish a legal notice in each township affiliated with the Chest announcing the candidates who will be placed in nomination at the annual meeting.

Open to Others

Additional nominations may be made by Chest members only if they are delivered to the Chest office one week prior to the meeting with the written endorsement of 20 persons from the Chest membership.

"These procedures," says Chest president John F. Schuehler, "are incorporated into the Chest by-laws to give every interested member of the Ulster County Community Chest the opportunity to exercise his interest and franchise in Chest affairs."

"A successful Chest is sensitive to the needs of the community and its citizens," Schuehler concludes.

2 Kingston Men Held for Assault, In Stolen Auto

A car allegedly stolen from Kingston early today, was stopped in Greene County after a chase by state police, who held two of its four occupants on felonious assault charges.

Two young men, John Manfro, 23, of 3 Cedar Street, and Arthur Holmes, 26, of 231 Albany Avenue, are held at the Greene County jail, Catskill for hearing Monday on assault charges after an alleged attack on state troopers. They face charges here later.

Two teenage girls were returned to Kingston for questioning and charges may be lodged against them.

It is charged that the car, a 1962 Chevrolet convertible, owned by Samuel Beck, of 331 Main Street, operator of the Emerson Street Market, was stolen from the garage of the Kingston Buick Co., Inc., 10 Main Street. Police said entrance was gained by the breaking of a rear window.

State police of the Leeds substation said troopers spotted the car speeding on Route 9W in the town of Athens. It was overtaken after a chase of some distance. The arrests were by troopers G. E. Davis and W. C. Curtis.

Manfro and Holmes, booked on the assault charges in Catskill, were taken before Justice of the Peace P. F. Carle, Town of Catskill, and hearing was put over to Monday.

Detectives Gurnsey Burger and Harold DeGraff with Officers Weston Hoffay and Leon Fitzgerald were dispatched to investigate after report of the theft at 5:15 a. m.

The girls were returned here by Sergeants Thomas Tomshaw and Garvin Fisher.

Two Cars Collide

Cars operated by Myer Firestone, 65, of High Falls and William H. Clark, 27, of Curry were in collision Thursday about noon on Route 213 and Cottekill Road, town of Rosendale. Firestone was traveling east on Route 213 when his car failed to make a right turn in the road and skidded onto the west bound lane. The Clark car, owned by Wilson Van Wagenen of Claryville Road, Grahamsville, was traveling west on Route 213 and pulled to the right off the highway, according to Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone and Deputy Sheriff Silas Countryman, who investigated. The Clark car went off the highway and became stuck in the west bound lane. No one was injured and there was damage to both cars.

Three Men Seized

Accused of causing a disturbance by shouting on a New York bound bus near Highland Thursday night, three men were taken into custody by state police on disorderly conduct charges. They were booked as Agrefeno De Jesus, 25, and Confessor R. DeJesus, also 25, of the Bronx, and Justiniano R. Gonzales, 29, of 592 Broadway, city. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace S. Glenn Parks, Town of New Paltz, the defendants pleaded guilty and each received a sentence of 24 hours in the county jail. After being booked at the sheriff's office, the men were released, it was reported. The complaint against the trio was made by Roland Woodward, of Kingston, a bus driver.

Two Drivers Injured

Two drivers reported injuries after a mishap Thursday afternoon at Delaware Avenue and Abruyn Street. Louis P. Perry, 39, of RD 1, Lincoln Lane, driver of a pickup truck, reported an injury of the left elbow, and Robert G. Enright, 45 Hemlock Avenue, driver of a sedan, suffered a neck injury. They were to be treated by doctors. Police said Enright was attempting to turn at the intersection, but the car skidded ahead on ice. The other driver applied brakes, but could not stop in time. Officers George DeYo and Reymond Wells investigated. The mishap was reported at 3:40 p. m.

10 Days for Assault

Lawrence Cody, 24, of 48 Cedar Street, who pleaded guilty to a third degree assault charge last Friday in city court, was sentenced to 10 days in jail today with credit for time served. The charge was lodged by Gray Baynard, of the same address. He was arrested on a warrant Jan. 9.

Merchants Given

wing was completed, the hospital had a bed capacity of 210 patients. But she was not through yet. She built the School of Nursing which was opened in 1959." He said, "today, this modern hospital is what it is through the efforts of Sister Berenice. She was ably assisted by Sister Callista (director of the School for Nurses) and all the other nuns of her Order, and by the nurses, students and registered nurses and by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hospital. Without them she would have been powerless."

Monument to Dreams

The hospital, Judge Cashin said, represents the "monument" to the dreams and aspirations of all those people. But, singling out the honored guest, he said, "God only knows how many hundreds of people are indebted to you for your work among them. And it is for this that we thank you. But we are not the only persons who thank you. There is also another One who has promised to thank you—and that One is the Person who said: 'I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger and you took me in; I was sick and you visited me. As long as you did it for one of these, the least of my brethern, you did it for me.'

"Sister Berenice—we thank you with all our hearts for all you have done for the community of Kingston. We wish you long life and all of God's choicest blessings. We can well say to you—'Well done thou Good and Faithful Servant.'"

Another former mayor of Kingston, William F. Edelmuth, chairman of the testimonial, presented Sister Berenice with a bronze plaque and a $1,500 purse. The plaque is to be installed at the hospital.

Sister Berenice, in accepting the presentation, said that when she was appointed to the admintrative position in 1927, "I wasn't afraid of my responsibilities — I knew the Lord would help me. She outlined the development of the hospital from the first mortgage through the various fund-raising campaigns up to and including future plans. She expressed thanks to the hospital's Ladies Auxiliary, alumnae and benefactors, and said that it was hoped that by this year, "we hope to have my project completed."

'True Christian Flame'

Stang pointed out that the testimonial was a demonstration of appreciation from the "grateful people of Kingston and Ulster County, representing all creeds and from all walks of life; all because we appreciate this little lady and what she has done in her own little way." He described Sister Berenice as a "true Christian flame," and said the testimonial was a means of showing that "these people love you for what you are."

Among those on the dais were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Reilly, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, who gave the invocation; Mayor John J. Schwenk; the Rev. Mother Cornelia, O.S.B., of the Benedictine Mother House in Elizabeth, N J.; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St Peter's Church; Dr. Robert A. McCaig, Saugerties, president of the Benedictine Hospital staff; former mayors Stang and Edelmuth; James A. Dwyer, acting chairman of the hospital's lay advisory committee; Edwin A. Bolz and Sister M. Charles, president coadministrators of the hospital; the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, who gave the benediction and the honored guest.

Mayor Schwenk, who was introduced by Stang as "the most sincere mayor who ever graced city hall, said of Sister Bernice, "We are grateful to you for the health and welfare of the people of the City of Kingston."

Rev. Mother Cornelia, who like Sister Berenice is from Bayonne, N. J., described the honored guest as "an outstanding member of the Benedictine Order—a Florence Nightingale." She said that Sister Berenice was typical of the saying, 'Young men have vision, old men have dreams,' in that she envisioned a project which became her dream realized.

Msgr. Ostermann said Sister Berenice "imitates the Benedictine," and spoke of "the spiritual influence" of her character.

Dr. McCaig described Sister Berenice's "ability to raise funds."

Stang read congratulatory telegrams from Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom, who was unable to attend; the American Cancer Society; Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Freeman; Dr. and Mrs. Fred Voss and former Senator Arthur H. Wicks. He also acknowledged a floral bouquet to Sister Berenice from the Fire Department.

Testimonial Committee members included Mayor Edelmuth, general chairman; Mrs. Bartholomew J. Duto, cochairman; Mrs. William J. Cranston, Mrs. John J. Scully, Miss Clare Egan, Lawrence A. Quilty, Adrian Kaplan and Mrs. James A. Dwyer.

Drug Firm Opens

Commerce Department office at Kingston, and Greene County Assemblyman Clarence Lane.

The Stiefel plant was opened yesterday with a program including scientific displays and films showing the operations of the new industry.

The 12,500-square-foot laboratory was built in 62 working days by Austin Company. The new plant expects to employ 50 when in full operation.

The open house program includes tours and displays showing manufacturing and packaging of the firm's soap and pharmaceutical products. Samples were distributed to those attending. Refreshments were served.

Sentence Is Made

In county court before County Judge Raymond J. Mino, Thursday afternoon Carl Buford, 37, of 2 Post Street, was sentenced to six months in the county jail on a plea of third degree assault. He was given credit for time already served. Buford allegedly knifed his teenage daughter, Victoria, last September 6, when she attempted to take a knife from him after he had tried to stab her. She was taken to Kingston Hospital and it required 11 sutures to close the wounds. Several other criminal matters on the calendar were adjourned to January 23 and four cases were put over to February term.

Ronder Reports Kingston Loan Gain, Re-elected

ALFRED D. RONDER

In a report given by Alfred D. Ronder, president of The Savings and Loan Association of Kingston at its annual meeting, a gain of 14 per cent over total assets reported one year ago was noted. Total assets of the Association as of December 31, 1963, stood at $24,305,023.67. Net savings gains during 1963 total $1,693,490.16, increasing the institution's total savings balance to $20,455,318.27.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of Association the following directors were re-elected for three year terms: J. Ellis Briggs, Walter R. Seaman, George J. Silkworth and Arthur H. Wicks.

At the meeting of the board of directors the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Alfred D. Ronder, president; Samuel D. Scudder Jr., secretary and and Edward M. Huben, treasurer.

Appointed officers were as follows:

Executive vice president, H. Van Wyck Darrow; assistant vice president, William R. Stahl; assistant secretary, H. Edward Carter; assistant treasurer, Edward R. Dunn; manager of Highland office, Henry V. Fallerman; manager of the Ulster office, Terrence F. Martin; accountant, Henry Jordan; mortgage officer, Guy C. Seligman; administrative assistant, Mrs. Mabel MacAvery; head teller, Mrs. Ann Raible.

Other members serving on the board are Arthur J. Burns, Albert C. Flanagan, N. Jansen Fowler, Chauncey M. Lane, Gilbert A. Schline, Beatrice H. Wadlin, Alfred D. Ronder, Samuel D. Scudder Jr., and Edward M. Huben.

N. Jansen Fowler was appointed attorney of the Association and Stewart T. Schantz was appointed associate attorney, Highland office.

President Ronder reported that 1963 was an outstanding year in the history of the Association, stating, "It is my privilege each year to make a report to our members concerning the present operations of this institution and its business outlook in the year ahead. I am pleased to inform you that the past year's operations have been very successful and that we have added substantially to our total savings, total assets and total reserves while also increasing our volume of home financing in Ulster and adjacent counties.

"As of December 31, 1963, total assets of our institution stood at $24,305,023.67, a gain of over 14 per cent over total assets reported one year ago. Net savings gains during 1963 total $1,693,490.16, increasing the institution's total savings balance to $20,455,318.27.

"Our home financing activities have helped build and improve our community as well as adjacent communities. I am happy to report that our total home mortgage volume in 1963 increased to $21,444,050.62, an increase of $3,570,814.93 over the previous year and the largest increase ever enjoyed by our association in any one year.

"In order to provide against any possible losses resulting from our mortgage lending activities, this institution added $63,987.09 to its reserves and our total reserves of $1,890,118.52 equal 9.25 per cent of our total savings, well above the minimum requirements of regulatory authorities."

President Ronder noted that there are now 11,010 savings account holders and 2,749 home mortgage loans on the books of the association, bringing the total number of accounts to 13,759. Dividends paid to savers totaled $767,774.82 which is an increase of more than 11 per cent over the previous year.

Posts Are Filled By Kingston Town

A special meeting of the town board of the Town of Kingston was held at the town hall Tuesday, the original meeting on Monday night being postponed because of the snow storm. The special meeting was called to consider applications for various town positions.

The following appointments were made:

Town constable and dog warden, Charles Coutant. Welfare Officer, Mrs. Ruth Reedy. Town Hall Custodian, Miss Cecelia Goldpaugh.

An amendment was offered by Supervisor Douglas Dye and unanimously accepted that, business may be brought up at any town board meeting by the public when recognized by the chair. However, it will be at the discretion of the town board upon the course of action to be taken, that is, they may move to table the business for further investigation.

The next regular meeting of the board will be held Feb. 3 at the town hall.

Two Are Indicted For Furniture Store Robbery

Joseph Bowman, 32, of 54 East Strand, and his wife, Lottie Mae Bowman, were indicted on a second degree robbery and second degree assault charge by the grand jury in a partial report to Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth shortly before noon today.

Bowman and his wife are alleged to have robbed George Chichelsky, 55, of 75 Hasbrouck Avenue, operator of the Chelsea Furniture Exchange at 16 Hasbrouck Avenue, on January 9, last. The indictment contained two counts of robbery and assault.

The Bowman indictment was one of eight returned by the January grand jury in a partial report. The indictments were transferred by order of Justice Elsworth to the County Court for disposition.

Chichelsky, police said, was assaulted and robbed in his store early on the evening of January 9. It was claimed a hammer and chair were used in the assault and that $130, which Chichelsky had in his pocket, was taken.

Two men and a woman entered the store, according to police, and began talking to Chichelsky before the assault took place about 6 p. m. Chichelsky suffered a severe head wound which hospitalized him. Telephone wires in the store were reported cut and Chichelsky telephoned the police from the Irving Alcon store at 43 East Strand.

Other indictments handed up are:

The People vs. Robert Willis Waterman, first degree grand larceny.

The People vs. Joseph Barone, also known as Joseph Lagatutta, abandonment of a pregnant woman.

The People vs. Alonzer Tremell, criminally carrying a concealed, loaded pistol as a felony.

The People vs. David Laurence Arnold, two indictments, charging third degree burglary petit larceny and unlawful entry.

Jesse Decker Jr., two indictments, charging third degree burglary, petit larceny and unlawful entry.

There was one dismissal. The People vs. John E. Gillespie, who had been held on a malicious mischief charge.

Chest Nominates

president and treasurer, and a 1964 nominating committee.

Two weeks prior to the Feb. 13 annual meeting, the Chest must publish a legal notice in each township affiliated with the Chest announcing the candidates who will be placed in nomination at the annual meeting.

Open to Others

Additional nominations may be made by Chest members only if they are delivered to the Chest office one week prior to the meeting with the written endorsement of 20 persons from the Chest membership.

"These procedures," says Chest president John F. Schuehler, "are incorporated into the Chest by-laws to give every interested member of the Ulster County Community Chest the opportunity to exercise his interest and franchise in Chest affairs."

"A successful Chest is sensitive to the needs of the community and its citizens," Schuehler concludes.

Action Is Started

were expected to explain in detail the purposes of the comprehensive educational program, which is state sponsored.

Dr. Hoover said this morning that today's sessions were going on as scheduled.

2 Kingston Men Held for Assault, In Stolen Auto

A car allegedly stolen from Kingston early today, was stopped in Greene County after a chase by state police, who held two of its four occupants on felonious assault charges.

Two young men, John Manfro, 23, of 3 Cedar Street, and Arthur Holmes, 26, of 231 Albany Avenue, are held at the Greene County jail, Catskill for hearing Monday on assault charges after an alleged attack on state troopers. They face charges here later.

Two teenage girls were returned to Kingston for questioning and charges may be lodged against them.

It is charged that the car, a 1962 Chevrolet convertible, owned by Samuel Beck, of 331 Main Street, operator of the Emerson Street Market, was stolen from the garage of the Kingston Buick Co., Inc., 10 Main Street. Police said entrance was gained by the breaking of a rear window.

State police of the Leeds substation said troopers spotted the car speeding on Route 9W in the town of Athens. It was overtaken after a chase of some distance. The arrests were by troopers G. E. Davis and W. C. Curtis.

Manfro and Holmes, booked on the assault charges in Catskill, were taken before Justice of the Peace P. F. Carle, Town of Catskill, and hearing was put over to Monday.

Detectives Gurnsey Burger and Harold DeGraff with Officers Weston Hoffay and Leon Fitzgerald were dispatched to investigate after report of the theft at 5:15 a. m.

The girls were returned here by Sergeants Thomas Tomshaw and Garvin Fisher.

Two Cars Collide

Cars operated by Myer Firestone, 65, of High Falls and William H. Clark, 27, of Curry were in collision Thursday about noon on Route 213 and Cottekill Road, town of Rosendale. Firestone was traveling east on Route 213 when his car failed to make a right turn in the road and skidded onto the west bound lane. The Clark car, owned by Wilson Van Wagenen of Claryville Road, Grahamsville, was traveling west on Route 213 and pulled to the right off the highway, according to Ulster County Investigator Thomas Mayone and Deputy Sheriff Silas Countryman, who investigated. The Clark car went off the highway and became stuck in the west bound lane. No one was injured and there was damage to both cars.

Three Men Seized

Accused of causing a disturbance by shouting on a New York bound bus near Highland Thursday night, three men were taken into custody by state police on disorderly conduct charges. They were booked as Agrefeno De Jesus, 25, and Confessor R. DeJesus, also 25, of the Bronx, and Justiniano R. Gonzales, 29, of 592 Broadway, city. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace S. Glenn Parks, Town of New Paltz, the defendants pleaded guilty and each received a sentence of 24 hours in the county jail. After being booked at the sheriff's office, the men were released, it was reported. The complaint against the trio was made by Roland Woodward, of Kingston, a bus driver.

Two Drivers Injured

Two drivers reported injuries after a mishap Thursday afternoon at Delaware Avenue and Abruyn Street. Louis P. Perry, 39, of RD 1, Lincoln Lane, driver of a pickup truck, reported an injury of the left elbow, and Robert G. Enright, 45 Hemlock Avenue, driver of a sedan, suffered a neck injury. They were to be treated by doctors. Police said Enright was attempting to turn at the intersection, but the car skidded ahead on ice. The other driver applied brakes, but could not stop in time. Officers George Deyo and Reymond Wells investigated. The mishap was reported at 3:40 p. m.

10 Days for Assault

Lawrence Cody, 24, of 48 Cedar Street, who pleaded guilty to a third degree assault charge last Friday in city court, was sentenced to 10 days in jail today with credit for time served. The charge was lodged by Gray Baynard, of the same address. He was arrested on a warrant Jan. 9.

Merchants Given

information along to the people. Members of the sub-committee present were: George Svirsky, chairman; Roland Augustine, William Rylance, Richard Whittington, Edward Minasian, Ray Garraghan, Clifford Bunting, William Klein.

All Creeds . . .

wing was completed, the hospital had a bed capacity of 210 patients. But she was not through yet. She built the School of Nursing which was opened in 1959." He said, "today, this modern hospital is what it is through the efforts of Sister Berenice. She was ably assisted by Sister Callista (director of the School for Nurses) and all the other nuns of her Order, and by the nurses, students and registered nurses and by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hospital. Without them she would have been powerless."

Monument to Dreams

The hospital, Judge Cashin said, represents the "monument" to the dreams and aspirations of all those people. But, singling out the honored guest, he said, "God only knows how many hundreds of people are indebted to you for your work among them. And it is for this that we thank you. But we are not the only persons who thank you. There is also another One who has promised to thank you—and that One is the Person who said: 'I was hungry and you gave me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me to drink; I was a stranger and you took me in; I was sick and you visited me. As long as you did it for one of these, the least of my brethern, you did it for me.'

"Sister Berenice—we thank you with all our hearts for all you have done for the community of Kingston. We wish you long life and all of God's choicest blessings. We can well say to you—'Well done thou Good and Faithful Servant.'"

Another former mayor of Kingston, William F. Edelmuth, chairman of the testimonial, presented Sister Berenice with a bronze plaque and a $1,500 purse. The plaque is to be installed at the hospital.

Sister Berenice, in accepting the presentation, said that when she was appointed to the administrative position in 1927, "I wasn't afraid of my responsibilities — I knew the Lord would help me. She outlined the development of the hospital from the first mortgage through the various fund-raising campaigns up to and including future plans. She expressed thanks to the hospital's Ladies Auxiliary, alumnae and benefactors, and said that it was hoped that by this year, "we hope to have my project completed."

'True Christian Flame'

Stang pointed out that the testimonial was a demonstration of appreciation from the "grateful people of Kingston and Ulster County, representing all creeds and from all walks of life; all because we appreciate this little lady and what she has done in her own little way." He described Sister Berenice as a "true Christian flame," and said the testimonial was a means of showing that "these people love you for what you are."

Among those on the dais were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. O'Reilly, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, who gave the invocation; Mayor John J. Schwenk; the Rev. Mother Cornelia, O.S.B., of the Benedictine Mother House in Elizabeth, N J.; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St Peter's Church; Dr. Robert A. McCaig, Saugerties, president of the Benedictine Hospital staff; former mayors Stang and Edelmuth; James A. Dwyer, acting chairman of the hospital's lay advisory committee; Edwin A. Bolz and Sister M. Charles, president coadministrators of the hospital; the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, who gave the benediction and the honored guest.

Mayor Schwenk, who was introduced by Stang as "the most sincere mayor who ever graced city hall, said of Sister Bernice, "We are grateful to you for the health and welfare of the people of the City of Kingston."

Rev. Mother Cornelia, who like Sister Berenice is from Bayonne, N. J., described the honored guest as "an outstanding member of the Benedictine Order—a Florence Nightingale." She said that Sister Berenice was typical of the saying, 'Young men have vision, old men have dreams,' in that she envisioned a project which became her dream realized.

Msgr. Ostermann said Sister Berenice "imitates the Benedictine," and spoke of "the spiritual influence" of her character.

Dr. McCaig described Sister Berenice's "ability to raise funds."

Stang read congratulatory telegrams from Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom, who was unable to attend; the American Cancer Society; Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Freeman; Dr. and Mrs. Fred Voss and former Senator Arthur H. Wicks. He also acknowledged a floral bouquet to Sister Berenice from the Fire Department.

Testimonial Committee members included Mayor Edelmuth, general chairman; Mrs. Bartholomew J. Duto, cochairman; Mrs. William J. Cranston, Mrs. John J. Scully, Miss Clare Egan, Lawrence A. Quilty, Adrian Kaplan and Mrs. James A. Dwyer.

Drug Firm Opens

Commerce Department office at Kingston, and Greene County Assemblyman Clarence Lane.

The Stiefel plant was opened yesterday with a program including scientific displays and films showing the operations of the new industry.

The 12,500-square-foot laboratory was built in 62 working days by Austin Company. The new plant expects to employ 50 when in full operation.

The open house program includes tours and displays showing manufacturing and packaging of the firm's soap and pharmaceutical products. Samples were distributed to those attending. Refreshments were served.

Sentence Is Made

In county court before County Judge Raymond J. Mino, Thursday afternoon Carl Buford, 37, of 2 Post Street, was sentenced to six months in the county jail on a plea of third degree assault. He was given credit for time already served. Buford allegedly knifed his teenage daughter, Victoria, last September 6, when she attempted to take a knife from him after he had tried to stab her. She was taken to Kingston Hospital and it required 11 sutures to close the wounds. Several other criminal matters on the calendar were adjourned to January 23 and four cases were put over to February term.

Retiring Guard Officers Feted; Award for Miller

More than 60 officers and ladies of the 1st and 2nd Battalions of the 156th Artillery, New York Army National Guard, with stations in Kingston, Poughkeepsie, and Middletown, attended the annual dinner-dance of the officers Civil Associations of the two battalions held at the Hudson Overlook Inn, West Park, Saturday night.

Fabbie Is Speaker

CWO Thomas W. Miller, Kingston, gave the invocation. Major Andrew B. Grier, Kingston, was toastmaster. Welcoming addresses and announcements were made by Lt. Col. James H. Ackerman Jr., Poughkeepsie, commander of the 2nd Battalion (Honest John) and Major Frank Fabbie, Kingston, newly appointed commander of the 1st Battalion (105 mm How, SP), who succeeds Lt. Co. Arthur H. Marx, Hyde Park, who resigned effective Jan. 1.

Major Fabbie in announcing Col. Marx's retirement from the Guard jokingly said, "the Old Man has decided to go Democrat all the way." Marx has recently been appointed clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Dutchess County. He has long been active in Hyde Park Democratic circles. Marx, in response, said "it is difficult, after so many years of association with the officers and men of the calibre of those of the 156th Artillery, who give their all, to take my leave of the organization. The 156th, both battalions, have traditions that will remain forever. I shall always think of it as the finest military organization in the country — its officers and men make it so."

Jones Also Retiring

Also retiring from the active Army National Guard at the close of last year was Captain David H. Jones, Knolls Road, Poughkeepsie, who was described as "the finest of officers and gentlemen whom the 156th Artillery took into their hearts." Jones was the battalion surgeon of the 1st Battalion. As a token of esteem, he was presented with the guidon of the Medical Detachment as a keepsake. The detachment was eliminated in the reorganization of units last Spring.

Captain Jones in response stated that he "always felt fortunate to be associated with the 156th and considered it a privilege to serve with the men of Kingston and Poughkeepsie and Middletown." He was the medical officer since 1950.

Lt. Col. Ackerman extended best wishes to both retiring officers from the 2nd Battalion and recalled earlier days of close association and service with them.

State Award to Miller

Col. Ackerman made presentations at the dinner to First Lieutenant Patrick J. McIntyre Jr., Town of Poughkeepsie, of the Armed Forces Reserve Medal for 10 years service and to Chief Warrant Officer Thomas W. Miller, Kingston, the New York State Award for 15 Years Long and Faithful Service. Both officers are members of the 2nd Battalion (Poughkeepsie). Miller also is a full-time staff administrative specialist for the Poughkeepsie units.

Major Fabbie, having recently resigned the full-time staff administrative assistant position with the 1st Battalion to accept employment with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, announced that First Lieutenant Raphael Lucente Jr., Saugerties, will be appointed to fill that position effective Feb. 1. Lucente is presently battalion adjutant.

New Officers Assigned

New officers assigned to the 1st Battalion attending the dinner with their ladies were 2nd Lieutenant John W. Marsh, Woodstock. Marsh is a graduate of the Empire State Military Academy. New officers in the 2nd Battalion (Poughkeepsie) were 1st Lieutenant David E. Tanis, Wappingers Falls, transferred from the USAR and 2nd Lieutenant Joel L. Klein, Hudson View Park, Beacon, who also is a graduate of the Empire State Military Academy.

The committee on arrangements for the annual affair were CWO John G. Reynolds, Port Ewen and CWO Thomas W. Miller, Kingston. Both are officers of the Civil Associations of the two battalions which held the joint affair.

Massive Turnout Pumps New Life Into Blood Bank

A tremendous surge of support to keep the Saugerties Community Blood Bank in operation resulted Thursday night in a record attendance with 16 new donors helping to achieve a drawing of 43 pints. This was the total number of bottles made available for the drawing held at VFW Hall, Livingston Street, Saugerties.

Saugerties Memorial Post VFW Auxiliary sponsors the program.

Mrs. Helen Gardner, chairman, said 63 persons responded and 25 were turned away. However these were registered for the next drawing scheduled sometime next month.

The local blood bank quietly observed its 10th anniversary last week.

Miss Mary K. Wiseman, blood bank nurse of Kingston Laboratory was in charge of the drawing, aided by Miss Gail Pfleghaar, laboratory assistant. Dr. Herman Ash of Saugertiesw as in attendance and assisted.

A Virginia baked ham supper was served by a VFW Auxiliary Committee headed by Mrs. Ruth Prendergast.

Reformed Church Lists Activities

The second sermon in a series based on the Apostles' Creed will be delivered by the Rev. Orville Jay Hine at the Sunday 11 a. m. service of Saugerties Reformed Church.

The sermon is entitled "I Believe in God the Father." Music will be under the direction of Howard Houghtaling, minister of music, with the senior choir singing the morning anthem.

Sunday church school will meet in the chapel 9:45 a. m. The opening service of worship will be led by Superintendent George Turner.

Youth fellowship will meet from 7 to 8:30 p. m. in the parish hall. The pastor will continue a series of studies of the Bible for the young people.

Franklin Hine, president of the youth fellowship, announced that important plans for the observance of Youth Week will be discussed.

There will be a women's prayer retreat at Plattekill Reformed Church, Mount Marion on Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. All ladies of the church are invited to participate. Each person attending is requested to bring a sandwich for lunch. There will be provisions made for the care of the children.

Choir rehearsal Thursday 7:15 p. m. in the parish hall. Persons who would like to participate in the choir program are encouraged to attend. Plans are being made for a special program of music by the choir during the Lenten season.

RockefellerWould Build Canal in Central America

WILTON, N.H. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller says he supports proposals to build a new canal through Central America to supplement the Panama Canal, currently a center of U.S.-Panamanian discord.

The governor, speaking to a high school audience here Thursday, suggested that a new canal be cut through Mexico or Honduras.

He said the present Panama Canal cannot handle today's big aircraft carriers.

Rockefeller also called for renegotiation of the test-ban treaty with Russia to permit the use of atomic explosives in constructing the proposed canal.

Will Air Ship Woes

TORONTO (AP)—Problems of common interest to inland shippers of Canada and the United States will be discussed next week at the annual joint conference of the Dominion Marine Association and the U.S. Lake Carriers' Association.

The Canadian group is made up of 22 companies owning about one million registered tons of shipping. The other body speaks for American inland trade. They meet Jan. 20-22 at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

Girls Community Club Says Drive Successful

Seven selected young girls were guests of honor at a dinner and outfitted with a complete wardrobe during the Christmaas season as the result of a successful campaign by the Girls Community Club.

Mrs. Sally R. Brinnier, publicity chairman said today that with the hustle and bustle of the holiday season over and the decorations put away for another year, we have time to reflect on the season happenings.

She said the club was sincerely grateful for the support of the public in the club's vanilla sale conducted by Dawn Products Inc., Saugerties, which made the holiday program for seven young girls possible.

Mrs. Brinnier said that in addition to completely clothing the girls, each received a doll.

Less Than Half of Dogs In Town Are Licensed

Less than half of the dogs harbored in the Town of Saugerties are licensed, and the deadline for licensing is February 16, Miss Marion Newkirk, town clerk said today.

Dog tags and licenses are now available at Saugerties Town Clerk's Office, Main Street, and should be purchased now to avoid the last minute rush.

A total of 1,759 dogs were licensed in the township last year and the dog census taken recently shows the dog population has increased. Stricter rules will be observed this year in order to conform with orders from Albany. Unlicensed dogs after Feb. 16 will be seized.

To Redeem Tokens

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The New York City Transit Authority has reached a token understanding with the United Traction Co. on redemption of 25,000 New York tokens found among receipts of the Albany bus firm.

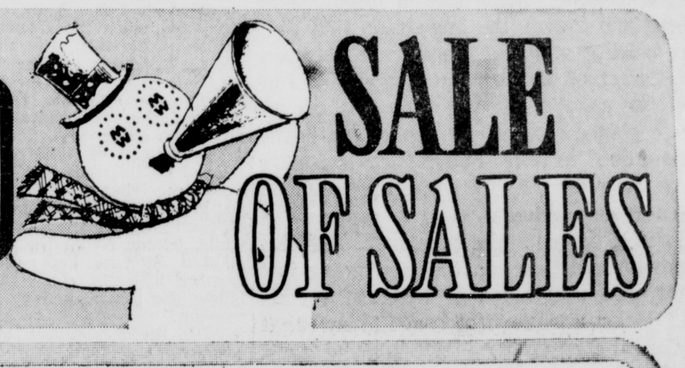

Thomas F. Riedy, president and general manager of the Albany company, said Thursday New York Transit had agreed to redeem the tokens at their 15-cent face value, five cents less than United's tokens sell for. The difference will cost United Traction $1,250.

An earlier report had said the Transit Authority refused to redeem the tokens.

Girls Community Club Says Drive Successful

Seven selected young girls were guests of honor at a dinner and outfitted with a complete wardrobe during the Christmaas season as the result of a successful campaign by the Girls Community Club.

Mrs. Sally R. Brinnier, publicity chairman said today that with the hustle and bustle of the holiday season over and the decorations put away for another year, we have time to reflect on the season happenings.

She said the club was sincerely grateful for the support of the public in the club's vanilla sale conducted by Dawn Products Inc., Saugerties, which made the holiday program for seven young girls possible.

Mrs. Brinnier said that in addition to completely clothing the girls, each received a doll.

Less Than Half of Dogs In Town Are Licensed

Less than half of the dogs harbored in the Town of Saugerties are licensed, and the deadline for licensing is February 16, Miss Marion Newkirk, town clerk said today.

Dog tags and licenses are now available at Saugerties Town Clerk's Office, Main Street, and should be purchased now to avoid the last minute rush.

A total of 1,759 dogs were licensed in the township last year and the dog census taken recently shows the dog population has increased. Stricter rules will be observed this year in order to conform with orders from Albany. Unlicensed dogs after Feb. 16 will be seized.

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The New York City Transit Authority has reached a token understanding with the United Traction Co. on redemption of 25,000 New York tokens found among receipts of the Albany bus firm.

Thomas F. Riedy, president and general manager of the Albany company, said Thursday New York Transit had agreed to redeem the tokens at their 15-cent face value, five cents less than United's tokens sell for. The difference will cost United Traction $1,250.

An earlier report had said the Transit Authority refused to redeem the tokens.

SMUGGEST OF THE LOT

The conversation at almost any social gathering these days is likely to get around sooner or later — and sooner rather than later, in most cases—to the report of the federal advisory committee on smoking. Though there are no doubt groups which find the topic of small interest, they are distinctly in the minority.

Certain types emerge wherever the report is discussed. To begin with, there is the rare and now deplorably smug fellow who has never smoked. He is inclined to a tolerant and superior amusement, tempered by a what's-all-the-fuss-about? attitude. Those who have recently quit smoking are, if possible, even more smug. They tend to advise the less heroic, and to offer guidance out of the nicotine swamps.

The rest of the crowd usually breaks down into those who continue to puff and those who don't but wish they had the nerve to. The fellow who lights up does so with a curious mixture of the defiant and the apologetic. Some brazen it out; some shrug and convey the impression that they are helpless victims. In any case, they are the target of glances that range from furtive to openly envious. The authors of these glances sometimes cannot resist the temptation to cite hair-raising statistics from the report, and observe the result on the nervous smokers.

Lastly, there is the pipe man. He fiddles with matches, gets his briar going just right, exudes a cloud of fragrant smoke, and looks about with contentment that makes the cigarette fanciers grind their teeth. He can easily be persuaded to expound on that part of the report which more or less exonerates pipe smoking as a menace to health. In fact, it's impossible to stop him. He, all things considered, is the smuggest of the lot. And soon he'll have plenty of company.

Senator Goldwater is both a candidate for president and for the job he has now. He's considered a shoo-in—for senator.

Anyone who thinks our tax laws have loopholes should take a look at Khrushchev's note asking for a ban on war.

FLICK THAT SIGNAL!

Plain nincompoopery is, observation suggests, an important ingredient in the traffic accident stew. Nincompoopery is not quite the same as stupidity. It is a kind of amalgam of stupidity, inattention, woolgathering and a general inclination to ignore the problems of others on the road.

Consider, by way of illustration, the dunderhead who consistently fails to signal when he is about to make a turn. Not the generally good driver who slips up on this once in a blue moon, but the fellow who simply can't be bothered. He tools along and then unexpectedly angles off (failing to keep in his lane, but that is another story) around a corner.

This sort of thing was more or less understandable in those ancient times before some genius devised the electric turn light. In those days it required a bit of effort to signal a turn; the window had to be rolled down, an arm thrust out at the proper angle. On cold days, many a driver yielded to temptation and just turned without going through the routine.

Currently, however, drivers of most cars have only to flick the turn arm to warn others of their intention. This consumes about as much energy as lifting a teacup. It is an act of courtesy and prudence. Failing to perform it invites rasped nerves, bent fenders and worse.

A magazine editor says women buy to improve the image they have of themselves. This makes the husband's image one of poverty.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

"THE SIERRA MAESTRA IS ALL OF SOUTH AMERICA"

At 3:40 p. m. on Monday, January 13, eavesdroppers on the short wave radio maintained by the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba in Washington, D. C., overheard Fidel Castro's man "Che" Guevara announce to the Latin American world that the "Panama dead and wounded represent only a small sample of what will be done to the people of the Americas. The Sierra Maestra is now all along the continent of South America." (The Sierra Maestra, of course, refers to Castro's guerilla hideout in Batista's Cuba.)

In plain words, Guevara was telling Castro's operatives everywhere from Panama to Uruguay that the crunch of revolution had come. Significantly, at this very moment Fidel Castro was hobnobbing in Moscow with Khrushchev.

So who has been "had"in the Panamanian crisis? The U. S., of course, has been made to look bad in the eyes of the world. But in accepting the propaganda that now is the time to tell the "gringos" to get out, Panama's President Roberto Chiari has put himself in the position of serving as a catspaw for the Castroites. He may be sure that, as a "liberal" politico who is devoted to parliamentary institutions, his own days are numbered by the manipulators of the hour and minute hands on the Castroite clock.

Why did Chiari elect to play patsy for Fidel? The answer could be that the Panamanian government had to do something to cover its failure to carry out its own commitment to the Alliance for Progress.

The comparative dollar figures in the case are extremely instructive. One of President Chiari's gripes is that the U. S. hasn't been paying enough for Canal use — the amount of rent money that to Panama in 1963 was $1.9 million. Taken by itself, this payment could be said to err on the niggardly side, since the Canal "take" for the U. S. is $60 million. But, in addition to the $1.9 million "rent," the residual benefits to Panama, in the form of payrolls and other "hidden" accruals, come to an annual sum of $11 million.

President Chiari might still argue that this is little enough. But in addition to canal money, Panama, in 1963, could have availed itself of $41 million of U. S. money allocated to it under Alliance for Progress programs.

The sad truth is that, of this projected $41 million, Panama could only manage to use $16 million. Of the $2.9 million available to help Panamanian farmers, only $85,000 had been used through October of 1963. The U. S. had earmarked $5 million for rural electrification — but only $150,000 of this had been spent. Out of $10 million ticketed for the construction of low cost houses and schools, only $2 million had been turned into buildings or the purchase of building materials. What this failure to make use of Alliance for Progress money means is that the Panama government has yet to work out the forms that are necessary to lift the local population out of poverty.

The "scapegoating" of the U. S. by President Chiari's government has played directly into Castro's hands. And the evidence is clear that Castro "planned it that way." The whole Panamanian business clicks neatly into place with "Che" Guevara's timetable for Latin American subversion.

The Cuban assault on Latin America as a whole began in April, 1959, with a bald, brutal military invasion of Panama by Castroites. This was a little too much for a sovereign Latin American nation to stomach, and there was an appeal to the Organization of American States to stop it. So Castro and "Che" Guevara took one step backward in order to take two steps forward. There followed the "paramilitary" infiltration of countries such as Panama.

In January of 1963 Panamanian subversives trained by Russians in Cuba's ten guerilla camps began receiving arms from fishing vessels which put in at the Peninsula del Toro and at the Beach of Chariguen at the Costa Rican border. Meanwhile, Victor Avila, the Secretary of the Panamanian Student Federation, announced: "This country, like all of Latin America, will inevitably follow the road taken by Fidel Castro to Communism."

With the subversives and the students well coached, the fact that "incidents" happened "spontaneously" at places far distant from each other along the Canal Zone borders is easily explained. "Che" Guevara, a Trotskyite type of Napoleon, knows what he is doing.

And the "liberals" in Panama have been had.

Acute Pancreatitis Nothing to Trifle With

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—My brother died at age 38 of acute necrotizing pancreatitis. He worked up to a few days before he died. What could cause this condition? Could he have been born with it?

A—Acute pancreatitis is a highly fatal disease that affects men more often than women. Your brother was not born with it, and it does not run in families. It is frequently associated with peptic ulcer, gallstones, or alcoholism. In women it may appear as a complication of pregnancy.

The pancreas normally produces a powerful digestive juice. When the secretion of this juice is obstructed, the concentration may build up to the point where this juice digests the living cells of the pancreas. This is most likely to occur when these cells have been damaged by infection or trauma.

This would change a simple pancreatitis to a necrotizing (tissue-destroying) pancreatitis.

The treatment consists of bed rest, drugs to relieve pain, antibiotics if an infectious cause is identified, feeding by vein to rest the inflamed pancreas, and drugs to decrease the activity of the gland.

Q—My doctor told me I have pityriasis rosea. My back, legs, and arms are pretty much covered with the spots. What causes this condition? Is there any cure?

A—You are one of the lucky ones because your disease is easily recognized. Treatment is always successful.

The disease is believed to be caused by a virus, but this has not been proved.

Without any treatment, the disease clears up in about six weeks.

Treatment consists of baths to which a crude coal tar emulsion is added.

These and exposure to ultraviolet light will relieve the itching and thereby help to prevent the secondary infection that so often follows scratching. This treatment also helps to shorten the course of the disease.

Q—I have been taking Thorazine for nearly four years for severe mental depression. It helps to relieve tension and allows me to sleep. What are the side effects? I think I could do without the drug if I could sleep. Would I be any better off if I stopped the Thorazine and took sleeping pills?

A—Chlorpromazine (Thorazine) is very helpful in persons whose depression is complicated by excessive anxiety. The usual side effects from taking too large a dose include dryness of the mouth and nasal congestion.

Since most of the popular sleeping pills are habit-forming, I would be very cautious about making a change. Your doctor would be the best judge of whether or not to change your medicine.

Q—Are the various venereal diseases transmitted only through sexual contact, or can you get them by using public toilets?

"Oh, That's All Right---He's a Friend of Mine!"

Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The trouble in Panama resulted from a weak Panamanian president, a political campaign, a turn in the weather, hot-blooded students and a disciplined Castro-Communist organization, say U. S. experts privately.

It is a lesson in how effectively a small, well-prepared Red group can move in on a minor disturbance and build it into a dangerous situation. It was the more remarkable since the Communists have been banned in Panama for 10 years and their numbers are small. It can happen elsewhere in Latin America.

U. S. EXPERTS had been expecting a disturbance in Panama. They didn't know precisely where, or when, or what incident would be used as a fuse. But they knew Panama's Castro-Communists had completed their planning and were ready to act.

As is known, American students had set up the U. S. flag at their high school in the Canal Zone. Panamanian students entered the zone under police escort, planted their flag, were escorted away. Reports are that all this was orderly.

There is confusion over whether Communists engineered this student demonstration. Though a small minority, the Reds have control of the student organization at National University and perhaps at other schools. U. S. experts think the flag-carriers were nationalistic hot-blooded students with nothing more in mind.

Immediately after the flag incident, however, Castro-Comunists moved in. They set up snipers who shot at Americans and Panamanians—to get Panamanians stirred up and to force Americans to return fire.

IN LESS THAN AN HOUR, as if by signal, a pro-Castro radio station went on the air with untrue but lurid stories of American troops "firing into unarmed students."

This was a signal for demonstrations in communities through Panama. Small groups of Reds used the radio atrocity stories to whip up local citizens.

The Reds also quickly worked up crowds of Panama City unemployed, discontented and always ready to riot about anything. They went on a rampage in the city, where 5,000 Americans live, destroying U. S. buildings, offices and automobiles.

U. S. experts say the rioting could have been nipped in the bud if Panamanian President Roberto Chiari had had the courage to step in fast. By the time he acted, the crowds had gotten out of hand.

THE TIME WAS RIGHT for trouble in Panama. The weather takes a turn for the better in early January. This is normally a good season for demonstrations and riots.

There's an election coming up. Though it won't be until May 10, the candidates were required to file by the end of the second week in January.

Election fever begins to run high about now. No candidate or office holder can afford to be pro-Yankee or decry anti-American demonstrations between now and May.

Unemployment is high in Colon and Panama cities. Many unemployed compare their slum life with the excellent living in the Canal Zone. Politicians and Communists assure poor Panamanians their lot is the result of the wealth the U. S. takes from them through "high Canal Zone profits." (Actually, the canal is a money loser).

Best guess is the Communists want weak, rabble-rousing, old ex-President Arnulfo Arias for president in the May election, even though he's reportedly not a Red.

Riots and fervent anti-Americanism would tend to discredit candidate Marco Robles, former minister of government and justice and friend of the U. S., who is backed by the present government.

Disorder also would work against candidate Juan Galindo an engineer. But they're calculated to help Arias, the rabble-rouser.

The Castro-Communists are believed determined to do what they can to wreck the chances of Robles. They apparently had counted on using a weak, erratic Arias presidency to build their strength as they're now doing in Brazil under Joao Goulart.

A Panama-Crisis Need: Patience, Self-Restraint

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—It may seem easy to conclude that the dispute between the United States and the Republic of Panama is merely a case of excessive emotionalism about flying national flags—but the controversy goes deeper. The basic cause is a feeling of discouragement among Panamanians who see no economic future for themselves except as it is related to potential income from the use of the Canal.

When national pride, moreover, complicates an international problem, there are always opportunities for provocative action and the intensification of bitterness.

The people of Panama originally leased their territory for an interoceanic canal. The United States built the waterway and has been collecting tolls from the ships of all nations. But the Republic of Panama gets less than $2 million a year rent. It used to be only $250,000. Surely in the 50 years since the Canal has been operating it would seem that the United States could afford to increase considerably more its annual payment, especially in these days of "foreign aid" to many countries which do not furnish any facility to the United States as useful as the Panama Canal has been, including its military value in World War I and World War II.

There are economic improvements which can be made after proper negotiation. But since there's an election campaign going on inside the Republic of Panama, it is customary for national sensitiveness to be expressed in the political arena. On top of this, the Americans who live in the Canal Zone have families with teen-age students who naturally have a feeling of patriotism about flying the American flag.

For many years, only the American flag was flown inside the Canal Zone—which is leased permanently to the United States. Then the demand was made that the Panamanian flag should also be flown, and in January, 1963, it was agreed that the Panamanian flag would fly side by side wherever the U. S. flag was flown by civilian authorities in the Zone. In the first week of this year, the U. S. flag was hauled down from a number of sites—including the high schools—which had not been designated for the joint flying of the two flags. For some strange reason, no explanation of this order—that no flag be flown—was made to the Zone residents. The whole squabble was mishandled.

It was inevitable that there would be disturbances about the flying of the flags. What was surprising, however, was the action of the Panamanian President in ordering diplomatic relations severed. This gave an opportunity to the Castro agents, Communists and other disturbers of the peace to capitalize on the disorders and bring about an international furor.

The United States was disposed to go along and open the whole controversy to diplomatic discussion. Then a snag was reached as the Panamanians said the United States had agreed to "negotiate," whereas the Washington officials said it was an agreement only to "discuss," not to negotiate. This led to bad feeling, too. For a readiness to discuss is, of course, an obvious forerunner of negotiation—though not necessary of concession. The flare-up and threats of a continued suspension in diplomatic relations thereupon didn't make things any easier inside the United States where public opinion happens to have some sensitiveness, especially as a political campaign is under way here, too.

Skillful handling by diplomats could have averted the whole mix-up and could have produced a statement from which both countries could derive some satisfaction. It is obvious that what is involved is not merely relations with Panama but the impact as well on other Central and South American countries, particularly since there is always a tendency in Latin countries to raise the cry of "Yankee imperialism."

The United States can afford to be generous to the Republic of Panama, but connot allow itself to be dragooned or pressured into policies forced by street riots or public denunciations.

The Panama Canal itself is slowly growing obsolete. It cannot take care of certain-sized ships. Another canal may have to be built across Nicaragua, perhaps before another six years have passed. So the Republic of Panama would do well to watch its step and exercise self-control. For whatever needs to be done to help Panama can be achieved by the Panamanian government without letting the United States get into the awkward position of seemingly being blackmailed into making "concessions."

If ever there was an international controversy that called for patience and self-restraint as well as generous impulses on both sides, it is the dispute that has arisen between Panama and the United States. Fortunately, it presents by no means an insolvable problem.

The rest of the crowd usually breaks down into those who continue to puff and those who don't but wish they had the nerve to. The fellow who lights up does so with a curious mixture of the defiant and the apologetic. Some brazen it out; some shrug and convey the impression that they are helpless victims. In any case, they are the target of glances that range from furtive to openly envious. The authors of these glances sometimes cannot resist the temptation to cite hair-raising statistics from the report, and observe the result on the nervous smokers.

Lastly, there is the pipe man. He fiddles with matches, gets his briar going just right, exudes a cloud of fragrant smoke, and looks about with contentment that makes the cigarette fanciers grind their teeth. He can easily be persuaded to expound on that part of the report which more or less exonerates pipe smoking as a menace to health. In fact, it's impossible to stop him. He, all things considered, is the smuggest of the lot. And soon he'll have plenty of company.

FLICK THAT SIGNAL!

Plain nincompoopery is, observation suggests, an important ingredient in the traffic accident stew. Nincompoopery is not quite the same as stupidity. It is a kind of amalgam of stupidity, inattention, woolgathering and a general inclination to ignore the problems of others on the road.

Consider, by way of illustration, the dunderhead who consistently fails to signal when he is about to make a turn. Not the generally good driver who slips up on this once in a blue moon, but the fellow who simply can't be bothered. He tools along and then unexpectedly angles off (failing to keep in his lane, but that is another story) around a corner.

This sort of thing was more or less understandable in those ancient times before some genius devised the electric turn light. In those days it required a bit of effort to signal a turn; the window had to be rolled down, an arm thrust out at the proper angle. On cold days, many a driver yielded to temptation and just turned without going through the routine.

Currently, however, drivers of most cars have only to flick the turn arm to warn others of their intention. This consumes about as much energy as lifting a teacup. It is an act of courtesy and prudence. Failing to perform it invites rasped nerves, bent fenders and worse.

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

"THE SIERRA MAESTRA IS ALL OF SOUTH AMERICA"

At 3:40 p. m. on Monday, January 13, eavesdroppers on the short wave radio maintained by the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba in Washington, D. C., overheard Fidel Castro's man "Che" Guevara announce to the Latin American world that the "Panama dead and wounded represent only a small sample of what will be done to the people of the Americas. The Sierra Maestra is now all along the continent of South America." (The Sierra Maestra, of course, refers to Castro's guerilla hideout in Batista's Cuba.)

In plain words, Guevara was telling Castro's operatives everywhere from Panama to Uruguay that the crunch of revolution had come. Significantly, at this very moment Fidel Castro was hobnobbing in Moscow with Khrushchev.

So who has been "had"in the Panamanian crisis? The U. S., of course, has been made to look bad in the eyes of the world. But in accepting the propaganda that now is the time to tell the "gringos" to get out, Panama's President Roberto Chiari has put himself in the position of serving as a catspaw for the Castroites. He may be sure that, as a "liberal" politico who is devoted to parliamentary institutions, his own days are numbered by the manipulators of the hour and minute hands on the Castroite clock.

Why did Chiari elect to play patsy for Fidel? The answer could be that the Panamanian government had to do something to cover its failure to carry out its own commitment to the Alliance for Progress.

The comparative dollar figures in the case are extremely instructive. One of President Chiari's gripes is that the U. S. hasn't been paying enough for Canal use — the amount of rent money that to Panama in 1963 was $1.9 million. Taken by itself, this payment could be said to err on the niggardly side, since the Canal "take" for the U. S. is $60 million. But, in addition to the $1.9 million "rent," the residual benefits to Panama, in the form of payrolls and other "hidden" accruals, come to an annual sum of $11 million.

President Chiari might still argue that this is little enough. But in addition to canal money, Panama, in 1963, could have availed itself of $41 million of U. S. money allocated to it under Alliance for Progress programs.

The sad truth is that, of this projected $41 million, Panama could only manage to use $16 million. Of the $2.9 million available to help Panamanian farmers, only $85,000 had been used through October of 1963. The U. S. had earmarked $5 million for rural electrification — but only $150,000 of this had been spent. Out of $10 million ticketed for the construction of low cost houses and schools, only $2 million had been turned into buildings or the purchase of building materials. What this failure to make use of Alliance for Progress money means is that the Panama government has yet to work out the forms that are necessary to lift the local population out of poverty.

The "scapegoating" of the U. S. by President Chiari's government has played directly into Castro's hands. And the evidence is clear that Castro "planned it that way." The whole Panamanian business clicks neatly into place with "Che" Guevara's timetable for Latin American subversion.

The Cuban assault on Latin America as a whole began in April, 1959, with a bald, brutal military invasion of Panama by Castroites. This was a little too much for a sovereign Latin American nation to stomach, and there was an appeal to the Organization of American States to stop it. So Castro and "Che" Guevara took one step backward in order to take two steps forward. There followed the "paramilitary" infiltration of countries such as Panama.

In January of 1963 Panamanian subversives trained by Russians in Cuba's ten guerilla camps began receiving arms from fishing vessels which put in at the Peninsula del Toro and at the Beach of Chariguen at the Costa Rican border. Meanwhile, Victor Avila, the Secretary of the Panamanian Student Federation, announced: "This country, like all of Latin America, will inevitably follow the road taken by Fidel Castro to Communism."

With the subversives and the students well coached, the fact that "incidents" happened "spontaneously" at places far distant from each other along the Canal Zone borders is easily explained. "Che" Guevara, a Trotskyite type of Napoleon, knows what he is doing.

And the "liberals" in Panama have been had.

Acute Pancreatitis Nothing to Trifle With

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—My brother died at age 38 of acute necrotizing pancreatitis. He worked up to a few days before he died. What could cause this condition? Could he have been born with it?

A—Acute pancreatitis is a highly fatal disease that affects men more often than women. Your brother was not born with it, and it does not run in families. It is frequently associated with peptic ulcer, gallstones, or alcoholism. In women it may appear as a complication of pregnancy.

The pancreas normally produces a powerful digestive juice. When the secretion of this juice is obstructed, the concentration may build up to the point where this juice digests the living cells of the pancreas. This is most likely to occur when these cells have been damaged by infection or trauma.

This would change a simple pancreatitis to a necrotizing (tissue-destroying) pancreatitis.

The treatment consists of bed rest, drugs to relieve pain, antibiotics if an infectious cause is identified, feeding by vein to rest the inflamed pancreas, and drugs to decrease the activity of the gland.

Q—My doctor told me I have pityriasis rosea. My back, legs, and arms are pretty much covered with the spots. What causes this condition? Is there any cure?

A—You are one of the lucky ones because your disease is easily recognized. Treatment is always successful.

The disease is believed to be caused by a virus, but this has not been proved.

Without any treatment, the disease clears up in about six weeks.

Treatment consists of baths to which a crude coal tar emulsion is added.

These and exposure to ultraviolet light will relieve the itching and thereby help to prevent the secondary infection that so often follows scratching. This treatment also helps to shorten the course of the disease.

Q—I have been taking Thorazine for nearly four years for severe mental depression. It helps to relieve tension and allows me to sleep. What are the side effects? I think I could do without the drug if I could sleep. Would I be any better off if I stopped the Thorazine and took sleeping pills?

A—Chlorpromazine (Thorazine) is very helpful in persons whose depression is complicated by excessive anxiety. The usual side effects from taking too large a dose include dryness of the mouth and nasal congestion.

Since most of the popular sleeping pills are habit-forming, I would be very cautious about making a change. Your doctor would be the best judge of whether or not to change your medicine.

Q—Are the various venereal diseases transmitted only through sexual contact, or can you get them by using public toilets?

"Oh, That's All Right---He's a Friend of Mine!"

Washington News

BY RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The trouble in Panama resulted from a weak Panamanian president, a political campaign, a turn in the weather, hot-blooded students and a disciplined Castro-Communist organization, say U. S. experts privately.

It is a lesson in how effectively a small, well-prepared Red group can move in on a minor disturbance and build it into a dangerous situation. It was the more remarkable since the Communists have been banned in Panama for 10 years and their numbers are small. It can happen elsewhere in Latin America.

U. S. EXPERTS had been expecting a disturbance in Panama. They didn't know precisely where, or when, or what incident would be used as a fuse. But they knew Panama's Castro-Communists had completed their planning and were ready to act.

As is known, American students had set up the U. S. flag at their high school in the Canal Zone. Panamanian students entered the zone under police escort, planted their flag, were escorted away. Reports are that all this was orderly.

There is confusion over whether Communists engineered this student demonstration. Though a small minority, the Reds have control of the student organization at National University and perhaps at other schools. U. S. experts think the flag-carriers were nationalistic hot-blooded students with nothing more in mind.

Immediately after the flag incident, however, Castro-Comunists moved in. They set up snipers who shot at Americans and Panamanians—to get Panamanians stirred up and to force Americans to return fire.

IN LESS THAN AN HOUR, as if by signal, a pro-Castro radio station went on the air with untrue but lurid stories of American troops "firing into unarmed students."

This was a signal for demonstrations in communities through Panama. Small groups of Reds used the radio atrocity stories to whip up local citizens.

The Reds also quickly worked up crowds of Panama City unemployed, discontented and always ready to riot about anything. They went on a rampage in the city, where 5,000 Americans live, destroying U. S. buildings, offices and automobiles.

U. S. experts say the rioting could have been nipped in the bud if Panamanian President Roberto Chiari had had the courage to step in fast. By the time he acted, the crowds had gotten out of hand.

THE TIME WAS RIGHT for trouble in Panama. The weather takes a turn for the better in early January. This is normally a good season for demonstrations and riots.

There's an election coming up. Though it won't be until May 10, the candidates were required to file by the end of the second week in January.

Election fever begins to run high about now. No candidate or office holder can afford to be pro-Yankee or decry anti-American demonstrations between now and May.

Unemployment is high in Colon and Panama cities. Many unemployed compare their slum life with the excellent living in the Canal Zone. Politicians and Communists assure poor Panamanians their lot is the result of the wealth the U. S. takes from them through "high Canal Zone profits." (Actually, the canal is a money loser).

Best guess is the Communists want weak, rabble-rousing, old ex-President Arnulfo Arias for president in the May election, even though he's reportedly not a Red.

Riots and fervent anti-Americanism would tend to discredit candidate Marco Robles, former minister of government and justice and friend of the U. S., who is backed by the present government.

Disorder also would work against candidate Juan Galindo an engineer. But they're calculated to help Arias, the rabble-rouser.

The Castro-Communists are believed determined to do what they can to wreck the chances of Robles. They apparently had counted on using a weak, erratic Arias presidency to build their strength as they're now doing in Brazil under Joao Goulart.

A Panama-Crisis Need: Patience, Self-Restraint

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—It may seem easy to conclude that the dispute between the United States and the Republic of Panama is merely a case of excessive emotionalism about flying national flags—but the controversy goes deeper. The basic cause is a feeling of discouragement among Panamanians who see no economic future for themselves except as it is related to potential income from the use of the Canal.

When national pride, moreover, complicates an international problem, there are always opportunities for provocative action and the intensification of bitterness.

The people of Panama originally leased their territory for an interoceanic canal. The United States built the waterway and has been collecting tolls from the ships of all nations. But the Republic of Panama gets less than $2 million a year rent, It used to be only $250,000. Surely in the 50 years since the Canal has been operating it would seem that the United States could afford to increase considerably more its annual payment, especially in these days of "foreign aid" to many countries which do not furnish any facility to the United States as useful as the Panama Canal has been, including its military value in World War I and World War II.

There are economic improvements which can be made after proper negotiation. But since there's an election campaign going on inside the Republic of Panama, it is customary for national sensitiveness to be expressed in the political arena. On top of this, the Americans who live in the Canal Zone have families with teen-age students who naturally have a feeling of patriotism about flying the American flag.

For many years, only the American flag was flown inside the Canal Zone—which is leased permanently to the United States. Then the demand was made that the Panamanian flag should also be flown, and in January, 1963, it was agreed that the Panamanian flag would fly side by side wherever the U. S. flag was flown by civilian authorities in the Zone. In the first week of this year, the U. S. flag was hauled down from a number of sites—including the high schools—which had not been designated for the joint flying of the two flags. For some strange reason, no explanation of this order—that no flag be flown—was made to the Zone residents. The whole squabble was mishandled.

It was inevitable that there would be disturbances about the flying of the flags. What was surprising, however, was the action of the Panamanian President in ordering diplomatic relations severed. This gave an opportunity to the Castro agents, Communists and other disturbers of the peace to capitalize on the disorders and bring about an international furor.

The United States was disposed to go along and open the whole controversy to diplomatic discussion. Then a snag was reached as the Panamanians said the United States had agreed to "negotiate," whereas the Washington officials said it was an agreement only to "discuss," not to negotiate. This led to bad feeling, too. For a readiness to discuss is, of course, an obvious forerunner of negotiation—though not necessary of concession. The flare-up and threats of a continued suspension in diplomatic relations thereupon didn't make things any easier inside the United States where public opinion happens to have some sensitiveness, especially as a political campaign is under way here, too.

Skillful handling by diplomats could have averted the whole mix-up and could have produced a statement from which both countries could derive some satisfaction. It is obvious that what is involved is not merely relations with Panama but the impact as well on other Central and South American countries, particularly since there is always a tendency in Latin countries to raise the cry of "Yankee imperialism."

The United States can afford to be generous to the Republic of Panama, but connot allow itself to be dragooned or pressured into policies forced by street riots or public denunciations.

The Panama Canal itself is slowly growing obsolete. It cannot take care of certain-sized ships. Another canal may have to be built across Nicaragua, perhaps before another six years have passed. So the Republic of Panama would do well to watch its step and exercise self-control. For whatever needs to be done to help Panama can be achieved by the Panamanian government without letting the United States get into the awkward position of seemingly being blackmailed into making "concessions."

If ever there was an international controversy that called for patience and self-restraint as well as generous impulses on both sides, it is the dispute that has arisen between Panama and the United States. Fortunately, it presents by no means an insolvable problem.

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

RATE RAISE: The Post Office Department long has contended that the way to cure the widening disparity between revenues and costs in its parcel post operation is to raise the rates.

Thursday the Interstate Commerce Commission came around to this line of thinking. It approved an increase averaging 13.1 per cent over present rates, which have been in effect four years.

TAXES: The Senate Finance Committee voted Thursday to include in the tax reduction bill two provisions that would boost the taxes paid by American oil and gas companies some $80 million.

This is the first significant revenue-producing action taken by the committee since it began consideration of the then $11 billion tax reduction bill. Other steps it has taken would cut government revenues an additional $500 million.

FIRST: The Democratic congressional delegation from Florida became the first in the nation Thursday to pledge active support to President Johnson for election in November.

The backing was in a letter of endorsement read to Johnson at the White House by Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes while other members of the delegation cheered.

SMOKING: Two bills designed to guard the public against the hazards of cigarette smoking were introduced in the Senate Thursday by Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, D-Ore., and in the House by Rep. John Blatnik, D-Minn.

One would authorize the Federal Trade Commission to regulate cigarette advertising and labeling as it now does for foods, drugs and cosmetics.

The second would grant the Public Health Service authority to conduct an educational campaign on the hazards of smoking and to study the content of cigarette smoke to identify hazardous elements.

HARD NEW LOOK: While on the campaign trail, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., questioned the reliability of the nation's Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said there was no need for concern. Goldwater called for a Senate inquiry.

Thursday, his call was answered. A fellow member of the Armed Services Committee, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said he has directed the staff of his Preparedness subcommittee to "update and review the current information and data relating to the reliability and dependability of the nation's long range ballistic missiles as soon as possible."

Vote Study of Jetports

NEW YORK (AP) — Port of New York Authority commissioners have approved a year-long study of two possible sites in New Jersey for a major jet airport to serve the New York-New Jersey metropolitan area.

The commissioners said Thursday the study would cost about $300,000 in fees for consultants. It was suggested by New Jersey Gov. Richard J. Hughes.

He urged a study of the state's Bearfort area in Passaic County and the Bowling Green area in Sussex County.

The Port Authority and the Federal Aviation Agency have agreed that the Pine Island area of Orange County, N.Y., and the Pine Barrens area of central Jersey are not feasible for the proposed jet airport.

Civil Service Exam

The executive secretary, Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Stewart Air Force Base, has announced an examination to obtain personnel for the position of diesel electric generator repairer. Vacancies to be filled are at Bullville. Applications will be received by the examiners until the needs of the service have been met.

On Rocky's Staff

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller announced today the appointment of Mrs. Jannett P. Tourtellotte of Seattle, Republican National Committeewoman in the State of Washington, to his national presidential campaign staff.

Mrs. Tourtellotte will be an assistant to R. Mort Frayn of Seattle, who is in charge of the Rockefeller effort in 13 Western states.

The governor announced Thursday night he had appointed State Sen. Ralph D. Brooks of Yarmouth, Me., to head his presidential campaign in that state.

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

RATE RAISE: The Post Office Department long has contended that the way to cure the widening disparity between revenues and costs in its parcel post operation is to raise the rates.

Thursday the Interstate Commerce Commission came around to this line of thinking. It approved an increase averaging 13.1 per cent over present rates, which have been in effect four years.

TAXES: The Senate Finance Committee voted Thursday to include in the tax reduction bill two provisions that would boost the taxes paid by American oil and gas companies some $80 million.

This is the first significant revenue-producing action taken by the committee since it began consideration of the then $11 billion tax reduction bill. Other steps it has taken would cut government revenues an additional $500 million.

FIRST: The Democratic congressional delegation from Florida became the first in the nation Thursday to pledge active support to President Johnson for election in November.

The backing was in a letter of endorsement read to Johnson at the White House by Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes while other members of the delegation cheered.

SMOKING: Two bills designed to guard the public against the hazards of cigarette smoking were introduced in the Senate Thursday by Sen. Maurine B. Neuberger, D-Ore., and in the House by Rep. John Blatnik, D-Minn.

One would authorize the Federal Trade Commission to regulate cigarette advertising and labeling as it now does for foods, drugs and cosmetics.

The second would grant the Public Health Service authority to conduct an educational campaign on the hazards of smoking and to study the content of cigarette smoke to identify hazardous elements.

HARD NEW LOOK: While on the campaign trail, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., questioned the reliability of the nation's Intercontinental Ballistic Missiles. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said there was no need for concern. Goldwater called for a Senate inquiry.

Thursday, his call was answered. A fellow member of the Armed Services Committee, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said he has directed the staff of his Preparedness subcommittee to "update and review the current information and data relating to the reliability and dependability of the nation's long range ballistic missiles as soon as possible."

On Rocky's Staff

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller announced today the appointment of Mrs. Jannett P. Tourtellotte of Seattle, Republican National Committeewoman in the State of Washington, to his national presidential campaign staff.

Mrs. Tourtellotte will be an assistant to R. Mort Frayn of Seattle, who is in charge of the Rockefeller effort in 13 Western states.

The governor announced Thursday night he had appointed State Sen. Ralph D. Brooks of Yarmouth, Me., to head his presidential campaign in that state.

Dies of Injuries

WHITESBORO, N.Y. (AP) — Lawrence Carey, 51, of Utica, died early today of injuries sustained Thursday night when his automobile struck a tree along the Clark-Mills Road in this community near Utica.

Paes on Fleet Oiler

R. D. Paes, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Paes Jr. of Honk Hill, Napanoch, is serving aboard the fleet oiler USS Kaskaskia operating out of Mayport, Fla.

Po'keepsie Tests Listed for Coast Guard OCS

Qualification examination for the next convening class of Coast Guard Officer Candidate School will take place from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. on Jan. 18 and 19 and from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m. on January 25 and 26 at the U. S. Naval Reserve Training Center, 75 Oakley Street, Poughkeepsie. Officer personnel of the Poughkeepsie Coast Guard Reserve Unit will administer the test.

Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 26 with a bachelor's degree upon acceptance of the program.

The 17-week course includes navigation, seamanship, Coast Guard orientation and military bearing. Next class starting date is Feb. 23.

Each OCS graduate receives a commission as ensign in the Coast Guard Reserve with an active duty tour of three years. During this time he may apply for flight school or other specialized training.

Additional information can be obtained from Warrant Officer William T. McCaffrey, Saugerties, N. Y., or applicants may go directly to the U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center and take the test.

Aid Monies Will Pour Out Despite Congress Pruning

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The one-third cut that Congress made in the administration's proposed foreign aid program may hamper some future spending. But for the near term the money should roll out in about the same volume as if Congress hadn't wielded the paring knife.

Fight Over Principles

The fight this year will be more than ever over the principles involved in economic aid and the effects on the American and world economies, first of the outflow of U.S. dollars, a second of the uses other lands of the outflow of U.S. dollars, and second of the uses other lands make of it.

The administration had asked $4.5 billion in new money for foreign aid, military and economic, and Congress cut this to $3 billion. This slice was the largest percentage in the history of the postwar program.

But the dispensers have $400 million still unobligated from the 1963 fiscal year appropriation of $3.9 billion. Also some $7 billion already obligated for specific programs but still unspent is available.

The more critical effect of the congressional vote may lie in its imposing new conditions on what money can be given to specific countries.

May Switch Help

The debate which is sure to come up this year may go farther along those lines but also include moves to switch more of the help for developing countries from U.S. government funds to private investment.

How such help is now distributed is discussed by the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co., of New York in its January survey.

Total government and private flow of straight economic aid from the industrialized world to the less developed lands in 1961 is put at $9.1 billion, with $4.5 billion of that coming from the United States.

The American contribution included $1.5 billion of government economic aid; $886 million in farm surpluses either given away or sold for soft, inconvertible, currencies; $285 million in contributions to international agencies and $852 million in loans of the Export-Import Bank.

In the government aid sector much of the debate will center on the impact of such U.S. aid spending on the balance of payments. For several years an average of three billion more dollars have flowed out of the country each year than have come back in international trade and financial dealings.

Heart Disease No Barrier to Safe Children Bearing

During pregnancy, the mother's heart works extra hard. Even when she is resting, her heart must pump more blood because an increase in circulation is needed to supply her growing baby with nourishment as well as to meet the needs of her own tissues. What about the woman with "heart trouble?"

Contrary to widespread beliefs, today most young women with a disease or defect of the heart can safely bear children, according to a newly revised booklet, Heart Disease and Pregnancy, published by the American Heart Association. The booklet describes special problems of heart disease in pregnancy and offers suggestions to make childbearing easier and safer.

Get Advice First

"If you are a young woman with heart disease, the chances are good that you can have a baby," the booklet states, recommending that the doctor's advice be sought before pregnancy is undertaken. The physician will be able to tell if undue risk is involved in a particular case, but, the booklet emphasizes, the final decision will be up to the prospective parents.

Stressing the importance of proper medical supervision throughout, the booklet notes that doctors today are better equipped than ever before to care for pregnant women with heart disease. Better methods of evaluation and treatment of cardiovascular disorders in general are available. Surgical advances can improve or completely correct many inborn heart defects which might otherwise preclude childbearing. While surgery is available also to correct heart damage resulting from rheumatic fever (the most common type of heart disease found in young women) the booklet points out that it is not always necessary or desirable.

Fourteen frequently asked questions are answered in a section entitled "What Women Want to Know About Heart Disease and Pregnancy." Examples: "Will my baby inherit my heart disease?" Answer: "It is most unlikely. There is no evidence that most heart disease is inherited . . ." "Will my baby have to be born by Ceasarean Section?" Answer: "No . . . There is every likelihood that your baby will be delivered normally." Additional questions and answers deal with possibility of worsening heart disease, size of family, pre-natal and post-natal care, special diets and other subjects.

The booklet concludes with a recommendation that a young woman who has heart disease and is planning to be married talk the matter over with her future husband and also with her doctor. "Don't take chances with your happiness by hiding the fact that you have heart disease," it states. "If you both want children, plan together for the care you will need before and after as well as at the time of childbirth."

Single copies of "Heart Disease and Pregnancy" are available without charge from the Heart Association of Ulster County, 124 Green Street. Physicians also may request a supply of copies to give their patients.

Negro Attorneys Have Plan for Desegregation

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Negro attorneys for a group of Huntsville, Ala. parents have proposed a plan for desegregating the first six grades of Huntsville's public schools.

The proposal, presented in U.S. District Court Thursday, was part of the attorney's objections to a plan submitted by the Huntsville Board of Education. It included the redrawing of school zone lines without racial discrimination.

The board offered a plan, under court orders, to desegregate some 12th grade classrooms this month and 11th and 12th grade classes next fall.

The plan suggested by the attorneys calls for desegregation of the first six grades next fall, the seventh through ninth by 1965 and grades 10 through 12 by the 1966 school term.

To Study Highways

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Robert W. Sweet, chief engineer of the State Department of Public Works, says the department will undertake a two-year study of the classification of all state and county highways.

Sweet said Thursday the study would be the first of its kind in the state in more than 40 years. It would determine whether the proper governments — state or county — had jurisdiction over highway maintenance, he said.

Six Tricks Are Only Six Tricks

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"But partner! I held 100 honors," mumbled South.

"Honors are more dangerous to bridge players than auto accidents," said North.

Honors really had killed North and South this time. Or perhaps it was the fact that South, in common with many bridge players, wanted to play the hand himself. A little consideration would have told him that his six spades would take six tricks at no-trump as well as at spades.

Of course, East and West had come up with a super defense against the four spade contract. It seems that West had opened the deuce of hearts!

It is a pretty good rule to avoid underleading aces against suit contracts, but this time West decided that he had a lot to gain and very little to lose.

The lead really gave South a problem. He finally played the three from dummy. East won the trick with his ten and returned a club whereupon West underled his ace of hearts a second time. South could have made the rest of the tricks had he played dummy's king, but South was looking at only two hands. He played the jack and East's queen and West's ace plus the ace of clubs gave the defense their necessary four tricks.

All very beautiful, but had North been allowed to play three no-trump there would have been no way to beat him.

Six Tricks Are Only Six Tricks

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"But partner! I held 100 honors," mumbled South.

"Honors are more dangerous to bridge players than auto accidents," said North.

Honors really had killed North and South this time. Or perhaps it was the fact that South, in common with many bridge players, wanted to play the hand himself. A little consideration would have told him that his six spades would take six tricks at no-trump as well as at spades.

Of course, East and West had come up with a super defense against the four spade contract. It seems that West had opened the deuce of hearts!

It is a pretty good rule to avoid underleading aces against suit contracts, but this time West decided that he had a lot to gain and very little to lose.

The lead really gave South a problem He finally played the three from dummy. East won the trick with his ten and returned a club whereupon West underled his ace of hearts a second time. South could have made the rest of the tricks had he played dummy's king, but South was looking at only two hands. He played the jack and East's queen and West's ace plus the ace of clubs gave the defense their necessary four tricks.

All very beautiful, but had North been allowed to play three no-trump there would have been no way to beat him.

Gorilla in Foster Home, Being Fed On Baby Formula

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leonard, a somewhat historic baby gorilla, has been farmed out to a foster home to be weaned on a baby's bottle because his mother is emotionally unable to nurse him.

The stand-in mother for one-week-old Leonard, the fifth gorilla born in captivity, is Mrs. Bernard Gallagher, wife of the senior keeper at the National Zoo.

Since June 1958, her home in nearby Maryland has been a temporary foster home for baby anthropoids from the National Zoo whose own mothers can't nurse them.

The vital statistics and routine for Leonard?

Lend an ear to Mrs. Gallagher: "He weighs five pounds, 6½ ounces, which makes him the largest of the five gorillas born in captivity. He has very black hair—with some gray on his head—and he sleeps in a regular human baby's incubator.

"I feed him a regular baby's formula, the same one I gave all the others, and I also give him extra vitamin drops. In about a week, I'll begin giving him pablum.

"He eats about every 3½ hours during the day, and so far he's been very good to me at night. He only wakes me up once each night, whereas all the others had me up at least two or three times.

"He has to be burped after every feeding, and I hold him over my shoulder, just like a human baby. He wears regular baby clothes — and undershirt and a polo shirt—and when he gets a little older, I'll put overalls on him.

"Of course, he always wears a diaper, and whenever he's restless, I change him. Sometimes it's every few minutes, but most times an hour or so goes by between changes.

"He's a very alert baby for only one week old, and I feel that he's already beginning to notice me. And he's very strong. When he gets a hold on you, you know it!

"I talk to him and play with him and tickle him under the chin—and I think, I'd feel slighted if the folks out at the zoo hadn't sent him to me."

So far, pictures of Leonard have not been permitted.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"Network television is a mass medium and only justifies its existence when it interests the mass of people. It should not be expected to substitute for the roles of parent, teacher, psychiatrist, social worker, or even philanthropist."

That is the opinion of the well-known art critic and writer, Aline Saarinen, whose professional involvement with network broadcasting goes back only a year. Widow of the famous architect Eero Saarinen, she is a member of NBC's "Today Show," editorializing — often sharply—on art, contemporary design, architecture and allied subjects.

"There was a period when I, along with many critics of the medium, thought that if a program attracted only one or two million people—and was worthwhile, that it was justified," she continued. "I feel rather strongly now that if most people are looking at some one else's program and not at yours, it is the fault of the broadcaster."

She was addressing herself rather directly to the frequent suggestion that broadcasters should consult with leaders to find the best ways of serving a community's needs and desires.

"That would be fine if anybody really knew community tastes," she continued. "The fact is that all people like what they know. And it is also certain that most community leaders only know what the public ought to like."

Mrs. Saarinen deplored that in many areas, including Washington, television "gets good points if it puts on a ballet, even if it is bad ballet like that Stravinsky thing last year."

"Whereas it gets no points at all when it puts on a good 'Defenders' episode that comes to grips with truth, or a good 'Bonanza' that makes fine entertainment. We're still stuck, in many quarters with an attitude that a non-sponsored and sustaining problem is good, while one that is sponsored is undoubtedly popular, and therefore less good."

Hit Disc Will Net Singer Cool $100,000 Check

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next month a royalty check for more than $100,000 will be heading in the direction of James Gilmer, 23, an Amarillo, Tex., singer who managed to boom in today's boom-or-bust record business.

1,200,000 Sold

Gilmer, backed by a lively combo called The Fireballs, rocked out a number called "Sugar Shack" that slugged the teen-age market for 1,200,000 discs, an amazing total in the single-record field.

The record came, oddly enough, from Clovis, N.M. It had been submitted to Dot Records by a music entrepreneur, Norman Petty. And that's how the business bounces nowadays.

Dot headman Randy Wood explained the new era in the oft-times mixed-up record industry:

"A large percentage of single records in the lists today are demonstration records that have been submitted to companies after they have been made. We receive anywhere from 25 to 50 of them a week at Dot, and I make it a point to listen to all of them. Once in a while a 'Sugar Shack' comes along.

Original Quality Vital

"These records are made by combos all over the country and might have been recorded in kitchens or bathrooms, often on home recorders. The quality doesn't matter; we never re-record the ones we pick. It's that original quality we're looking for."

Among the Dot hits that came from demonstration records: Jim Loew's "Green Door," which sold 1,300,000; Robin Luke's "Suzie Darling," 750,000; Dodie Stevens' "Pink Shoelaces"; and Lonnie Donnegan's epic "Does Your Chewing Gum Lose Its Flavor on The Bedpost Overnight?" A half-million seller.

Obviously it pays a record firm to open its mail. It might contain the next No. 1 hit.

"The system works out fine for both sides," explained Wood. "We have less overhead in producing records. And the people who make the record have less taken out of their profits. Of the $100,000 earned by 'Sugar Shack,' I doubt if more than $1,000 would be deducted for expenses."

Civil Service Exam

The U.S. Civil Service Commission has announced a new examination for Patent Aid for employment with the Patent Office in Washington, D. C., at a starting salary of $3,620 a year. The career opportunities offered by this examination should be of special interest to high school seniors, or graduates, or others with training in science and mathematics. A written test is required. There is an additional requirement of specific high school science or mathematics courses or one year of appropriate experience. Detailed information is given in Announcement No. 321-B. Applications must be filed by April 30. Civil Service announcements and application forms may be obtained from Leo W. THERE IT GOES WINNING MORE HEARTS AGAIN!

Every time a Cadillac goes by, it seems someone falls in love with it.

Last year, for instance, more people moved up to Cadillac than ever before in history. And the way 1964 is starting off, Cadillac is going to attract more owners than even its beguiling predecessor. Why? We think the answer is easy.

Each year Cadillac simply lengthens its margin of product leadership—by introducing advancements and improvements that are entirely its own.

In 1964, for example, we've combined the heater and air conditioner in a single unit—with a single control. You set the thermostat at your favorite temperature just like you do at home—and the interior of the car holds it winter and summer. We call it Comfort Control*.

*An extra-cost option.

Then there's Cadillac's new Twilight Sentinel*. When it's time to turn on the lights, they switch on automatically . . . and then turn off when sufficient daylight returns. And in the evening, the headlights can be set to light your path from car to doorway and then turn off automatically after you have entered the house.

There's a lot more about the 1964 Cadillac just as new and just as exciting. Take performance, for example.

There's the exciting new 340 h.p. engine—the most powerful in Cadillac history—combined with the smoothness of an improved Hydra-Matic or the completely new Turbo Hydra-Matic transmission.

Average Age of Leaders Is 68

Old-Timers in Ruling Class Are Reluctant to Step Down

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, like President Kennedy before him, is the youngest of 11 of the world's most powerful leaders whose average age is 68.

Kennedy, when he was killed in November, was 46. Johnson is 55. But the average age of the 11 leaders would be even higher except for a couple of replacements last October due to advanced age and ill health.

If there's a lesson to be drawn it is that men in power don't yield it easily except in a country like this where a president is constitutionally limited to two terms.

Last October West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer retired at 87, after holding office since 1949. In the same month Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan stepped down after six years of running the British government.

Adenauer, pushed out because of his years, was succeeded by Chancellor Ludwig Erhard who is now almost 67. Sir Alec Douglas-Home, 61, took over as prime minister from Macmillan who quit because of ill health.

Now the world is to witness a tremendous transfer of power, unpredictable in its consequences, when India's Prime Minister Nehru, 74, steps down, as he is expected to because of poor health.

He has been prime minister since 1947. He was one of the main architects of India's independence and has been its guiding force since. If India is torn apart after he leaves it will shake the world.

But—aside from Nehru, Adenauer and Macmillan—the other old-timers show no inclination to step aside although one of them, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has been in one saddle or another since the 1920s.

From then until 1949, when the Chinese Reds drove him out, he was the dictator of mainland China. He fled to Formosa, set up a government there, and has been boss ever since. He's 76.

Antonio Salazar, dictator of Portugal, has held power since 1932. He's 74 and isn't giving up anything, including Portugal's colonial possessions.

Right next door to him is another dictator, Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain. He's 71 and has been running the show since the late 1930s.

On a bigger scale there are three entrenched bosses of the Communist world: Premier Khrushchev of Russia, 69; Red China's top man, Mao Tze-tung, 70, and Yugoslavia's President Tito, 71.

All three seem to have a death-grip on their jobs. Tito has been in charge since World War II, Khrushchev officially since 1958 although he was the man behind the scenes before that, and Mao in one way or another since the 1920s.

And then there is French President Charles de Gaulle, 73. It doesn't seem he will ever give up. He became president four years ago.

The one who really has it made, unless something goes awfully wrong for him, is Sukarno, 62 and president of Indonesia. Its population of about 100 million is almost as much as that of France and West Germany combined.

He took office in 1949 and last May the Indonesian Assembly appointed him president for life.

Columbia Is to Get $2.5 Million From Will

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — Columbia University has been named recipient of $2.5 million in the will of Marcellus Hartley Dodge, who died Christmas Day at his home in nearby Harding Township.

The will, filed for probate Thursday, did not declare the entire value of the philanthropist's estate.

Among bequests to institutions was a gift of $10,000 for Hobart College, Geneva, N.Y.

Fire-Truck Ablaze

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Firemen from the nearby DeFreestville Fire Department rolled out of the garage Thursday on a non-emergency run to deliver water needed on a farm.

The emergency developed shortly.

SE Librarians Plan Workshop at Tarrytown

School Librarians of Southeastern New York announced plans for a spring workshop meeting and luncheon to be held at the Hilton Inn, Tarrytown, Saturday, April 25.

Formerly this organization was the Library Section, Southeastern Zone, New York State Teachers Association. When the zone was disbanded last spring, this group was reorganized as the School Librarians of Southeastern New York, adopted a new Constitution and Bylaws, and elected the following for its officers for the year 1963-1964:

Officers Listed

President, Miss Louise E. Riedinger, Pelham Memorial High School; first vice president, John Bennett, Clarkstown High School,, New City; second vice president, Robert Barron, White Plains High School; secretary treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons, Port Chester Jr. High School. County representatives on the excutive board include: Dutchess, Bernadine Smith, Smith School, Poughkeepsie; Orange, Margaret E. Wood, president Orange County School Librarians; Putnam, Mary Louise Adams, Mahopac Central School; Rockland, Edna Hawkins, president, Rockland County School Librarians; Sullivan, Michael O'Donnell, Tri-Valley Central School, Grahamsville; Ulster, Mrs. Lora Long, Rondout Valley High School, Stone Ridge, and Westchester, Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons.

The two-hour workshop sessions will be set up along the same lines that the conference within a conference was organized at the American Library Association Convention in Chicago last summer. Six discussion groups will be composed of representations from school superintendents, principals, curriculum coordinators, heads of departments, teachers, public library directors, public librarians, school librarians, board of education members, and public library trustees.

The general theme will be "Meeting Students' Needs." Students needs for better library service on all levels was the concern for two and one half days at the Chicago conference.

Serves Seven Counties

At the forthcoming workshop sessions, service to the students of seven counties will be the concern of everyone who attends the planned workshop.

At the luncheon following the morning workshop discussion groups, the questions, problems and suggestions for better service to all students of this area will be presented to the entire luncheon group by a summary statement similar to the summation made at A. L. S. by Dr. Lowell Martin, former Dean of Columbia University School of Library Science and now on the editorial Board of the Grolier Society.

Army Recruiter Advises to Take Three-Year Hitch

Most young men today between the ages of 18 and 23 face the problem of satisfying their military obligations. Under the present laws, every qualified American male will serve his country, in one service or another, for a maximum of six years. The intent is to give the United States a large pool of trained and qualified civilian-soldiers to draw from in the event of national emergency.

Army Sergeant Edward Malenski, recruiter in Kingston, points out that the law is not intended to make career soldiers out of every high school graduate. He explains that, in fact, the laws have frequently been changed to allow individuals to complete their obligation with the shortest possible period of active duty service.

He cautions, however, that the young man thinking of his military future must balance time spent against experience gained. As a Career Counselor, he said, I often suggest to applicants that they take the shortest initial enlistment which still allows them to receive the training, or assignment they want.

Usually, he said, this means they choose the Army's three year enlistment: "We—the Army—are the only service which combines a short (three year) enlistment with a guarantee that the applicant will receive the training or assignment of his choice."

In the Army, Sgt. Malenski said, the four year enlistment is reserved for special assignments. For example, he noted that assignment in the Army Security Agency or assignment to Hawaii, Japan or Okinawa are enlistment options which require a four year period of service. "A young man can qualify for any other training we have," he said, "and have it guaranteed in writing before he enlists; when he enlists for three years he receives the training he selected."

Young men interested in any of the problems involved in the fulfillment of their military obligation should contact Sgt. Malenski at his office in the Central Post Office, 496 Broadway.

Warning to Harvesters

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban government warned sugar harvest workers that those who fail to keep tools and machinery in good condition deserve severe punishment, Havana radio said Thursday night.

Anti-Castro elements have threatened sabotage of the crop and harvesting equipment.

Cuba is harvesting an estimated 3 million tons of sugar cane, a short crop of the commodity which is the island's economic mainstay.

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — I have long been interested in just how much our national mental health may influence the business cycle and the forces of prosperity. Today, with such swift transportation and lightning-flash communication, I am much of an effect man's emotions may have upon international, commercial, and political developments.

The Power of Our Emotions

I am firmly convinced that our emotions direct our behavior in more instances than we like to admit. It is a psychological fact that a successful salesman aims at our emotions if he finds that his appeals to our logic have failed. And if you have ever attended a town meeting, you know how easy it is for some spellbinder to completely override logic with an emotional appeal. Nine times out of ten we give in to the purely emotional gimmick.

In most national political elections, I would venture that the outcome has been even more heavily influenced by emotion than by common horse-sense. Since emotion plays such a big role in our individual lives and in politics, is it not reasonable that the way we feel about business conditions may very well have a bearing on those conditions themselves? Surely nobody would deny that confidence is a very important factor in manufacturing, banking, and consumer purchasing.

Should Be Looked Into

Businessmen in general seem to have little time for sociologists, anthropologists, and psychologists, because their experiments take a long time to complete and are usually costly. But it is my opinion that if some realistic-minded social scientists would get together with a group of farsighted businessmen to study in depth the effect of our national mental health on the business cycle and prosperity, some great discoveries might be made that would benefit not only our country but other nations as well.

Forecasting has been my business for many years, and I have long wondered if there are not some now unknown spiritual and mental factors that would be valuable—if identified—in making economic predictions. As long ago as the turn of the century, Harvard's eminent Doctor Cannon declared that half the patients who came to him for treatment had nothing wrong with them physically. Their trouble was psychosomatic, meaning mental and emotional. When you think of the vast numbers of people who are undoubtedly psychosomatic but who never seek treatment for this, you can imagine how many are ill simply because they think they are.

Impact of Emotions on Business

Everyone recognizes the parts played by religion and psychiatry in developing entirely new, successful, and happy personalities. Industry itself had made surveys which indicate that the cause of many serious and costly strikes is not economic. Instead, many have a purely emotional origin; the emphasis, really, is more on recognition, security, and individual attention than on wages or hours. Hence, why is it not likely that business depressions could be profoundly affected by emotional currents?

I wonder what might happen during this new year if business, and people generally, should begin to feel cautious and pessimistic, irrespective of conditions and of what the economists and bankers forecast. While most economists predict a business advance during 1964, could the mental and emotional health of our people reverse the trend in spite of the all-time highs now existing in employment, production, earnings, and retail trade? I sometimes wonder if we are right in figuring solely on money, employment, sales, etc., as the criteria for prosperity. Perhaps someday it will be found that mental and emotional attitudes do more to mold our business patterns than the purely economic barometers. I feel sure even now, that our spiritual and mental health does affect business conditions. It is certainly an interesting area for further study.

Ellenville Will Hold Dimes Dance Sunday, Jan. 26

Final arrangements for the Ellenville 1964 March of Dimes dance to be held Sunday night, Jan. 26, at the Fallsview Hotel were made Tuesday during a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Resnick.

A buffet supper will open the January 26 event from 6:30 to 8 p. m. Dancing and a floor show will follow.

The following committees were announced by Resnick and George Barthel, co-chairmen of the dance committee: Kenneth Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craft, tickets; Peter Otens, tickets at the door; Sidney Sinick and Michael Dineer, masters of ceremony; Conrad Traphagen and Clarence Coniker, coat check; Mrs. Louis Resnick, blue crutches; Mrs. George Barthel and Mrs. Foster Sheffield, gifts; and Mrs. Marguerite Gonder, Mrs. Irwin Stein, Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell and Mrs. Charles Craft, hostesses.

Barthel and Resnick pointed out that during 1963 the Ulster County March of Dimes has expended $4,200, almost $12 each day of the year; on assistance to victims of polio, arthritis and birth defects. "It should be borne in mind," they said, "that for the victims of conditions treated through March of Dimes funds, the most difficult experience is the long period of restraining and remedial surgery required. This period represents a constant expenditure of funds that far exceeds the cost of treatment in the acute phases of the malady." All this money, according to the co-chairmen, is raised during the short annual campaign period.

Stanford Exceeds Goal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Stanford University announced Thursday it has exceeded its $100-million goal in its fund raising campaign.

President Wallace Sterling said he believes the $109,235,101 is the largest single capital fund campaign ever conducted by a university.

The $109.2 million include a $25 million incentive grant from the Ford Foundation, which pledged one dollar for each three raised from private sources.

Demonstrate on Housing

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Five members of the Congress of Racial Equality have been sitting, sleeping or walking about Colorado Gov. John Love's office for almost two days now.

They began the demonstration Wednesday as a demand that Love ask the Colorado Legislature to extend Colorado's Fair Housing Act. Love said he will decide late today.

Army Recruiter Advises to Take Three-Year Hitch

Most young men today between the ages of 18 and 23 face the problem of satisfying their military obligations. Under the present laws, every qualified American male will serve his country, in one service or another, for a maximum of six years. The intent is to give the United States a large pool of trained and qualified civilian-soldiers to draw from in the event of national emergency.

Army Sergeant Edward Malenski, recruiter in Kingston, points out that the law is not intended to make career soldiers out of every high school graduate. He explains that, in fact, the laws have frequently been changed to allow individuals to complete their obligation with the shortest possible period of active duty service.

He cautions, however, that the young man thinking of his military future must balance time spent against experience gained. As a Career Counselor, he said, I often suggest to applicants that they take the shortest initial enlistment which still allows them to receive the training, or assignment they want.

Usually, he said, this means they choose the Army's three year enlistment: "We—the Army—are the only service which combines a short (three year) enlistment with a guarantee that the applicant will receive the training or assignment of his choice."

In the Army, Sgt. Malenski said, the four year enlistment is reserved for special assignments. For example, he noted that assignment in the Army Security Agency or assignment to Hawaii, Japan or Okinawa are enlistment options which require a four year period of service. "A young man can qualify for any other training we have," he said, "and have it guaranteed in writing before he enlists; when he enlists for three years he receives the training he selected."

Young men interested in any of the problems involved in the fulfillment of their military obligation should contact Sgt. Malenski at his office in the Central Post Office, 496 Broadway.

Warning to Harvesters

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Cuban government warned sugar harvest workers that those who fail to keep tools and machinery in good condition deserve severe punishment, Havana radio said Thursday night.

Anti-Castro elements have threatened sabotage of the crop and harvesting equipment.

Cuba is harvesting an estimated 3 million tons of sugar cane, a short crop of the commodity which is the island's economic mainstay.

Myers; standing, Second Ward Alderman Robert C. Schantz, and Fourth Ward Alderman Donald Tucker. The dinner is sponsored by the City Republican Committee. (Freeman photo)

BABSON on BUSINESS

By Roger W. Babson

BABSON PARK, Mass. — I have long been interested in just how much our national mental health may influence the business cycle and the forces of prosperity. Today, with such swift transportation and lightning-flash communication, I am much of an effect man's emotions may have upon international, commercial, and political developments.

The Power of Our Emotions

I am firmly convinced that our emotions direct our behavior in more instances than we like to admit. It is a psychological fact that a successful salesman aims at our emotions if he finds that his appeals to our logic have failed. And if you have ever attended a town meeting, you know how easy it is for some spellbinder to completely override logic with an emotional appeal. Nine times out of ten we give in to the purely emotional gimmick.

In most national political elections, I would venture that the outcome has been even more heavily influenced by emotion than by common horse-sense. Since emotion plays such a big role in our individual lives and in politics, is it not reasonable that the way we feel about business conditions may very well have a bearing on those conditions themselves? Surely nobody would deny that confidence is a very important factor in manufacturing, banking, and consumer purchasing.

Should Be Looked Into

Businessmen in general seem to have little time for sociologists, anthropologists, and psychologists, because their experiments take a long time to complete and are usually costly. But it is my opinion that if some realistic-minded social scientists would get together with a group of farsighted businessmen to study in depth the effect of our national mental health on the business cycle and prosperity, some great discoveries might be made that would benefit not only our country but other nations as well.

Forecasting has been my business for many years, and I have long wondered if there are not some now unknown spiritual and mental factors that would be valuable—if identified—in making economic predictions. As long ago as the turn of the century, Harvard's eminent Doctor Cannon declared that half the patients who came to him for treatment had nothing wrong with them physically. Their trouble was psychosomatic, meaning mental and emotional. When you think of the vast numbers of people who are undoubtedly psychosomatic but who never seek treatment for this, you can imagine how many are ill simply because they think they are.

Impact of Emotions on Business

Everyone recognizes the parts played by religion and psychiatry in developing entirely new, successful, and happy personalities. Industry itself had made surveys which indicate that the cause of many serious and costly strikes is not economic. Instead, many have a purely emotional origin; the emphasis, really, is more on recognition, security, and individual attention than on wages or hours. Hence, why is it not likely that business depressions could be profoundly affected by emotional currents?

I wonder what might happen during this new year if business, and people generally, should begin to feel cautious and pessimistic, irrespective of conditions and of what the economists and bankers forecast. While most economists predict a business advance during 1964, could the mental and emotional health of our people reverse the trend in spite of the all-time highs now existing in employment, production, earnings, and retail trade? I sometimes wonder if we are right in figuring solely on money, employment, sales, etc., as the criteria for prosperity. Perhaps someday it will be found that mental and emotional attitudes do more to mold our business patterns than the purely economic barometers. I feel sure even now, that our spiritual and mental health does affect business conditions. It is certainly an interesting area for further study.

Ellenville Will Hold Dimes Dance Sunday, Jan. 26

Final arrangements for the Ellenville 1964 March of Dimes dance to be held Sunday night, Jan. 26, at the Fallsview Hotel were made Tuesday during a meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Resnick.

A buffet supper will open the January 26 event from 6:30 to 8 p. m. Dancing and a floor show will follow.

The following committees were announced by Resnick and George Barthel, co-chairmen of the dance committee: Kenneth Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craft, tickets; Peter Otens, tickets at the door; Sidney Sinick and Michael Dineer, masters of ceremony; Conrad Traphagen and Clarence Coniker, coat check; Mrs. Louis Resnick, blue crutches; Mrs. George Barthel and Mrs. Foster Sheffield, gifts; and Mrs. Marguerite Gonder, Mrs. Irwin Stein, Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell and Mrs. Charles Craft, hostesses.

Barthel and Resnick pointed out that during 1963 the Ulster County March of Dimes has expended $4,200, almost $12 each day of the year; on assistance to victims of polio, arthritis and birth defects. "It should be borne in mind," they said, "that for the victims of conditions treated through March of Dimes funds, the most difficult experience is the long period of restraining and remedial surgery required. This period represents a constant expenditure of funds that far exceeds the cost of treatment in the acute phases of the malady." All this money, according to the co-chairmen, is raised during the short annual campaign period.

Stanford Exceeds Goal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Stanford University announced Thursday it has exceeded its $100-million goal in its fund raising campaign.

President Wallace Sterling said he believes the $109,235,101 is the largest single capital fund campaign ever conducted by a university.

The $109.2 million include a $25 million incentive grant from the Ford Foundation, which pledged one dollar for each three raised from private sources.

Demonstrate on Housing

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Five members of the Congress of Racial Equality have been sitting, sleeping or walking about Colorado Gov. John Love's office for almost two days now.

They began the demonstration Wednesday as a demand that Love ask the Colorado Legislature to extend Colorado's Fair Housing Act. Love said he will decide late today.

5 Yanks Killed In Mekong Delta Copter Strikes

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Five U.S. servicemen were killed and three wounded in combat helicopter operations over the Communist - infested Mekong Delta today.

The heaviest toll was in a turbine-powered UH1A that apparently exploded in the air in an operation 90 miles southwest of Saigon. Four were killed and three wounded.

Deaths Total 99

The other American killed was a door-gunner of an H21 troop - carrying helicopter. He was hit by a Communist bullet in another operation. He was a private first class.

The deaths brought to 99 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since late 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes now total 173.

Saigon authorities announced that a company of Vietnamese troops was heavily hit in a jungle ambush 20 miles northeast of this city by a strong Viet Cong force Wednesday.

Government losses included six dead, 31 wounded and 39 missing.

The attack by about 500 guerrillas was the heaviest in several weeks. The South Vietnamese company was ambushed as it entered a forest three miles from the town of Tan Uyen, at the edge of Communist - controlled territory.

The government said the company put up stiff resistance for several hours before it was overrun.

See Radioactive Woe To Cigarette Smokers

BOSTON (AP)—Two Harvard scientists have posted another warning to cigarette smokers—a possible danger from a radioactive element.

Standing beneath a "no smoking" sign in a classroom at the School of Public Health, Drs. Edward P. Radford and Vilma R. Hunt, both non-smokers, said Thursday they discovered a radioactive element in cigarette smoke which they believe may be a cause of lung cancer.

The element, polonium, is carried into the bronchial tubes and lungs by cigarette smoke, they said.

Bill Is Proposed By Bush to Curb Dogs Killing Deer

Senator E. Ogden Bush has prefiled legislation which would provide more adequate control over dog predations on deer.

This legislation would amend the Conservation Law to provide that dogs pursuing or killing deer may be killed at any time throughout the Adirondack and Catskill Forest Preserve counties instead of in the Adirondack and Catskill Parks.

Present law makes it the duty of game protectors, forest rangers and state police, and permits any person, to kill dogs pursuing or killing deer at any time within the Adirondack and Catskill Parks. This was enacted at a time when most of the deer in the state were found within these areas.

This is no longer the case, and dog predation on deer has become serious outside the park areas during all months. Therefore, there is need for extending the provision for killing such dogs to apply throughout the Forest Preserve counties. This change will have the added advantage of using county boundary lines which are better recognized by the public than the park boundaries.

Redeemer Church Adopts $50,000 Budget for Year

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was held on Thursday evening. The agenda included reports of the various organizations and committees of the congregation.

In his annual report, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. David C. Gaise, traced the progress of the church during the year noting that two sets of stained-glass windows had been added during the year as well as new altar vases, an alms basin, new altar service books and bronze outdoor sign board. He paid tribute to retiring president, Henry O. Wickman and council members Walter G. Burger, Robert S. Evory and Robert V. Carlzon, whose terms had expired.

The treasurer, Reginald B. Deyo, after giving his report, presented the budget for 1964 on behalf of the committee. Recommended by the church council, the budget calls for expenditures of nearly $50,000; $15,000 of which is earmarked for the larger work of the church beyond the local parish. The budget was adopted. The chairman of the Stewardship Committee, William M. Daum, commended the congregation for its response; noting that the church had been able to pay more than its quota to the synod in addition to gifts to its own missionary, Maida Meissner, and contributions to educational institutions and Lutheran World Relief.

Elected president was William M. Daum. Reelected were secretary, Donald H. Glass and treasurer, Reginald B. Deyo. Church councilmen named for three year terms were Chester D. Fox, Donald F. Burger, Donald C. Snyder and John H. Holmquist, who will be inducted into office Sunday, Jan. 26. Paul W. Anhalt, the vicar at Redeemer, gave the benediction.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums, cigar issues and a scattering of blue chips gained in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was active.

Airlines, steels and most cigarette manufacturers were lower. Building material issues rose.

An air of general caution prevailed, ascribed to the coming weekend, the situations in Panama and Zanzibar and the relatively high level of the market itself. Some analysts looked for a correction despite the buoyant business news.

The aluminums continued to respond to price increases. The cigar stocks resumed their uptrend of this week based on the relatively mild treatment given them in the government report on smoking.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 290.3 with industrials up .3, rails up .2 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .75 at 775.38.

Consolidated Cigar made another new high as it advanced more than a point. D.W.G. Cigar gained nearly a point. General Cigar edged higher.

Saturday Noon Is Ticket Deadline For Chamber Meal

Reservations for the annual banquet of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce should be made not later than noon Saturday. The office will be open today until 5 o'clock and from 9 a. m. to 12 noon. Reservations may be made by calling or stopping in at the office in the Governor Clinton Hotel Building.

The banquet will take place at 6:30 p. m. Monday in the Governor Clinton Hotel. The speaker will be George H. Merritt, a member of the Speakers Bureau of the New York World's Fair. His topic will be unusual features of the 1964 Fair. Dinner music will be provided by The Staccatoes a well-known local group. Dancing will take place after the program. Dinner will be served promptly at 6:30.

Although a large number of reservations have already been received, James E. Norton, chairman of the banquet commitee, suggested that more members make reservations. The new officers and directors for 1964 will also be introduced at the banquet.

Lights Blamed for Crash

Glaring headlights of an oncoming car were blamed for a highway accident at 6 p. m. Thursday at the intersection of Routes 28 and 209, according to Kingston state police. Trooper Robert Mackey said Henry Hopkins, 77, of RD 2, Box 472, Kingston, was driving his 1957 coupe west on Route 28 when his vision was obstructed by headlights of an unidentified vehicle. Hopkins car hit the road divider. The motorist was taken to Kingston Hospital suffering fractures of the nose and ribs.

Experiment With Edges

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — An X15 rocket plane, its tail fin honed sharp, sliced the air at 3,170 miles an hour in an attempt to determine whether sharp leading edges help or hinder at extreme speeds.

The experimental ship climbed to 70,000 feet Thursday in the second in a series of such flights. The data gathered may prove useful in designing faster-than-sound transports of the future.

State Troopers Check Cars Here For Unsafe Tires

Kingston State Police on Thursday set up a roadblock in front of the sub-station at Lake Katrine and issued summonses to 15 motorists, seven charged with operating motor vehicles with unsafe tires.

Trooper Robert Mackey said the tires on seven vehicles were bald. The other summonses charged equipment, registration and other violations of the Vehicle and Traffic law.

Under the law enacted by the 1963 Legislature and signed by Governor Rockefeller as a safety measure, tires on all vehicles must be fully covered with at least 1/16th of an inch of good rubber. If tires have less than 1/16th of an inch of tread or show cuts that expose tire tread or have bulges or lumps indicating structural weaknesses, a tire may be deemed unsafe.

Two kinds of inspections are being utilized in enforcing the law, visual inspection and use of tread depth gauges. Visual inspection enables inspectors to check blowout patches, gashes in the tires, protruding bubbles and worn treads, a state police official said.

Tread depth gauges used for inspecting tires are devices employed by the tire manufacturing industry for many years.

A violator of the tire law is liable to a fine of up to $50 and a jail sentence up to 15 days for the first offense. Persistent violators can be fined up to $250 and sentenced to jail for a maximum term of 90 days.

This $23,000 Legacy Needs Some Balancing

Q) "Would you kindly advise me about Rath Packing stock? It came to me as a legacy and I own 2,134 shares." D.S.

A) With pleasure.

Rath Packing is a very important meat packing and processing company. Its plant at Waterloo, Iowa, is one of the largest meat handling facilities in the United States; and its brand name, Black Hawk, is widely known and respected throughout the country.

Highly competitive pricing conditions forced the company to operate at a deficit in fiscal 1961 and 1962. In the fiscal year ended last Sept. 30 Rath earned $0.81 a share and was recently selling at about 13.5 times that figure. Dividends were omitted in 1961 and early resumption seems unlikely.

Your stake in this company amounts to over $23,000. Since you mention no other holdings, this figure appears to be disproportionately high.

I suggest that you hold 300 shares for recovery and invest the balance in stronger growth issues, such as Corn Products; Sears, Roebuck; Texas Utilities; Proctor & Gamble.

Q) "I have just had some money given to me on my twenty-first birthday. With it I bought Martin Marietta at 20⅝. It was my intention to let this investment ride until I married and had children to look after, with a view to their later education. Did I buy a good stock?" J.B.

A) You did buy a good stock, but one that I do not regard as suitable for your objective.

Martin Marietta is one of the major companies in the weapons industry and is heavy in building materials, particularly cement. Neither of its major operations is conducive to growth, which is really what you are looking for.

Your shares yield a well-protected 5 per cent, but at your age I would forego good income and aim at expansion in earnings, dividends and price in the years ahead.

I suggest that you switch your Martin Marietta into Pacific Gas & Electric.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

RFK Undecided As Running Mate

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today he has not decided whether he would accept the vice presidential nomination if it were offered.

Replying to a newsman, he said that he had considered his future for six weeks following the death of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, and had "decided basically that I didn't decide."

"At the moment, I plan to be the attorney general," he said.

Asked whether he had urged astronaut John Glenn to run for the U.S. Senate in Ohio, Kennedy said he had had "a number of conversations with John Glenn over his future." He declined to comment further.

Pressed to say whether he believed Glenn would be a good senator, Kennedy replied with a smile that Glenn would do an excellent job in whatever field he chose.

Glenn resigned from the American space program Thursday, presumably to seek the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate in Ohio.

Nassau Dems Select GOPer as Carlino Foe

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Nassau County Democratic leaders Thursday night designated a Republican to run against Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino, a Long Beach Republican, in November's election.

The Democratic nominee is Jerome McDougal, a Freeport businessman and an enrolled Republican.

But he is anti-Carlino, and the Democrats hoped he would attract support from any dissident Republicans.

McDougal, who has never been active in Republican party affairs, said:

"I think it is time for Republicans and Democrats to speak out as one voice against his (Carlino's) arbitrary, stifling rule."

5 Yanks Killed In Mekong Delta Copter Strikes

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Five U.S. servicemen were killed and three wounded in combat helicopter operations over the Communist - infested Mekong Delta today.

The heaviest toll was in a turbine-powered UH1A that apparently exploded in the air in an operation 90 miles southwest of Saigon. Four were killed and three wounded.

Deaths Total 99

The other American killed was a door-gunner of an H21 troop - carrying helicopter. He was hit by a Communist bullet in another operation. He was a private first class.

The deaths brought to 99 the number of American servicemen killed in combat in South Viet Nam since late 1961. U.S. service deaths from all causes now total 173.

Saigon authorities announced that a company of Vietnamese troops was heavily hit in a jungle ambush 20 miles northeast of this city by a strong Viet Cong force Wednesday.

Government losses included six dead, 31 wounded and 39 missing.

The attack by about 500 guerrillas was the heaviest in several weeks. The South Vietnamese company was ambushed as it entered a forest three miles from the town of Tan Uyen, at the edge of Communist - controlled territory.

The government said the company put up stiff resistance for several hours before it was overrun.

See Radioactive Woe To Cigarette Smokers

BOSTON (AP)—Two Harvard scientists have posted another warning to cigarette smokers—a possible danger from a radioactive element.

Standing beneath a "no smoking" sign in a classroom at the School of Public Health, Drs. Edward P. Radford and Vilma R. Hunt, both non-smokers, said Thursday they discovered a radioactive element in cigarette smoke which they believe may be a cause of lung cancer.

The element, polonium, is carried into the bronchial tubes and lungs by cigarette smoke, they said.

Bill Is Proposed By Bush to Curb Dogs Killing Deer

Senator E. Ogden Bush has prefiled legislation which would provide more adequate control over dog predations on deer.

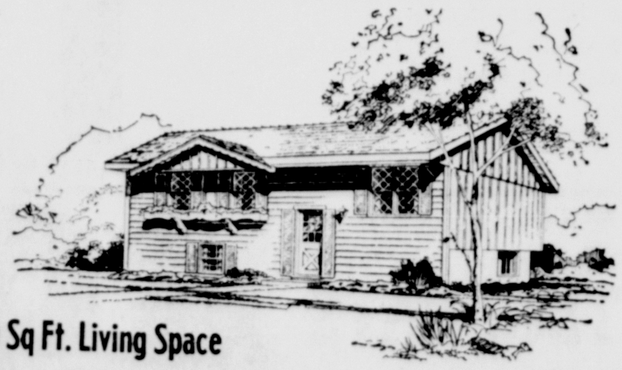

This legislation would amend the Conservation Law to provide that dogs pursuing or killing deer may be killed at any time throughout the Adirondack and Catskill Forest Preserve counties instead of in the Adirondack and Catskill Parks.

Present law makes it the duty of game protectors, forest rangers and state police, and permits any person, to kill dogs pursuing or killing deer at any time within the Adirondack and Catskill Parks. This was enacted at a time when most of the deer in the state were found within these areas.

This is no longer the case, and dog predation on deer has become serious outside the park areas during all months. Therefore, there is need for extending the provision for killing such dogs to apply throughout the Forest Preserve counties. This change will have the added advantage of using county boundary lines which are better recognized by the public than the park boundaries.

Redeemer Church Adopts $50,000 Budget for Year

The annual business meeting of the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer was held on Thursday evening. The agenda included reports of the various organizations and committees of the congregation.

In his annual report, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. David C. Gaise, traced the progress of the church during the year noting that two sets of stained-glass windows had been added during the year as well as new altar vases, an alms basin, new altar service books and bronze outdoor sign board. He paid tribute to retiring president, Henry O. Wickman and council members Walter G. Burger, Robert S. Evory and Robert V. Carlzon, whose terms had expired.

The treasurer, Reginald B. Deyo, after giving his report, presented the budget for 1964 on behalf of the committee. Recommended by the church council, the budget calls for expenditures of nearly $50,000; $15,000 of which is earmarked for the larger work of the church beyond the local parish. The budget was adopted. The chairman of the Stewardship Committee, William M. Daum, commended the congregation for its response; noting that the church had been able to pay more than its quota to the synod in addition to gifts to its own missionary, Maida Meissner, and contributions to educational institutions and Lutheran World Relief.

Elected president was William M. Daum. Reelected were secretary, Donald H. Glass and treasurer, Reginald B. Deyo. Church councilmen named for three year terms were Chester D. Fox, Donald F. Burger, Donald C. Snyder and John H. Holmquist, who will be inducted into office Sunday, Jan. 26. Paul W. Anhalt, the vicar at Redeemer, gave the benediction.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums, cigar issues and a scattering of blue chips gained in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was active.

Airlines, steels and most cigarette manufacturers were lower. Building material issues rose.

An air of general caution prevailed, ascribed to the coming weekend, the situations in Panama and Zanzibar and the relatively high level of the market itself. Some analysts looked for a correction despite the buoyant business news.

The aluminums continued to respond to price increases. The cigar stocks resumed their uptrend of this week based on the relatively mild treatment given them in the government report on smoking.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 290.3 with industrials up .3, rails up .2 and utilities unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .75 at 775.38.

Consolidated Cigar made another new high as it advanced more than a point. D.W.G. Cigar gained nearly a point. General Cigar edged higher.

State Troopers Check Cars Here For Unsafe Tires

Kingston State Police on Thursday set up a roadblock in front of the sub-station at Lake Katrine and issued summonses to 15 motorists, seven charged with operating motor vehicles with unsafe tires.

Trooper Robert Mackey said the tires on seven vehicles were bald. The other summonses charged equipment, registration and other violations of the Vehicle and Traffic law.

Under the law enacted by the 1963 Legislature and signed by Governor Rockefeller as a safety measure, tires on all vehicles must be fully covered with at least 1/16th of an inch of good rubber. If tires have less than 1/16th of an inch of tread or show cuts that expose tire tread or have bulges or lumps indicating structural weaknesses, a tire may be deemed unsafe.

Two kinds of inspections are being utilized in enforcing the law, visual inspection and use of tread depth gauges. Visual inspection enables inspectors to check blowout patches, gashes in the tires, protruding bubbles and worn treads, a state police official said.

Tread depth gauges used for inspecting tires are devices employed by the tire manufacturing industry for many years.

A violator of the tire law is liable to a fine of up to $50 and a jail sentence up to 15 days for the first offense. Persistent violators can be fined up to $250 and sentenced to jail for a maximum term of 90 days.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

by ROGER E. SPEAR
Investment Advisor and Analyst

ROGER E. SPEAR

This $23,000 Legacy Needs Some Balancing

Q) "Would you kindly advise me about Rath Packing stock? It came to me as a legacy and I own 2,134 shares." D.S.

A) With pleasure.

Rath Packing is a very important meat packing and processing company. Its plant at Waterloo, Iowa, is one of the largest meat handling facilities in the United States; and its brand name, Black Hawk, is widely known and respected throughout the country.

Highly competitive pricing conditions forced the company to operate at a deficit in fiscal 1961 and 1962. In the fiscal year ended last Sept. 30 Rath earned $0.81 a share and was recently selling at about 13.5 times that figure. Dividends were omitted in 1961 and early resumption seems unlikely.

Your stake in this company amounts to over $23,000. Since you mention no other holdings, this figure appears to be disproportionately high.

I suggest that you hold 300 shares for recovery and invest the balance in stronger growth issues, such as Corn Products; Sears, Roebuck; Texas Utilities; Proctor & Gamble.

Q) "I have just had some money given to me on my twenty-first birthday. With it I bought Martin Marietta at 20⅝. It was my intention to let this investment ride until I married and had children to look after, with a view to their later education. Did I buy a good stock?" J.B.

A) You did buy a good stock, but one that I do not regard as suitable for your objective.

Martin Marietta is one of the major companies in the weapons industry and is heavy in building materials, particularly cement. Neither of its major operations is conducive to growth, which is really what you are looking for.

Your shares yield a well-protected 5 per cent, but at your age I would forego good income and aim at expansion in earnings, dividends and price in the years ahead.

I suggest that you switch your Martin Marietta into Pacific Gas & Electric.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

RFK Undecided As Running Mate

TOKYO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today he has not decided whether he would accept the vice presidential nomination if it were offered.

Replying to a newsman, he said that he had considered his future for six weeks following the death of his brother, the late President John F. Kennedy, and had "decided basically that I didn't decide."

"At the moment, I plan to be the attorney general," he said.

Asked whether he had urged astronaut John Glenn to run for the U.S. Senate in Ohio, Kennedy said he had had "a number of conversations with John Glenn over his future." He declined to comment further.

Pressed to say whether he believed Glenn would be a good senator, Kennedy replied with a smile that Glenn would do an excellent job in whatever field he chose.

Glenn resigned from the American space program Thursday, presumably to seek the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate in Ohio.

Nassau Dems Select GOPer as Carlino Foe

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Nassau County Democratic leaders Thursday night designated a Republican to run against Assembly Speaker Joseph F. Carlino, a Long Beach Republican, in November's election.

The Democratic nominee is Jerome McDougal, a Freeport businessman and an enrolled Republican.

But he is anti-Carlino, and the Democrats hoped he would attract support from any dissident Republicans.

McDougal, who has never been active in Republican party affairs, said:

"I think it is time for Republicans and Democrats to speak out as one voice against his (Carlino's) arbitrary, stifling rule."

Lending Her House For Shower

Q: My daughter is going to be married soon and two of her girl friends would like to give a shower for her. However, both these girls live in small apartments and cannot accommodate the number of guests they would like to invite. My house is quite large and could easily accommodate all of the guests. Would it be proper to let them have her shower here, or might this in any way suggest I am giving the party, which I certainly don't want anyone to think.

A: So long as the invitations are sent out in their names, it is definitely their party and there is no objection to their giving it at your house.

Q: When a boy and girl are walking on the street together, is it wrong for her to take his arm? All of my friends do this but my mother says it is not proper and has instructed me not to do so. I would like your opinion on this.

A: When necessary, such as when walking on an icy street, it is entirely proper for a boy to offer his arm and for her to take it. Otherwise, when his assistance is unnecessary, she should walk beside him unaided.

Straight, Fitted Lines Are Shown In Italian Show

By LOUISE HICKMAN
AP Fashion Writer

ROME (AP) — Straight and fitted is the way Italian designer Baratta sees fashion for spring.

His collection, shown today in the Italian presentations for spring and summer, was so simple that only superb cut marked it as high fashion.

The Baratta silhouette was constructed along slim reefer lines. The waistline was smoothly defined. Skirts and sleeves were straight and narrow.

Set-in belts or transverse midriff and hip seaming were the only special details for coats that were the most important part of this very tailored collection.

High waists were often suggested by front-rising seams, and underscored by arched leather belts.

Gabardine and soft, unlined meltons were the important fabrics.

We the Women

BY RUTH MILLETT

In an all-out attempt to get rid of the accelerated social pace at the junior high school level once and for all, one school district has done away with the junior high school and divided its education system into a five year elementary school, a three year intermediate school, and a four year high school.

Just to make sure that the intermediate school isn't a carbon copy of high school, the way so many junior highs are, a strict set of rules has been laid down.

In intermediate school there will be no pep squads, no cheer leaders, no school-sponsored functions at night, no dances, no crowning of queens or election of class favorites. An honors day with awards for academic excellence will replace football banquets and sweetheart elections.

In fact, there won't be just one football team to represent an intermediate school, but teams will be expanded so that everybody who wants to can play, thereby removing the temptation to make football heroes of intermediate-age boys.

There are other rules, but these are the important ones. They should be enough to give other school districts the idea that parents and school officials don't have to sit around shaking their heads over the hectic pace that today's youngsters are pushed into when they move from elementary school to junior high in the seventh grade.

Junior highs — even the name junior high can go if necessary — and a more sensible division of students can be made, with sensible rules of what is and what isn't suitable for children of "intermediate" age.

The very name "intermediate school" seems better suited to children who are between elementary school and high school than the name "junior high," which seems to make children feel that junior high ought to be as much like high school as possible.

What about those mysterious teeners? Read Ruth Millett's "Tips on Teen-Agers." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Begins Internship In Brooklyn, N. Y.

On January 1, 1964 Sr. Mary Pia, FMSI from Vista Maria, Cragsmoor, N. Y. began her internship at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y. where she is at present the only Sister on the staff. For Sr. Mary Pia it was a return trip for before her entrance into the religious life she had held an assistant residency and research fellowship at the Kings County Hospital Center and State University of N. Y. Donnelate Center from 1956 to 1959. Now, as a Sister, she is returning to continue her medical training in preperation for future work overseas in mission areas.

Born in Manila, Philippine Islands, Sister was one of the eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Tria Tirona. She attended the Centro Escolar University in Manila and later received her M.D. degree from the University of Santo Tomas in 1954. She came to the U. S. shortly after and held an internship at Prospect Heights Hospital from 1955-56 when she received her fellowship to Kings County Hospital where she worked in the Department of Chest Medicine from 1956-59.

Sister Mary Pia entered the convent of the Daughters of Mary, Health of the Sick at Vista Maria, Cragsmoor, N. Y. on September 15, 1959. During her training period there she taught in the catechetical schools of religion both at St. Mary-St. Andrews parish in Ellenville, N. Y. and at Infant Savior Parish in Pine Bush, N. Y. During the past winter Sister also spent a short period observing the medical laboratory at the Ellenville Veterans Memorial Hospital before leaving for her new assignment at Kings County Medical Center.

We the Women

BY RUTH MILLETT

In an all-out attempt to get rid of the accelerated social pace at the junior high school level once and for all, one school district has done away with the junior high school and divided its education system into a five year elementary school, a three year intermediate school, and a four year high school.

Just to make sure that the intermediate school isn't a carbon copy of high school, the way so many junior highs are, a strict set of rules has been laid down.

In intermediate school there will be no pep squads, no cheer leaders, no school-sponsored functions at night, no dances, no crowning of queens or election of class favorites. An honors day with awards for academic excellence will replace football banquets and sweetheart elections.

In fact, there won't be just one football team to represent an intermediate school, but teams will be expanded so that everybody who wants to can play, thereby removing the temptation to make football heroes of intermediate-age boys.

There are other rules, but these are the important ones. They should be enough to give other school districts the idea that parents and school officials don't have to sit around shaking their heads over the hectic pace that today's youngsters are pushed into when they move from elementary school to junior high in the seventh grade.

Junior highs — even the name junior high can go if necessary — and a more sensible division of students can be made, with sensible rules of what is and what isn't suitable for children of "intermediate" age.

The very name "intermediate school" seems better suited to children who are between elementary school and high school than the name "junior high," which seems to make children feel that junior high ought to be as much like high school as possible.

What about those mysterious teeners? Read Ruth Millett's "Tips on Teen-Agers." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Musical Society of Kingston

The Musical Society of Kingston met on January 8 at the home of Mrs. Amos Newcombe.

Guest of the evening was Mrs. Margaret Branigan, assistant to Leonard Stine, director of music for the Kingston City School System.

A supervisor of the elementary and junior high vocal music program, Mrs. Branigan discussed the topic, "Guiding the Musical Experiences of Children in the Elementary Grades."

With members of the musical society participating, Mrs. Branigan conducted a workshop to illustrate teaching techniques and methods used in the primary, intermediate and upper grades of our local school system.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Deweese DeWitt and Mrs. Lloyd LeFever.

Christian Endeavor Societies

The Christian Endeavor Societies of Ulster County are planning a Christian Endeavor birthday banquet Feb. 1 at the Church of the Comforter, Wynkoop Place, at 6 p. m.

The speaker will be Arch McQuilkin, president of International Christian Endeavor.

Club Notices

Golden Age Club

Engagement Told To Walter J. Mantone

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christian of Napanoch announce the engagement of their daughter Candice, to Walter James Mantone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mantone of Ellenville.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Begins Internship In Brooklyn, N. Y.

On January 1, 1964 Sr. Mary Pia, FMSI from Vista Maria, Cragsmoor, N. Y. began her internship at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, N. Y. where she is at present the only Sister on the staff. For Sr. Mary Pia it was a return trip for before her entrance into the religious life she had held an assistant residency and research fellowship at the Kings County Hospital Center and State University of N. Y. Donnelate Center from 1956 to 1959. Now, as a Sister, she is returning to continue her medical training in preperation for future work overseas in mission areas.

Born in Manila, Philippine Islands, Sister was one of the eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Tria Tirona. She attended the Centro Escolar University in Manila and later received her M.D. degree from the University of Santo Tomas in 1954. She came to the U. S. shortly after and held an internship at Prospect Heights Hospital from 1955-56 when she received her fellowship to Kings County Hospital where she worked in the Department of Chest Medicine from 1956-59.

Sister Mary Pia entered the convent of the Daughters of Mary, Health of the Sick at Vista Maria, Cragsmoor, N. Y. on September 15, 1959. During her training period there she taught in the catechetical schools of religion both at St. Mary-St. Andrews parish in Ellenville, N. Y. and at Infant Savior Parish in Pine Bush, N. Y. During the past winter Sister also spent a short period observing the medical laboratory at the Ellenville Veterans Memorial Hospital before leaving for her new assignment at Kings County Medical Center.

Honor Mrs. Graf On 80th Birthday In NYC Luncheon

More than 80 friends and relatives of Mrs. Eda Mahler Graf of 16 Birch Lane, Woodstock, will join in a luncheon honoring her 80th birthday on Saturday at the Brass Rail, 40th Street and Park Avenue in New York City.

The group will include outstanding persons from all walks of life, including high names in music, business and the theatre.

Mrs. Graf, a permanent resident of Woodstock since 1949, has had an illustrious career, both in the theatre and socially as the wife of the late Felix Graf, who was director of the Vacuum Oil Company of all Europe for many years. Mr. Graf died on Feb. 6, 1960, at the age of 85.

Her friends and acquaintances in the theatre, music, literature, film, arts and other creative fields are legion. Mrs. Graf and her husband retired to Woodstock in 1949 when they built the present home on Birch Lane. Mrs. Graf had been a regular summer visitor to Woodstock since 1932. She recalls first hearing about the cultural atmosphere of Woodstock from the late Cecil Chichester, whom she met on a European voyage that year.

Born in Bohemia

Born in Bohemia, she first came to the United States in 1904. She married Graf in 1909 in Vienna. She was on the stage and in vaudeville for about eight years, shuttling between New York and the continent. A highly talented singer and dancer, she sang in several languages and drew top billing in such European centers as Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Warsaw and Bucharest, in addition to her American appearances.

She appeared in "Smiling Island" and "The Belle of Avenue A," two plays produced by George Lederer, one of the giants of his period and also worked for Charles Dillingham, one of the most famous American producers.

Mrs. Graf is related to the famous composer-conductor Gustav Mahler. Herbert Graf, stage director of the Metropolitan Opera, as well as director of the Zurich Opera House in Switzerland, is her nephew. Hans Conreid, her uncle, was director of the Metropolitan Opera House in the early 1900s, when Caruso, Scotti, Melba and other Golden Age singers were at their prominence. She credits him with much assistance in her theatrical career, which began as a soubrette with the original Irving Place Repertory Theatre. She toured the United States and all Europe in 1906 and was known as the "American Eccentrique."

Designed Own Home

The Grafs lived in Larchmont for several years after 1925. She recalls that area newspapers referred to her estate as a second Ellis Island. It was the rendezvous for many famous persons of European origin. The practice continued in Woodstock.

Mrs. Graf proudly points out that she personally designed the home on Birch Lane. And many of their artist and musical friends helped in the building.

Among her illustrious friends, Eugene Ormandy, famous musical director of the Philadelphia Orchestra, wrote that "nothing would have given me more pleasure than to attend the luncheon in honor of his dear friend, Eda Graf." Unfortunately, because of commitments he cannot attend.

Seated in the spacious living room of the Birch Lane, Mrs. Graf reminisced at length about a long and rewarding career.

"I have always been happy here in Woodstock," she said. "I have always loved Woodstock and its artistic atmosphere."

Activities Scheduled

A regular meeting of the Onteora Board of Education will be held Monday, Jan. 20, at 8 p. m. at the central building in Boiceville. The public is invited to attend.

Among the items on the agenda will be a presentation of final plans and figures for the proposed secondary construction bond issue this spring.

Reformed Church News and Notes

The Rev. Donald Edgar Hicks, minister, will preach on the sermon subject: "Christian Nonconformity" at the 11 a. m. Public Worship of God at the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church on the Village Green Sunday, Jan. 19. Mrs. Richard Braen is organist and choir director. A nursery is provided for the care of small children.

Sunday Church School, Douglas Cammann, superintendent, is at 9:30 a. m., with classes for all ages. Pre-schools will be in the annex on Old Forge Lane; school age through high school in the church sanctuary.

Adult Bible class meets at 9:30 a. m. with Mrs. Teddy Artinian in the Upper Room above the Narthex.

Junior Christian Endeavor is scheduled Sunday at 4:30 p. m.; Senior C.E. at 7:30 p. m.

Church calendar for the week:

Monday, Boy Scouts, 7 p. m.; Tuesday—Guild Prayer Group at Simpkins' at 11 a. m.; Prayer Retreat for all women at the Mt. Marion Church (Plattekill Reformed) from 10 to 2. Bring a sandwich. Beverage and dessert is provided. Guild executive meeting, 8 p. m.; Classis of Ulster at High Falls Reformed Church at 7:30 p. m.

Wednesday—Brownies at 1:30 p. m. ; Church bowling league at Woodstock Lanes, 6:45 p. m.

Thursday — Church choir rehearsal at 8 p. m.

Telemachus Hit Play for Simon

Cyril Simon, who served as director at the Woodstock Playhouse during the three-year regime of Abe Sainer, has apparently made it big for the first time on Broadway. More specifically, off Broadway.

Simon was given a rousing sendoff by the theatre critic of Time Magazine in its Jan. 3 issue for his superb direction of the hit play, Telemachus Clay, which is playing off Broadway.

Time acclaimed Telemachus Clay as one of the best off-Broadway productions of the season. It said the play had "brilliantly evocative staging, electrically charged by Cyril Simon's direction. Describing the setting of the unusual play, the article adds: "eleven actors sit facing the audience as the ingenious lighting plays over them to orchestrate speeches and scenes like music . . ."

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

I want, at this time, to thank all my readers, for the nice cards they sent with season's greetings, and also birthday cards. I especially enjoyed a "thank you" card from Esther Riseley from Shandaken, which she enclosed with a birthday card. She thanked me for writing news of old times in this column.

I was looking through a copy of "The Presidents of the United States" published back in 1900. There is a fine steel engraving of Abe Lincoln. They go back to his earliest ancestor in America, Samuel Lincoln, of Norwich, England, who settled in Hingham, Mass. where he died, leaving a son, Mordecai, whose son by the same name moved to Monmouth, N. J. then to Berks County, Pa. dying there in 1735. It so happens that he was a man of some property, which was divided among his sons and daughters. One, John Lincoln, sold his land in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and set himself up in Rockingham County, Va. He also was a man of means, and after his death his estate was divided among five sons, one of whom was Abraham, and he went to Kentucky about 1780.

At this time, Daniel Boone was engaged in the exploits of the new Kentucky. The families of Boone and Lincoln seemed to have crossed somehow. Several marriages had taken place between them, and their names occur in each other's wills as friends and executors. The pioneer Lincoln, who took sufficient provision and money, from the sale of his Virginia property, was killed around 1784, by Indians while working with his three sons, Mordecai, Josiah and Thomas, while clearing a forest. His widow moved to Washington County. The two sons became well to do citizens and two daughters married well.

The youngest son, Thomas, who seemed below the average of his family learned to be a carpenter, and married, June 12, 1806, Nancy Hanks, a niece of the man with whom he had learned his trade. It is written, that she was a pretty young miss of 23 and clever. Three children were born to them, the second being Abraham Lincoln. Things did not go so well, the third child a boy died while young, the girl, married and died, leaving no children. Thomas's wife, died in 1818 at the age of 35.

We are often told about Lincoln living in a log cabin, but I have never heard about his ancestors, they were wise and lucky, so it seems, but his father just did not have their wisdom or luck, except perhaps in marrying an intelligent widow, Sarah Bush Johnston, to bring up his motherless family.

Abe Lincoln told about his youth in the wild country. "The neighborhood was one of the roughest. It was a wild region, with many bears and other wild animals still in the woods. There were some schools, but little qualification was required of the teacher beyond, reading, writing and ciphering to the rule of three. If a straggler, supposed to understand Latin, happened to drop in on the neighborhood, he was looked upon as a wizard. There was absolutely nothing to excite ambition for education." Just the same Lincoln learned what he could. All the school children know, how Abe Lincoln liked to read, and according to this book, early in life he began to write his recollections of what he read and what impressions it made on him. In this fashion he acquired a good vocabulary and fair handwriting, at the age of 19, so that he was able to go on to more advanced study.

Honor Mrs. Graf On 80th Birthday In NYC Luncheon

More than 80 friends and relatives of Mrs. Eda Mahler Graf of 16 Birch Lane, Woodstock, will join in a luncheon honoring her 80th birthday on Saturday at the Brass Rail, 40th Street and Park Avenue in New York City.

The group will include outstanding persons from all walks of life, including high names in music, business and the theatre.

Mrs. Graf, a permanent resident of Woodstock since 1949, has had an illustrious career, both in the theatre and socially as the wife of the late Felix Graf, who was director of the Vacuum Oil Company of all Europe for many years. Mr. Graf died on Feb. 6, 1960, at the age of 85.

Her friends and acquaintances in the theatre, music, literature, film, arts and other creative fields are legion. Mrs. Graf and her husband retired to Woodstock in 1949 when they built the present home on Birch Lane. Mrs. Graf had been a regular summer visitor to Woodstock since 1932. She recalls first hearing about the cultural atmosphere of Woodstock from the late Cecil Chichester, whom she met on a European voyage that year.

Born in Bohemia

Born in Bohemia, she first came to the United States in 1904. She married Graf in 1909 in Vienna. She was on the stage and in vaudeville for about eight years, shuttling between New York and the continent. A highly talented singer and dancer, she sang in several languages and drew top billing in such European centers as Prague, Vienna, Budapest, Warsaw and Bucharest, in addition to her American appearances.

She appeared in "Smiling Island" and "The Belle of Avenue A," two plays produced by George Lederer, one of the giants of his period and also worked for Charles Dillingham, one of the most famous American producers.

Mrs. Graf is related to the famous composer-conductor Gustav Mahler. Herbert Graf, stage director of the Metropolitan Opera, as well as director of the Zurich Opera House in Switzerland, is her nephew. Hans Conreid, her uncle, was director of the Metropolitan Opera House in the early 1900s, when Caruso, Scotti, Melba and other Golden Age singers were at their prominence. She credits him with much assistance in her theatrical career, which began as a soubrette with the original Irving Place Repertory Theatre. She toured the United States and all Europe in 1906 and was known as the "American Eccentrique."

Designed Own Home

The Grafs lived in Larchmont for several years after 1925. She recalls that area newspapers referred to her estate as a second Ellis Island. It was the rendezvous for many famous persons of European origin. The practice continued in Woodstock.

Mrs. Graf proudly points out that she personally designed the home on Birch Lane. And many of their artist and musical friends helped in the building.

Among her illustrious friends, Eugene Ormandy, famous musical director of the Philadelphia Orchestra, wrote that "nothing would have given me more pleasure than to attend the luncheon in honor of his dear friend, Eda Graf." Unfortunately, because of commitments he cannot attend.

Seated in the spacious living room of the Birch Lane, Mrs. Graf reminisced at length about a long and rewarding career.

"I have always been happy here in Woodstock," she said. "I have always loved Woodstock and its artistic atmosphere."

Activities Scheduled

A regular meeting of the Onteora Board of Education will be held Monday, Jan. 20, at 8 p. m. at the central building in Boiceville. The public is invited to attend.

Among the items on the agenda will be a presentation of final plans and figures for the proposed secondary construction bond issue this spring.

Reformed Church News and Notes

The Rev. Donald Edgar Hicks, minister, will preach on the sermon subject: "Christian Nonconformity" at the 11 a. m. Public Worship of God at the Woodstock Dutch Reformed Church on the Village Green Sunday, Jan. 19. Mrs. Richard Braen is organist and choir director. A nursery is provided for the care of small children.

Sunday Church School, Douglas Cammann, superintendent, is at 9:30 a. m., with classes for all ages. Pre-schools will be in the annex on Old Forge Lane; school age through high school in the church sanctuary.

Adult Bible class meets at 9:30 a. m. with Mrs. Teddy Artinian in the Upper Room above the Narthex.

Junior Christian Endeavor is scheduled Sunday at 4:30 p. m.; Senior C.E. at 7:30 p. m.

Church calendar for the week:

Monday, Boy Scouts, 7 p. m.; Tuesday—Guild Prayer Group at Simpkins' at 11 a. m.; Prayer Retreat for all women at the Mt. Marion Church (Plattekill Reformed) from 10 to 2. Bring a sandwich. Beverage and dessert is provided. Guild executive meeting, 8 p. m.; Classis of Ulster at High Falls Reformed Church at 7:30 p. m.

Wednesday—Brownies at 1:30 p. m.; Church bowling league at Woodstock Lanes, 6:45 p. m.

Thursday — Church choir rehearsal at 8 p. m.

Telemachus Hit Play for Simon

Cyril Simon, who served as director at the Woodstock Playhouse during the three-year regime of Abe Sainer, has apparently made it big for the first time on Broadway. More specifically, off Broadway.

Simon was given a rousing sendoff by the theatre critic of Time Magazine in its Jan. 3 issue for his superb direction of the hit play, Telemachus Clay, which is playing off Broadway.

Time acclaimed Telemachus Clay as one of the best off-Broadway productions of the season. It said the play had "brilliantly evocative staging, electrically charged by Cyril Simon's direction. Describing the setting of the unusual play, the article adds: "eleven actors sit facing the audience as the ingenious lighting plays over them to orchestrate speeches and scenes like music . . ."

Camera Club to Meet

Members of the Kingston Camera Club will meet at Artcraft Galleries on Wednesday, Jan. 22 at 7:30 p. m. Fred J. Sass of Red Hook, a former New York Times photographer, will be the guest speaker. All members are requested to bring two prints that will be evaluated by the speaker.

Cortland Powerhouse Routs New Paltz State, 107 to 83

League Leaders Score 11th Win In Conference

Fred Sadler Hits 39 To Tie Cortland Ace

Cortland State's basketball powerhouse crushed State University of New Paltz, 108-83, in a State University Basketball Conference contest that attracted an SRO crowd to the Ulster county gym last night.

The victory was Cortland's 11th in 12 conference starts and left them in firm possession of first place with a 11-1 record. The only loss was to Ithaca in overtime. The Hawks now have two wins and six defeats.

Not even a 39-point barrage by Fred Sadler could save Coach Doug Sheppard's Hawks. It was matched by Cortland's David Bleau, a 6-1 senior from Mohawk. The sharpshooting upstaters netted 56 per cent of their shots from the floor, going 42 for 77, with Bleau hitting 17 for 28.

Take Early Lead

Sadler's performance gave the Hawk rooters something to cheer about after Cortland moved into a commanding lead. The New Paltz ace added 13 free throws to 13 baskets and accumulated 28 points in the second half.

Cortland led 47-35 at the half, with Bleau furnishing 20 points. John Allen, a 6-4 New York City soph, hit 24 for New Paltz, while Pat Swanson (20) and Jim Mooney (19) fattened the Cortland total.

The victory had revenge overtones for Cortland which was upset by New Paltz last spring in the first round of the state conference tournament. Cortland was seeded first. It was interesting to note the Mid-Hudson area flavor of the Cortland triumph. The roster included no less than: Jessup, Monroe-Woodbury; Konopski, Hudson High; Mooney, Wallkill and Lattimer, Goshen Central.

Two Fast Baskets

Two fast baskets by Sadler primed early New Paltz hopes for an upset. Then Svanson scored twice and Bleau hit from the corner to send Cortland ahead, 7-4. John O'Donnell, West Babylon frosh, hit twice in succession for New Paltz for an 8-7 lead. Cortland rallied on a jumper by Mooney, Bleau's long set and two Svanson fouls for a 13-8 lead with 15 minutes remaining in the first half. The visitors were in tront the rest of the way.

New Paltz will host Buffalo State U. Saturday at 3:45 p. m.

Biddy Basketball Tryouts Set Sunday at Auditorium

Tryouts for the Recreation Department Biddy Basketball League will start Sunday at 7 p. m. at the municipal auditorium.

All boys interested in playing — whether they be new candidates or have played on Biddy teams previously — are requested to be present to sign up and participate in the course of instruction which will precede the trouts.

Biddy League is comparable to Little League Baseball in that it embraces boys in the 8-12 year age group. Any boy who has not reached his 8th birthday prior to Nov. 15, 1963, or has become 13 after Nov. 15, 1963, is eligible to participate.

All coaches and managers are requested to attend so that they will have an opportunity to look over the new candidates.

Teams will be coached by Bing Van Etten, Buddy Harder, Ray Lindhorst and Aaron Bahl.

The league is conducted entirely by the Recreation department as one of its winter functions. In the past it has been the policy to operate four teams but should the demand be sufficient more teams will be formed. No boys will be turned away.

Two Teams in Billiard Lead

Fondino and Grimaldi Masonry and Carpino's Insurance scored six point sweeps in the second round of the Buster Ferraro Billiard Classic and are tied for the league lead with 12 points each.

In this week's action, Charlie Sangaline of F&G defeated Chick Carpino, 100-63, while his teammate, Chris Rienzo toppled Tom Howard, 100-91.

Costello Runs 40

Bill Costello of J&G Drywall defeated George Ticefelt, 100-52, and recorded the highest run (40) for the second straight week. Bob East of Shapiro Paints trimmed Jim Davide, 100-39.

The Wiedy Furniture vs. Berardi Construction match was postponed.

Holly pocketed a high run of 23 and Sangaline had a string of 18.

Other point results were: Shapiro Paints (Bob East, George Ticefelt), 4.2 points; J&G Drywall (Bill Costello, Jim Davide), 3.39 points; Garraghan Oil (Tom Howard, Chick Carpino), 3.4 points; Modjeska Sign Studios (Tony Gentile, Harold Quick), 2.13 points.

Tournament matches are played every Wednesday at 6:45 p. m. at the Golden Cue.

Kroll Winner In PGA Match

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two rounds today are whittling the PGA national match play tournament field to eight contenders for final stages.

A bulky field of 64 inaugurated match play Thursday in the tourney, first to be held on the new par 72 PGA course of 6,600 yards.

Medalist James Guinnup won his opening match in hair-raising fashion, taking the last three holes with two birdies and a par after being 2-down through 15 holes.

Winners of opening matches were paired in order for today's first round.

Chuck Johnson, Port St. Lucie, Fla., defeated Jack Lumpkin, Rochester, N.Y., 1-up in 20 holes.

Sam P. Penecale, Philadelphia, defeated Robert Tuthill, Grossinger, N.Y., 2 and 1.

Roland Stafford, Olean, N.Y., defeated Hubby Habjan, Lake Forest, Ill., 6 and 5.

Ed Kroll, Cooperstown, N.Y., defeated Stan Mosel, Essex Falls, N.J., 1-up.

Kenneth Yount, Niagara Falls, N..Y, defeated Frank Cardi, Cedarhurst, N.Y., 1-up in 20 holes.

Bob Klink, Johnson City, N. Y., defeated Mike Krak, Oceanside, N.Y., 1-up.

Stay Put, Moguls Warn Finley

But A's Owner Vows a Battle To Move Team

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles O. Finley has been ordered by the American League to remain in Kansas City but the embattled owner of the Athletics baseball club vowed today to continue his fight to move the club despite a threat of expulsion.

The American League, by a vote of 9 to 1 Thursday night, turned down Finley's request to move the club to Louisville and, by the same vote, ordered him to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1 or forfeit the franchise.

"No one can and no one will take my ball club away from me," the fiery Finley roared defiantly. "I am not accepting the league's decision without a fight.

"I don't think they have the right to force me to stay in a city where I have been continuously losing money. I will go to court to find out if the American League legally has the power to restrain me from moving my ball club to Louisville or any other place."

In an informal press conference conducted minutes after he had stalked out of the nine-hour-long league meetings, Finley declared he intended to get an injunction, if possible, enabling him to go to Louisville. The embattled baseball executive had signed a contract, subject to league approval, to play in Louisville in 1964 and 1965.

In Governor's Suite

Finley conducted the conference while perched on the top of a bureau in the suite of Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, who headed a Louisville delegation supporting Finley.

"If it is legally possible to get an injunction whereby I can go to Louisville, you can rest assured I will do that," he said. "If I can't, I will go back to Kansas City and sign a lease for only as long as I have to—no more than one year."

Later in the conference, he amended this defiant attitude.

"The more I think of it, the more I believe I may sign a longer term lease with Kansas City," he said. "What difference if the lease is for one year or five or even ten if it's subject to the court's decision? If the court rules in my favor, I can get out. If it rules against me, I'll stay stuck in Kansas City and like it."

Cronin Announcement

The announcement of the American League's drastic and unprecedented action was made by President Joe Cronin. After telling of the league's action ordering Finley to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1, Cronin read the resolution, which said in part:

"x x x Failing to that, a special meeting of the members of the league shall be called by the president as soon as convenient thereafter to consider and act upon the termination of the membership and-or expulsion from membership of Charles O. Finley and Co., Inc."

Cronin did not explain just how the league would expel Finley nor did he say whether the league would operate the club, seek another buyer or play out the 1964 schedule with nine teams.

However, Thomas Keane, Finley's attorney, said he had read Section Four of the league constitution and it was his impression that the league could dispose of Finley as an "undesirable" if he did not meet the league requirements.

League Could Operate

Finley said he had been advised by Cronin that the league could take the club away from him and operate it until a buyer would be obtained. In the meantime the league would give Finley whatever profits might be made or would charge Finley with whatever losses might accure.

Upon completion of the sale, the money would, of course, belong to Finley.

Finley's acknowledgment that he would operate the Athletics in Kansas City, however reluctantly, pending court action, seemed to preclude any possibility of such extreme measures.

Finley said he had no idea whether the league's action would worsen his position in future negotiations with the City Council of Kansas City. A member of the City Council said, however, the committee would not seek to take advantage but instead would lean over backward to offer Finley an equitable lease arrangement. He did not say what the offer would be.

Negotiations up to now have been a series of complex wrangles concerning the new lease. The old one expired last Dec. 31.

The main point of dissagreement between Finley and the City Council is Finley's insistence that he pay no rent if attendance in any one year falls below 900,000.

How Big Can a Big Man Get?

BY CHARLES J. TIANO
(Freeman Sports Editor)

Is it possible for a high school athletic director to put himself above a newspaper, a school and a community all at the same time?

The answer is yes if the parties concerned, singly or collectively, are willing to surrender their prerogatives to such a man.

Does a high school athletic director have the right to withhold legitimate information from the press, simply because he dislikes the local sports editor? And by legitimate information we mean the results of athletic contests.

We don't think so, but one of the Hudson valley's best known coaches is doing a pretty good job of getting away with it. We do not respect any of the parties involved for their abject surrender to Mr. Big and we think it's high time they did something about it.

He Has Been Around

On the one hand the coach has many things going for him — bulging trophy cases and statistical achievements that other coaches never remotely approach in a liftime. For pure objectivity, however we should point out that he's been around for a while.

He has led many youngsters to glorious athletic victories and deeds of derring-do. He has also led many of these same kids off football fields and basball diamonds in protest against officials' decisions.

..There is no faulting the coaching genius of the man. On the other hand, while his material is invariably among the best in the area he is a perennial moaner when the scribes announce their pre-season ratings.

He has beaten his colleagues down to their knees in the privacy of their ivory tower and has shamed them on other occasions by forcing them to agree to an out-of-district refree for a basketball championship playoff. True to the code, none of the coaches would permit himself to be quoted on that disenchanting episode but we know what some of the Mid-Hudson approved officials had to say about it. But, unfortunately, we cannot quote them here.

An Anachronism

In deference to his age and record, these colleagues who are cast in the modern mold eschew head-on combat with him. He is an anachronism of the times, a man apart from the mainstream of modern athletics.

His vendetta with sportswriters precedes his current difficulties with the hometown scribe. On one occasion he disqualified as official scorekeeper a scribe who had incurred his displeasure some years earlier. He went a step further and had the same scribe disqualified as a baseball umpire in games involving his team.

Having chronicled his brilliant record down through the years, we never sought conflict with the man and rarely was it thrust upon us by circumstances. Aware of the frailties of all men, we overlooked his faults and glorified his successes. He had a wholesome adherence to the fundamental philosophy of sport we admired. And we were willing to shut our eyes to the irritants that blurred the image. When his vendetta with the press became interminable, however, we finally parted company.

His trophy case, as we said before, bulges with the mementoes of high achievement. We feel, however, he might better trade some of the crockery and statistics for some good will and friendship. We'd like to see him truly honored in his lifetime. He's getting along in years and maybe its's too late. But he still has time to give it a try.

Cortland Powerhouse Routs New Paltz State, 107 to 83

League Leaders Score 11th Win In Conference

Fred Sadler Hits 39 To Tie Cortland Ace

Cortland State's basketball powerhouse crushed State University of New Paltz, 108-83, in a State University Basketball Conference contest that attracted an SRO crowd to the Ulster county gym last night.

The victory was Cortland's 11th in 12 conference starts and left them in firm possession of first place with a 11-1 record. The only loss was to Ithaca in overtime. The Hawks now have two wins and six defeats.

Not even a 39-point barrage by Fred Sadler could save Coach Doug Sheppard's Hawks. It was matched by Cortland's David Bleau, a 6-1 senior from Mohawk. The sharpshooting upstaters netted 56 per cent of their shots from the floor, going 42 for 77, with Bleau hitting 17 for 28.

Take Early Lead

Sadler's performance gave the Hawk rooters something to cheer about after Cortland moved into a commanding lead. The New Paltz ace added 13 free throws to 13 baskets and accumulated 28 points in the second half.

Cortland led 47-35 at the half, with Bleau furnishing 20 points. John Allen, a 6-4 New York City soph, hit 24 for New Paltz, while Pat Swanson (20) and Jim Mooney (19) fattened the Cortland total.

The victory had revenge overtones for Cortland which was upset by New Paltz last spring in the first round of the state conference tournament. Cortland was seeded first. It was interesting to note the Mid-Hudson area flavor of the Cortland triumph. The roster included no less than: Jessup, Monroe-Woodbury; Konopski, Hudson High; Mooney, Wallkill and Lattimer, Goshen Central.

Two Fast Baskets

Two fast baskets by Sadler primed early New Paltz hopes for an upset. Then Svanson scored twice and Bleau hit from the corner to send Cortland ahead, 7-4. John O'Donnell, West Babylon frosh, hit twice in succession for New Paltz for an 8-7 lead. Cortland rallied on a jumper by Mooney, Bleau's long set and two Svanson fouls for a 13-8 lead with 15 minutes remaining in the first half. The visitors were in tront the rest of the way.

New Paltz will host Buffalo State U. Saturday at 3:45 p. m.

Biddy Basketball Tryouts Set Sunday at Auditorium

Tryouts for the Recreation Department Biddy Basketball League will start Sunday at 7 p. m. at the municipal auditorium.

All boys interested in playing — whether they be new candidates or have played on Biddy teams previously — are requested to be present to sign up and participate in the course of instruction which will precede the trouts.

Biddy League is comparable to Little League Baseball in that it embraces boys in the 8-12 year age group. Any boy who has not reached his 8th birthday prior to Nov. 15, 1963, or has become 13 after Nov. 15, 1963, is eligible to participate.

All coaches and managers are requested to attend so that they will have an opportunity to look over the new candidates.

Teams will be coached by Bing Van Etten, Buddy Harder, Ray Lindhorst and Aaron Bahl.

The league is conducted entirely by the Recreation department as one of its winter functions. In the past it has been the policy to operate four teams but should the demand be sufficient more teams will be formed. No boys will be turned away.

Two Teams in Billiard Lead

Fondino and Grimaldi Masonry and Carpino's Insurance scored six point sweeps in the second round of the Buster Ferraro Billiard Classic and are tied for the league lead with 12 points each.

In this week's action, Charlie Sangaline of F&G defeated Chick Carpino, 100-63, while his teammate, Chris Rienzo toppled Tom Howard, 100-91.

Costello Runs 40

Bill Costello of J&G Drywall defeated George Ticefelt, 100-52, and recorded the highest run (40) for the second straight week. Bob East of Shapiro Paints trimmed Jim Davide, 100-39.

The Wiedy Furniture vs. Berardi Construction match was postponed.

Holly pocketed a high run of 23 and Sangaline had a string of 18.

Other point results were: Shapiro Paints (Bob East, George Ticefelt), 4.2 points; J&G Drywall (Bill Costello, Jim Davide), 3.39 points; Garraghan Oil (Tom Howard, Chick Carpino), 3.4 points; Modjeska Sign Studios (Tony Gentile, Harold Quick), 2.13 points.

Kroll Winner In PGA Match

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two rounds today are whittling the PGA national match play tournament field to eight contenders for final stages.

A bulky field of 64 inaugurated match play Thursday in the tourney, first to be held on the new par 72 PGA course of 6,600 yards.

Medalist James Guinnup won his opening match in hair-raising fashion, taking the last three holes with two birdies and a par after being 2-down through 15 holes.

Winners of opening matches were paired in order for today's first round.

Chuck Johnson, Port St. Lucie, Fla., defeated Jack Lumpkin, Rochester, N.Y., 1-up in 20 holes.

Sam P. Penecale, Philadelphia, defeated Robert Tuthill, Grossinger, N.Y., 2 and 1.

Roland Stafford, Olean, N.Y., defeated Hubby Habjan, Lake Forest, Ill., 6 and 5.

But A's Owner Vows a Battle To Move Team

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Charles O. Finley has been ordered by the American League to remain in Kansas City but the embattled owner of the Athletics baseball club vowed today to continue his fight to move the club despite a threat of expulsion.

The American League, by a vote of 9 to 1 Thursday night, turned down Finley's request to move the club to Louisville and, by the same vote, ordered him to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1 or forfeit the franchise.

"No one can and no one will take my ball club away from me," the fiery Finley roared defiantly. "I am not accepting the league's decision without a fight.

"I don't think they have the right to force me to stay in a city where I have been continuously losing money. I will go to court to find out if the American League legally has the power to restrain me from moving my ball club to Louisville or any other place."

In an informal press conference conducted minutes after he had stalked out of the nine-hour-long league meetings, Finley declared he intended to get an injunction, if possible, enabling him to go to Louisville. The embattled baseball executive had signed a contract, subject to league approval, to play in Louisville in 1964 and 1965.

In Governor's Suite

Finley conducted the conference while perched on the top of a bureau in the suite of Kentucky Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, who headed a Louisville delegation supporting Finley.

"If it is legally possible to get an injunction whereby I can go to Louisville, you can rest assured I will do that," he said. "If I can't, I will go back to Kansas City and sign a lease for only as long as I have to—no more than one year."

Later in the conference, he amended this defiant attitude.

"The more I think of it, the more I believe I may sign a longer term lease with Kansas City," he said. "What difference if the lease is for one year or five or even ten if it's subject to the court's decision? If the court rules in my favor, I can get out. If it rules against me, I'll stay stuck in Kansas City and like it."

Cronin Announcement

The announcement of the American League's drastic and unprecedented action was made by President Joe Cronin. After telling of the league's action ordering Finley to sign a lease in Kansas City by Feb. 1, Cronin read the resolution, which said in part:

"x x x Failing to that, a special meeting of the members of the league shall be called by the president as soon as convenient thereafter to consider and act upon the termination of the membership and-or expulsion from membership of Charles O. Finley and Co., Inc."

Cronin did not explain just how the league would expel Finley nor did he say whether the league would operate the club, seek another buyer or play out the 1964 schedule with nine teams.

However, Thomas Keane, Finley's attorney, said he had read Section Four of the league constitution and it was his impression that the league could dispose of Finley as an "undesirable" if he did not meet the league requirements.

League Could Operate

Finley said he had been advised by Cronin that the league could take the club away from him and operate it until a buyer would be obtained. In the meantime the league would give Finley whatever profits might be made or would charge Finley with whatever losses might accure.

Upon completion of the sale, the money would, of course, belong to Finley.

Finley's acknowledgment that he would operate the Athletics in Kansas City, however reluctantly, pending court action, seemed to preclude any possibility of such extreme measures.

Finley said he had no idea whether the league's action would worsen his position in future negotiations with the City Council of Kansas City. A member of the City Council said, however, the committee would not seek to take advantage but instead would lean over backward to offer Finley an equitable lease arrangement. He did not say what the offer would be.

Negotiations up to now have been a series of complex wrangles concerning the new lease. The old one expired last Dec. 31.

The main point of dissagreement between Finley and the City Council is Finley's insistence that he pay no rent if attendance in any one year falls below 900,000.

How Big Can a Big Man Get?

BY CHARLES J. TIANO
(Freeman Sports Editor)

Is it possible for a high school athletic director to put himself above a newspaper, a school and a community all at the same time?

The answer is yes if the parties concerned, singly or collectively, are willing to surrender their prerogatives to such a man.

Does a high school athletic director have the right to withhold legitimate information from the press, simply because he dislikes the local sports editor? And by legitimate information we mean the results of athletic contests.

We don't think so, but one of the Hudson valley's best known coaches is doing a pretty good job of getting away with it. We do not respect any of the parties involved for their abject surrender to Mr. Big and we think it's high time they did something about it.

He Has Been Around

On the one hand the coach has many things going for him — bulging trophy cases and statistical achievements that other coaches never remotely approach in a liftime. For pure objectivity, however we should point out that he's been around for a while.

He has led many youngsters to glorious athletic victories and deeds of derring-do. He has also led many of these same kids off football fields and basball diamonds in protest against officials' decisions.

..There is no faulting the coaching genius of the man. On the other hand, while his material is invariably among the best in the area he is a perennial moaner when the scribes announce their pre-season ratings.

He has beaten his colleagues down to their knees in the privacy of their ivory tower and has shamed them on other occasions by forcing them to agree to an out-of-district refree for a basketball championship playoff. True to the code, none of the coaches would permit himself to be quoted on that disenchanting episode but we know what some of the Mid-Hudson approved officials had to say about it. But, unfortunately, we cannot quote them here.

An Anachronism

In deference to his age and record, these colleagues who are cast in the modern mold eschew head-on combat with him. He is an anachronism of the times, a man apart from the mainstream of modern athletics.

His vendetta with sportswriters precedes his current difficulties with the hometown scribe. On one occasion he disqualified as official scorekeeper a scribe who had incurred his displeasure some years earlier. He went a step further and had the same scribe disqualified as a baseball umpire in games involving his team.

Having chronicled his brilliant record down through the years, we never sought conflict with the man and rarely was it thrust upon us by circumstances. Aware of the frailties of all men, we overlooked his faults and glorified his successes. He had a wholesome adherence to the fundamental philosophy of sport we admired. And we were willing to shut our eyes to the irritants that blurred the image. When his vendetta with the press became interminable, however, we finally parted company.

His trophy case, as we said before, bulges with the mementoes of high achievement. We feel, however, he might better trade some of the crockery and statistics for some good will and friendship. We'd like to see him truly honored in his lifetime. He's getting along in years and maybe its's too late. But he still has time to give it a try.

Kaufman's 654 Paces Fein's 5 To New Records

Bill Kaufman bombed a 654 series to pace Fein's Liquor to a pair of Saugerties Merchants League records — 1023 and 2962. The other games were 947 and 992.

Kaufman, better known as a golfer, linked sets of 217, 225 and 212. On the same squad Bob Carnright added 227-567, Ernie Schirmer 210, 236-595, Dick Peetoom 208-544 and Don McCaig 202, 213--602.

Walt Erceg shot 533, John Dodig 203-574, Bill Terwilliger 551, Joe Maines 214-213-600, Ed Olsen 535, Everett Mower 544, Bob Reynolds 204-563, Louis Ferraro 210-561, Joe Brocco 200-541, Jack O'Rourke 530, Bob Carr 217-590, Doug Coons 223-551.

Team results:

Broskie's 687 Paces Big Win For Sprinklers

Led by Harold Broskie's 687 blast, third place Mid-Hudson Auto Sprinklers of Kingston defeated second place Dutchess Sanitation, 2-1, and now the teams are tied in the Mardi-Bob All Star Classic in Poughkeepsie.

Broskie's 230, 233, 224 string paced the Sprinklers to sets of 983, 1056 and 1060 for a 3099 aggregate. Mike Rienzo added 620, Len Sickler Jr. 611, Dick Howard 614 and Tom Carlino 567.

Dewey Blair, a recent 755 shooter, led Dutchess with 618.

The scores:

Mid-Hudson Auto Sprinklers (2)

Rondout Plays At Wallkill in Top UCAL Tilt

BY ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Kingston's invasion of the Newburgh Free Academy gym; the battle for UCAL supremacy between Rondout and Wallkill and the attempt by Saugerties to snap the 28-game winning streak of Beacon highlight tonight's outstanding area cage slate.

Coach John Gilligan's [illegible] cagers will renew their traditional rivalry at Newburgh as they are decided underdogs against the league leaders.

In the other circuit game, Poughkeepsie is at Middletown.

Rondout, with a 5-0 UCAL mark, travels to Wallkill to face the challenging Panthers, who are sitting in second place with a 5-1 record.

Other games in the league include Marlboro at Onteora and New Paltz at Highland.

DUSO

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Newburgh | 3 | 0 |
| Poughkeepsie | 4 | 1 |
| Port Jervis | 2 | 1 |
| Kingston | 2 | 2 |
| Monticello | 2 | 2 |
| Liberty | 1 | 4 |
| Middletown | 0 | 4 |

KINGSTON AT NEWBURGH—Though the records are different, this is always a good, close game. The Goldies looked impressive in beating Poughkeepsie. Kingston hasn't been able to mount an offense, though the defense has held up well. An upset is possible here, but it will take a superior effort. Then, too, the game is at the NFA gym, giving the home side another edge.

In the other circuit tilt, Poughkeepsie is favored to bounce back after losses to Newburgh and Beacon against the winless Middies.

UCAL

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| Rondout | 5 | 0 |
| Wallkill | 5 | 1 |
| Pine Bush | 3 | 3 |
| New Paltz | 2 | 3 |
| Highland | 2 | 3 |
| Marlboro | 2 | 3 |
| Onteora | 0 | 6 |

RONDOUT AT WALLKILL — The top game of the year in this circuit. The Ganders, able directed by Chick Meehan, have beaten five straight foes. Wallkill lost its opener to Highland and hasn't lost since. It figures to be a tough defensive duel but the visitors will have to stop Harold Kearns to come home a winner.

In the other tilts, New Paltz is favored to defeat an improved Highland five while Marlboro is the choice at Onteora, though the Indians have been looking better each time out.

DCSL

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| Beacon | 4 | 0 |
| Arlington | 3 | 1 |
| Wappingers | 1 | 2 |
| Saugerties | 1 | 2 |
| Lourdes | 1 | 3 |
| Roosevelt | 1 | 3 |

BEACON AT SAUGERTIES — The Bulldogs have rolled over everything in sight. Their latest conquest was, 82-56, over Poughkeepsie and they are rock ribbed favorites to win their 29th straight. The Sawyers have looked good on occasions but they haven't met a team as good as Beacon. Coach Bud Smith will have to pull out all the stops in this one. A Saugerties win will have to go down as one of the biggest upsets in league history.

On the rest of the circuit front, the Roosevelt-Wappingers tilt is a tossup while a vastly improved Arlington quintet is favored to top Lourdes.

Dougherty Hits 619 in Booster

Walt Dougherty sandwiched 170 with 222 and 227 for 619 in the Kingston Booster League.

Bob Paulus hit 208-526, Vic Tresvik 556, Walt Bruchholz 211-547, Herm Sickler 555, Al Bruns 243-548.

Lawrence Leads With 601 Series

Bill Lawrence of Charlie's Car Wash led Mid-City Automotive bowlers with 601 on lines of 212, 191, 198.

There were two triplicates rolled last night. Smith (first name unknown) put together three games of 152, which happens to be exactly his average going into the session.

Bob Whitaker shot 535, Mike Amato 202-553, Jack Houghtaling 527.

Team results:

Hennessey Is Top All Star on 926

DALLAS (AP)—Tom Hennessey became the proud father of a baby boy Thursday night and also scored best in the opening day of qualifying at the All-Star Bowling Tournament.

While the rugged Irishman was compiling a four game series of 926 in the $100,000 world series of ten pins, his wife was delivering an 8 pound 8 ounce son 642 miles away in a St. Louis hospital.

Hennessey, current American Bowling Congress Classic singles and all-events champion, soared to the head of the 288 man field with games of 247, 218, 237 and 224.

Robustelli Delays Retirement Plans

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Andy Robustelli, defensive end for the New York Giants, denies he plans to retire as a player after 13 years in the National Football League.

"Until I get to the meat of the matter with the Giants I won't be able to make any decision," the 36-year-old veteran told reporters at a sports dinner here Thursday night.

"I certainly want to talk it over with the club before I say anything definite."

Robustelli, a player - coach, was reported Jan. 4 to have said in Los Angeles that he definitely would not play next season but would stay with the team as a coach.

Foreign Golfers Lead in Crosby; Balding Has 66

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—An international cast is threatening to shoot a dent into United States golf prestige in the Bing Crosby's $60,000 National Pro-Amateur Championship.

Foreigners held three of the first four places as the 72-hole tournament entered its second round today. Other invaders were in contention and an Irishman was running second in the pro-am phase of the competition.

Meanwhile, America's biggest names struggled.

Lanky Canadian Al Balding held the top spot with his 32-34—66. British Ryder Cupper Geoffrey Hunt squeezed in at 67 with Bobby Nichols of the United States. British Open champion Bob Charles of New Zealand was another stroke behind at 68.

The ten-man traffic jam at 69 included Australian Bruce Devlin. The Irishman running second in pro-am play was Christy O'Connor, who teamed with Bob Goldwater, the senator's brother, for a 61, three strokes behind leaders Mike Fetchick and Charlie Seaver.

Hunt and Egbert Sherwood, along with Puerto Rico's Juan Rodriguez and partner Bob Cardinal, were at 62 in this near-equivalent to a United Nations golf championship.

Big Names Way Back

And where were the biggest names in United States golf?

Arnold Palmer, all-time money winning champion, was back at 72—needing improvement to win more than $100 here.

Jack Nicklaus, the PGA champion, Masters titlist and only man besides Palmer to win $100,000 in one year, was buried in the 75 bracket — potentially below Saturday night's cut

U.S. Open champ Julius Boros was somewhat better off at 71, but Paul Harney and Art Wall, winners on the young 1964 tour, each carried a 76 into the second round.

The field of 174 pros, each with an amateur partner, made the second stops today on the three-course rotation among Cypress Point, Pebble Beach and Monterey Peninsula. Three-round qualifiers will play Sunday at Pebble Beach before national television.

Lucas Pressing For Rookie Title

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jerry Lucas boosted his chances for National Basketball Association Rookie of the Year honors in leading the Cincinnati Royals to a 108-95 win over first place Los Angeles of the Western Division Thursday night.

Lucas' performance was in the second game of a doubleheader—the only action in the NBA — in which the New York Knicks won their first game this season at Cincinnati Gardens with a 124-116 triumph over the Detroit Pistons.

Connecting on nine of 11 field goal attempts and sinking 11 of 14 free throws, Lucas scored 29 points—a pro high for him—and also pulled down 15 rebounds.

The Royals, only two games behind first place Boston in the Eastern Division also got their usual performance from Oscar Robertson, who led the scoring with 32 points.

The Lakers' Jerry West, one of the league's finest shooters, had a rough night. Double teamed by the Royals' Arlen Bocknorn and Tom Thacker, West made only three field goals in 18 shots.

Dick Barnett with 21 points and Eglin Baylor with 19 led the Los Angeles scoring.

The Knicks, who had lost four straight here, fought off a last minute drive by Detroit. With about five minutes left, New York had a 10 point lead, but a Detroit rally narrowed it to two.

Johnny Green spurted New York to a five point lead again with a three-point play, and two quick field goals by Gene Conley, who just came off the bench for the first time, practically gave the Knicks the game.

Detroit's Bailey Howell was high point man, scoring 33. Don Ohl had 28 for the Pistons, while Green paced his team with 26.

Byrne Chevvies Bag Second Win

Byrne Chevrolets dominated the second half to defeat Tony's Pizza, 82-73, for their second win in five YMCA "A" League contests. Tony's are now 1-4 and at the bottom of the standings.

Leading 35-34 at the half, Byrnes made its biggest advance with a 27-19 third period bulge.

Bill DuBois led the winners with 28 points. Joe Uhl bucketed 27 for Tony's.

The score:

Tony's Pizza (73)

Broskie's 687 Paces Big Win For Sprinklers

Led by Harold Broskie's 687 blast, third place Mid-Hudson Auto Sprinklers of Kingston defeated second place Dutchess Sanitation, 2-1, and now the teams are tied in the Mardi-Bob All Star Classic in Poughkeepsie.

Broskie's 230, 233, 224 string paced the Sprinklers to sets of 983, 1056 and 1060 for a 3099 aggregate. Mike Rienzo added 620, Len Sickler Jr. 611, Dick Howard 614 and Tom Carlino 567.

Dewey Blair, a recent 755 shooter, led Dutchess with 618.

The scores:

Mid-Hudson Auto Sprinklers (2)

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Howard | 186 | 201 | 227 | 614 |
| Sickler Jr. | 169 | 211 | 231 | 611 |

Rondout Plays At Wallkill in Top UCAL Tilt

BY ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Kingston's invasion of the Newburgh Free Academy gym; the battle for UCAL supremacy between Rondout and Wallkill and the attempt by Saugerties to snap the 28-game winning streak of Beacon highlight tonight's outstanding area cage slate.

Coach John Gilligan's [illegible] cagers will renew their traditional rivalry at Newburgh [illegible] are decided underdogs against the league leaders.

In the other circuit game, Poughkeepsie is at Middletown.

Rondout, with a 5-0 UCAL mark, travels to Wallkill to face the challenging Panthers, who are sitting in second place with a 5-1 record.

Other games in the league include Marlboro at Onteora and New Paltz at Highland.

Beacon, which hasn't lost a cage start in almost two years, will attempt to make Saugerties its 29th straight victim at the SHS gym.

DUSO

| | W | L |
|---|---|---|
| Newburgh | 3 | 0 |
| Poughkeepsie | 4 | 1 |
| Port Jervis | 2 | 1 |
| Kingston | 2 | 2 |
| Monticello | 2 | 2 |
| Liberty | 1 | 4 |
| Middletown | 0 | 4 |

KINGSTON AT NEWBURGH—Though the records are different, this is always a good, close game. The Goldies looked impressive in beating Poughkeepsie. Kingston hasn't been able to mount an offense, though the defense has held up well. An upset is possible here, but it will take a superior effort. Then, too, the game is at the NFA gym, giving the home side another edge.

In the other circuit tilt, Poughkeepsie is favored to bounce back after losses to Newburgh and Beacon against the winless Middies.

UCAL

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| Rondout | 5 | 0 |
| Wallkill | 5 | 1 |
| Pine Bush | 3 | 3 |
| New Paltz | 2 | 3 |
| Highland | 2 | 3 |
| Marlboro | 2 | 3 |
| Onteora | 0 | 6 |

RONDOUT AT WALLKILL—The top game of the year in this circuit. The Ganders, able directed by Chick Meehan, have beaten five straight foes. Wallkill lost its opener to Highland and hasn't lost since. It figures to be a tough defensive duel but the visitors will have to stop Harold Kearns to come home a winner.

In the other tilts, New Paltz is favored to defeat an improved Highland five while Marlboro is the choice at Onteora, though the Indians have been looking better each time out.

DCSL

| Team | Won | Lost |
|---|---|---|
| Beacon | 4 | 0 |
| Arlington | 3 | 1 |
| Wappingers | 1 | 2 |
| Saugerties | 1 | 2 |
| Lourdes | 1 | 3 |
| Roosevelt | 1 | 3 |

BEACON AT SAUGERTIES—The Bulldogs have rolled over everything in sight. Their latest conquest was, 82-56, over Poughkeepsie and they are rock ribbed favorites to win their 29th straight. The Sawyers have looked good on occasions but they haven't met a team as good as Beacon. Coach Bud Smith will have to pull out all the stops in this one. A Saugerties win will have to go down as one of the biggest upsets in league history.

On the rest of the circuit front, the Roosevelt-Wappingers tilt is a tossup while a vastly improved Arlington quintet is favored to top Lourdes.

Dougherty Hits 619 in Booster

Walt Dougherty sandwiched 170 with 222 and 227 for 619 in the Kingston Booster League.

Bob Paulus hit 208-526, Vic Tresvik 556, Walt Bruchholz 211-547, Herm Sickler 555, Al Bruns 243-548.

Lawrence Leads With 601 Series

Bill Lawrence of Charlie's Car Wash led Mid-City Automotive bowlers with 601 on lines of 212, 191, 198.

There were two triplicates rolled last night, Smith (first name unknown) put together three games of 152, which happens to be exactly his average going into the session.

Frank Picklo, on the opposing team, added three 132's for 396.

Bob Whitaker shot 535, Mike Amato 202-553, Jack Houghtaling 527.

Team results:

Hennessey Is Top All Star on 926

DALLAS (AP)—Tom Hennessey became the proud father of a baby boy Thursday night and also scored best in the opening day of qualifying at the All-Star Bowling Tournament.

While the rugged Irishman was compiling a four game series of 926 in the $100,000 world series of ten pins, his wife was delivering an 8 pound 8 ounce son 642 miles away in a St. Louis hospital.

Hennessey, current American Bowling Congress Classic singles and all-events champion, soared to the head of the 288 man field with games of 247, 218, 237 and 224.

Robustelli Delays Retirement Plans

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Andy Robustelli, defensive end for the New York Giants, denies he plans to retire as a player after 13 years in the National Football League.

"Until I get to the meat of the matter with the Giants I won't be able to make any decision," the 36-year-old veteran told reporters at a sports dinner here Thursday night.

"I certainly want to talk it over with the club before I say anything definite."

Robustelli, a player - coach, was reported Jan. 4 to have said in Los Angeles that he definitely would not play next season but would stay with the team as a coach.

Foreign Golfers Lead in Crosby; Balding Has 66

By DICK BARNES
Associated Press Sports Writer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—An international cast is threatening to shoot a dent into United States golf prestige in the Bing Crosby's $60,000 National Pro-Amateur Championship.

Foreigners held three of the first four places as the 72-hole tournament entered its second round today. Other invaders were in contention and an Irishman was running second in the pro-am phase of the competition.

Meanwhile, America's biggest names struggled.

Lanky Canadian Al Balding held the top spot with his 32-34—66. British Ryder Cupper Geoffrey Hunt squeezed in at 67 with Bobby Nichols of the United States. British Open champion Bob Charles of New Zealand was another stroke behind at 68.

The ten-man traffic jam at 69 included Australian Bruce Devlin. The Irishman running second in pro-am play was Christy O'Connor, who teamed with Bob Goldwater, the senator's brother, for a 61, three strokes behind leaders Mike Fetchick and Charlie Seaver.

Hunt and Egbert Sherwood, along with Puerto Rico's Juan Rodriguez and partner Bob Cardinal, were at 62 in this near-equivalent to a United Nations golf championship.

Big Names Way Back

And where were the biggest names in United States golf?

Arnold Palmer, all-time money winning champion, was back at 72—needing improvement to win more than $100 here.

Jack Nicklaus, the PGA champion, Masters titlist and only man besides Palmer to win $100,000 in one year, was buried in the 75 bracket — potentially below Saturday night's cut.

U.S. Open champ Julius Boros was somewhat better off at 71, but Paul Harney and Art Wall, winners on the young 1964 tour, each carried a 76 into the second round.

The field of 174 pros, each with an amateur partner, made the second stops today on the three-course rotation among Cypress Point, Pebble Beach and Monterey Peninsula. Three-round qualifiers will play Sunday at Pebble Beach before national television.

Lucas Pressing For Rookie Title

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jerry Lucas boosted his chances for National Basketball Association Rookie of the Year honors in leading the Cincinnati Royals to a 108-95 win over first place Los Angeles of the Western Division Thursday night.

Lucas' performance was in the second game of a doubleheader—the only action in the NBA — in which the New York Knicks won their first game this season at Cincinnati Gardens with a 124-116 triumph over the Detroit Pistons.

Connecting on nine of 11 field goal attempts and sinking 11 of 14 free throws, Lucas scored 29 points—a pro high for him—and also pulled down 15 rebounds.

The Royals, only two games behind first place Boston in the Eastern Division also got their usual performance from Oscar Robertson, who led the scoring with 32 points.

The Lakers' Jerry West, one of the league's finest shooters, had a rough night. Double teamed by the Royals' Arlen Bocknorn and Tom Thacker, West made only three field goals in 18 shots.

Dick Barnett with 21 points and Eglin Baylor with 19 led the Los Angeles scoring.

The Knicks, who had lost four straight here, fought off a last minute drive by Detroit. With about five minutes left, New York had a 10 point lead, but a Detroit rally narrowed it to two.

Johnny Green spurted New York to a five point lead again with a three-point play, and two quick field goals by Gene Conley, who just came off the bench for the first time, practically gave the Knicks the game.

Detroit's Bailey Howell was high point man, scoring 33. Don Ohl had 28 for the Pistons, while Green paced his team with 26.

Byrne Chevvies Bag Second Win

Byrne Chevrolets dominated the second half to defeat Tony's Pizza, 82-73, for their second win in five YMCA "A" League contests. Tony's are now 1-4 and at the bottom of the standings.

Leading 35-34 at the half, Byrnes made its biggest advance with a 27-19 third period bulge.

Bill DuBois led the winners with 28 points, Joe Uhl bucketed 27 for Tony's.

The score:

Tony's Pizza (73)

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS
The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept Help-Wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Federal Wage-Hour Law if they offer less than legal minimum wages. Most employes engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce must be paid not less than $1.25 an hour and at least one and one-half times their regular rate of pay for hours worked after a maximum workweek of 40 hours, unless specifically exempt. Also, most employes in certain large retail, service, construction and other enterprises engaged in or producing goods for commerce, who have been entitled to a minimum wage of at least $1.00 an hour since September 3, 1961, must be paid overtime pay of not less than one and one-half times their regular rates for all hours worked after a maximum workweek of 44 hours, unless specifically exempt. If you are offered less by covered employers, or if you have questions concerning the Fair Labor Standards Act or other activities of the U. S. Department of Labor, call or write the Department's local office at 881 Gerard Ave., Bronx, N. Y. 10452 WYandotte 2-1235.

The Weather

FRIDAY, JAN. 17, 1964

Sun rises at 7:22 a. m.; sun sets at 4:50 p. m., EST.
Weather: Sunny.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 21 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 33 degrees.

Weather Forecast

WARMING UP

Upper and Lower Hudson Valley:

Sunny and pleasant this afternoon. High mainly in the middle and upper 30s. Tonight through Saturday, some variable cloudiness, otherwise generally fair and seasonably mild. Rather breezy late tonight and Saturday. Low tonight in the 20s. High Saturday, 36-44. Winds light and variable through early tonight, becoming southerly, 12-25, by Saturday.

Western New York, Northern and Southern Finger Lakes:

Sunshine and a few light snow flurries this afternoon. High, 30-35. Mostly cloudy and becoming rather windy tonight. Low near 30. Saturday, windy and warmer with sunshine and cloudy periods. Considerable thawing likely. Westerly winds, 10-20, becoming southwest to south and increasing, 20-35, tonight and Saturday.

Mild Air Due Through Period

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Extended forecasts, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau, from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Wednesday:

Eastern New York — Seasonably mild weather will extend into next week. Temperatures averaging 5 to 10 degrees above normal. Considerable melting and thawing. Some light snow flurries or brief showers over the weekend but no definite pattern of precipitation indicated.

Western New York—temperatures will average 4 to 7 degrees above normal. A little warmer Saturday, then not much day to day change to Wednesday. Snow flurries Saturda6 or Sunday and again Tuesday or Wednesday.

Temperature normals — Daytime highs, 25 to 34. Nighttime lows, 6 to 15 except upper teens around the Great Lakes.

Appeal Rejected On Sale of Book 'Tropic of Cancer'

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state's highest court has rejected on procedural grounds an appeal by a bookstore - owner against a judge's ruling that the novel "Tropic of Cancer" is obscene.

The Court of Appeals, in a 4-3 decision, held Thursday that questions other than constitutionality were involved and that the case should have been heard first by the Appellate Division of State Supreme Court.

Nathan J. Bunis, operator of the Clinton Bookshop in Rochester, had asked the Court of Appeals to reverse a judgment by Justice Arthur E. Blauvelt of State Supreme Court. Blauvelt ruled that the controversial book by Henry Miller was obscene and its sale in the state illegal.

In a memorandum of dissent, Judges Marvin R. Dye, Stanley H. Fuld and John Van Voorhis said the case involved a constitutional question that "must and will be ultimately determined by the Supreme Court of the United States."

Since it will go to the U.S. Supreme Court eventually, they said, Bunis' direct appeal should be permitted to eliminate unnecessary delay and expense.

Weatherman Has Good State News

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Today's generally mild weather across the state is here to stay for about five days more, the Weather Bureau predicted today.

Scattered snow is expected, but some of that piled up in many areas by last Monday's blizzard will be melting, the bureau said.

Redemption Fee Is $5 if Dogs Are Impounded

City Clerk Walter S. Foster today issued a reminder that 1963 dog licenses expired Dec. 31, and dogs now at large without tags could be impounded at cost to owners.

It would cost an owner $5 to redeem the dog plus the license cost, he said.

The clerk's office, City Hall, is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

The clerk also advised that those applying for licenses by mail must be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Those that do not include such envelopes cannot be returned at the city's expense.

The fees are: male and spayed female $2.25, and female $5.25.

Plan Holstein Day

Registered Holstein breeders across the country will observe Holstein "Good Neighbor" Day on March 21 in a nationwide, grass roots, extension-type promotion of the "Registered" idea for Holstein breeders As a special emphasis for 1964, the project has been in the planning and organizing stages for months, reports The Holstein-Friesian Association of America from its Brattleboro, Vt., headquarters. To carry out the observance, more than 30,000 active and junior members are expected to participate by visiting with one of their neighborhood grade Holstein dairy farms that day. The National Association's 500 state and local organizations are organizing the event in their own areas.

Gillett Elected As Moderator at Baptist Meeting

Lewis L. Gillett of Hurley Heights, a managerial employe of the Kingston plant of International Business Machines Corp., was elected moderator during the annual business meeting of First Baptist Church Thursday night.

Gillett, who is a former trustee and treasurer of that board, succeeds Evan J. Davis.

Budgets Adopted

The 1964 church and benevolence budgets were approved by the assemblage. Arthur T. Pedersen, James H. Betts and William H. Williams, representing the board of trustees, explained the church fund while George W. Chase led the discussion for the benevolent budget.

Pedersen, who is retiring after more than seven years as a member of the board of trustees, was given a standing ovation for his long period of service to the board and church.

Others newly elected last night were:

Deacons—William A. Fuller, Albert Schofield and Richard Whiston, three-year terms.

Deaconesses—Mrs. Lewis L. Gillett, Mrs. Earl C. Mack and Mrs. Ira Woolsey, three-year terms and Mrs. Grover C. Lasher, two years.

Board of Christian Education—Raymond W. Polone, Alfred E. Shultis, Mrs. Charles R. Walters, three-year terms and Mrs. Raymond H. Woodard, one year.

Board of Missions—Donald W. Field Jr. and Harold Van Allen, three years.

Also elected were:

Mrs. Chauncey Elliott Jr., church clerk; Charles R. Walters, church school superintendent; William W. Brady Jr. treasurer of benevolences and Irwin J. Thomas, financial secretary, all one-year terms.

Elect Four Trustees

Four trustees were elected during the corporate meeting of the church.

Charles L. Arnold, a former moderator of the church; James L. Decker and George R. Kenneda were elected to three-year terms as trustees and Arthur H. Brown, one year.

Arnold was clerk for the corporate meeting while Mrs. Elliott served as clerk. Inspectors of election were George W. Chase, James L. Decker and Albert O. Sonnenberg.

The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Schmitz, interim pastor, spoke briefly during the business meeting and listed the challenges which face the local church.

Advisory Meeting

Gillett, the newly-elected moderator, announced that the advisory board of the church would convene Sunday at 3 p. m. to begin plans for the year. Boards will organize at that time.

Considerable thawing likely. Westerly winds, 10-20, becoming southwest to south and increasing, 20-35, tonight and Saturday.

Mild Air Due Through Period

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Extended forecasts, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau, from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Wednesday:

Eastern New York — Seasonably mild weather will extend into next week. Temperatures averaging 5 to 10 degrees above normal. Considerable melting and thawing. Some light snow flurries or brief showers over the weekend but no definite pattern of precipitation indicated.

Western New York—temperatures will average 4 to 7 degrees above normal. A little warmer Saturday, then not much day to day change to Wednesday. Snow flurries Saturda6 or Sunday and again Tuesday or Wednesday.

Temperature normals — Daytime highs, 25 to 34. Nighttime lows, 6 to 15 except upper teens around the Great Lakes.

Appeal Rejected On Sale of Book 'Tropic of Cancer'

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state's highest court has rejected on procedural grounds an appeal by a bookstore - owner against a judge's ruling that the novel "Tropic of Cancer" is obscene.

The Court of Appeals, in a 4-3 decision, held Thursday that questions other than constitutionality were involved and that the case should have been heard first by the Appellate Division of State Supreme Court.

Nathan J. Bunis, operator of the Clinton Bookshop in Rochester, had asked the Court of Appeals to reverse a judgment by Justice Arthur E. Blauvelt of State Supreme Court. Blauvelt ruled that the controversial book by Henry Miller was obscene and its sale in the state illegal.

Bunis had gone directly to the state's highest court with his appeal, bypassing the Appellate Division.

Such a short-cut is permissible when the only question in the case is a constitutional one.

The majority issued no opinion.

In a memorandum of dissent, Judges Marvin R. Dye, Stanley H. Fuld and John Van Voorhis said the case involved a constitutional question that "must and will be ultimately determined by the Supreme Court of the United States."

Since it will go to the U.S. Supreme Court eventually, they said, Bunis' direct appeal should be permitted to eliminate unnecessary delay and expense.

Redemption Fee Is $5 if Dogs Are Impounded

City Clerk Walter S. Foster today issued a reminder that 1963 dog licenses expired Dec. 31, and dogs now at large without tags could be impounded at cost to owners.

It would cost an owner $5 to redeem the dog plus the license cost, he said.

The clerk's office, City Hall, is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

The clerk also advised that those applying for licenses by mail must be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Those that do not include such envelopes cannot be returned at the city's expense.

The fees are: male and spayed female $2.25, and female $5.25.

Plan Holstein Day

Registered Holstein breeders across the country will observe Holstein "Good Neighbor" Day on March 21 in a nationwide, grass roots, extension-type promotion of the "Registered" idea for Holstein breeders As a special emphasis for 1964, the project has been in the planning and organizing stages for months, reports The Holstein-Friesian Association of America from its Brattleboro, Vt., headquarters. To carry out the observance, more than 30,000 active and junior members are expected to participate by visiting with one of their neighborhood grade Holstein dairy farms that day. The National Association's 500 state and local organizations are organizing the event in their own areas.

Gillett Elected As Moderator at Baptist Meeting

Lewis L. Gillett of Hurley Heights, a managerial employe of the Kingston plant of International Business Machines Corp., was elected moderator during the annual business meeting of First Baptist Church Thursday night.

Gillett, who is a former trustee and treasurer of that board, succeeds Evan J. Davis.

Budgets Adopted

The 1964 church and benevolence budgets were approved by the assemblage. Arthur T. Pedersen, James H. Betts and William H. Williams, representing the board of trustees, explained the church fund while George W. Chase led the discussion for the benevolent budget.

Pedersen, who is retiring after more than seven years as a member of the board of trustees, was given a standing ovation for his long period of service to the board and church.

Others newly elected last night were:

Deacons—William A. Fuller, Albert Schofield and Richard Whiston, three-year terms.

Deaconesses—Mrs. Lewis L. Gillett, Mrs. Earl C. Mack and Mrs. Ira Woolsey, three-year terms and Mrs. Grover C. Lasher, two years.

Board of Christian Education—Raymond W. Polone, Alfred E. Shultis, Mrs. Charles R. Walters, three-year terms and Mrs. Raymond H. Woodard, one year.

Board of Missions—Donald W. Field Jr. and Harold Van Allen, three years.

Also elected were:

Mrs. Chauncey Elliott Jr., church clerk; Charles R. Walters, church school superintendent; William W. Brady Jr. treasurer of benevolences and Irwin J. Thomas, financial secretary, all one-year terms.

Elect Four Trustees

Charles L. Arnold, a former moderator of the church; James L. Decker and George R. Kenneda were elected to three-year terms as trustees and Arthur H. Brown, one year.

Arnold was clerk for the corporate meeting while Mrs. Elliott served as clerk. Inspectors of election were George W. Chase, James L. Decker and Albert O. Sonnenberg.

The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Schmitz, interim pastor, spoke briefly during the business meeting and listed the challenges which face the local church.

Advisory Meeting

Gillett, the newly-elected moderator, announced that the advisory board of the church would convene Sunday at 3 p. m. to begin plans for the year. Boards will organize at that time.
